1 Château Haut Brion - Vintage 1998

Graves

1nl, 1x12 bottle owc

"Still incredibly youthful and sporting a lot of fruit, the deep garnet-brick colored 1998 Haut-Brion sashays out of the glass with flamboyant red and black fruits, followed by a train of cassis, blueberry pie and chocolate box notions plus accents of iron ore, dried lavender and underbrush. Medium to full-bodied, the palate is wonderfully rich and decadently seductive in its generosity of fruit and velvety texture, offering seamless freshness and finishing with epic length and compelling minerality. Oh so delicious right now, with careful cellaring it should continue to excite through 2045 and beyond."(99pts)

2 Château L'Eglise Clinet - Vintage 2005

Pomerol

1x1 Imperial owc

"A sensational effort from proprietor Denis Durantou, this 2005 is a compelling wine, but purchasers should wait at least a decade to begin the magical liquid tour. One of the monumental wines of the vintage, it boasts a dense purple color as well as a glorious perfume of caramelized blackberries, blueberries, and raspberries, a hint of toast in the backward, fully integrated oak, full body, and exceptional density and richness. Prodigiously concentrated, this layered, broad Pomerol reveals a seamless integration of acidity, tannin, alcohol, and wood. It is a massive, yet remarkably elegant wine that is as singular as it is exhilarating."(100pts)

4 Château La Mission Haut Brion - Vintage 1975

Graves

bn, lbsl, tc, scc, excellent color

"The 1975 La Mission-Haut-Brion has been the most consistent wine of the vintage. Super-concentrated, and now beginning to shed enough tannin so that it can be fully appreciated, this enormously constituted La Mission-Haut-Brion has developed that fabulous Graves set of aromatics - tobacco, black fruits, minerals, roasted herbs, and cedar. Huge, massive, thick, and succulent, with moderate tannin, and some amber notes at the edge... it comes closest in style to resembling the 1945, with a hint of the sweet, ripe 1959."(100pts)

5 Château Lafleur - Vintage 1982

Pomerol

1bn, 1lgs, 1lbsl, 1cuc

"A spectacular nose of kirsch liqueur, minerals, flowers, and blackberries jumps from the glass of this thick, dark ruby-colored Lafleur. Over-ripeness, a characteristic of many 1982s (I say that in a positive, not pejorative sense), is apparent in this jammy, unctuously-textured, massive wine. Somewhat of a paradox to taste, it offers notes of maturity, richness, and succulence contrasted with massive structure, muscle, and density. Thrilling to drink, despite its youthful, tannic grip, the 1975 and 1979 Lafleurs come closest to this wine's massiveness and formidable intensity."(100pts)

4lgsl, 2sc
"Sumptuously rich fruit followed by flavors that are astoundingly complex and powerfully long with magisterial elegance. This is supreme in its expression of that which is Chambertin, offering power without weight yet an intensity and pungency of flavors that must be experienced to be believed. This wine has improved like a rocket since it was released and while there are still solid but ripe finishing tannins, it is slowly approaching its peak. Only a handful of Burgundies ever show this level of quality and this has to be one of the top five wines of the vintage."(96pts BH)

Clos de Bèze, A. Rousseau
"A positively kaleidoscopic nose features a wonderful panoply of spice and fruit aromas that offer something new and different with every sniff. The rich, full and utterly classic flavors are a study of the harmonious liaison of refinement and power that culminate in an explosive and driving finish that is even longer than that of the Clos St. Jacques yet it sacrifices nothing in terms of balance, harmony or transparency. A strikingly good wine packed with upside potential. While pronouncements of this sort are always fraught, it's possible that the 2005 Bèze could one day rival the best Rousseau Bèze ever..."(98pts BH)

The tannins are prominent but ripe and the density of extract is impressive and this both coats and stains the palate. "Tasted at the La Tâche vertical at The Square. Not having tasted the La Tâche 1980 for 14 years, I must admit that I had high expectations for this wine and it truly delivered. Ignore the pale color, the extensive bricking on the rim because you will be transfixed by the nose. It is absolutely ethereal with quite brilliant transparency, fleeting glimpses of wild heather, jasmine, rose petals and Lapsong Souchang. The palate is fresh and tense, gently building in the mouth with all the delicacy you can imagine. No, there is not the length here but it is far fresher than the 1985 La Tâche with a sense of nervosité on the finish. Of all the vintages of La Tâche this is one of the most impressive and also the most difficult to put into words. It is simply a heavenly Pinot Noir at its peak."(98pts)

"...smells spectacularly of rose, violet, and licorice; confluence of red and black berry fruits; and smoky, machine oil-like mineral scents. 19 Clos de la Roche - Vintage 1999

Dujac

1x12 bottle ocb

"There is a certain reserve and distance present in this wine that the other wines don't have. Slightly austere with a mineral essence that tends to suppress the pinot baby fat lurking beneath the surface. The potential here is enormous yet it is largely hidden and unlike many 99s, this is not at all showy but rather calm and deliberate. All the components are here for a long and slow evolution but it may take 10 to 15 years to realize its awesome potential." (93pts BH)

20 Clos de la Roche - Vintage 2006

Dujac

3nl

"The Dujac 2006 Clos de la Roche is a dark, brooding Pinot no less complex or long than its Clos St.-Denis sibling. Here, the animal side is a gamey, faintly sweaty beast; the fruits dark and as bitter as they are sweet; and the sense of chocolate-like richness remarkable in the context of the vintage. And rather than an energetic sense of interplay, this conveys a layering of fruit, meat, and stony, saline mineral elements, supported by tactile viscosity and a sappy sense of almost indelible cling. Lucky are those who can follow and compare both of these wines over the next dozen years." (95pts)

21 Clos St. Denis - Vintage 1985

Dujac

"This was the second time that I have had a magnum of 1985 Dujac Clos St. Denis this year, one in HK and now one in NY. It is easy to see why I spend so much time in these two cities. My first comments were wow again, fabulous nose, see JAN HK notes. This magnum was served a bit colder and was not quite as opulent as in HK, but its aromatics slowly unveiled and revealed an S on its chest, just the same. Leather, zip, sauce and a hint of September marked this long, fine and superb red." (97pts JK)

22 Vosne Romanée - Vintage 2005

Aux Malconsorts, Dujac

lsl

"... offers smoky, tea-like, floral, and spicy aromas. It comes to the palate relatively firm though texturally refined and strikingly clear, full of deep, smoke-licked meaty flavors, ripe though slightly tart raspberry, flowers, tea and spices. Palpably dense, this nevertheless avoids any sense of heaviness or opacity, but instead displays lift and liveliness. The amazingly long finish really builds momentum, confirming how much is held in reserve for the long haul, and that this is about meats, stones, flowers, herbs and spices in short very much about Pinot's mysteries, but very little about fruits or berries." Aux Malconsorts, Dujac

1x3 magnum owc

"The Dujac 2006 Vosne-Romanée Les Malconsorts displays a more consistently sweet (cherry, plum, and black-berry) fruit and refined, creamier texture than the corresponding Beaux Monts. Black tea, star anise, honey, and brown spices along with a raw meat undertone add intrigue, and this finishes with polished, even soothing length. All in all, it struck me that Malconsorts and Beaux Monts were exhibiting a role reversal on this occasion. This is certainly grand cru in its complexity and length, and should I suspect merit following for the better part of a decade."(94pts)

This is truly Zen-like in its harmony of expression. The '05 Ducster is destined to take its place alongside the greatest vintages of the past and while the words "best ever" are presumptuous in a wine with such a distinguished history, the mere fact that it has the potential to be among the very best is praise enough."(94-97pts BH)

“The 2008 Meursault Village is superb, unwinding in the glass with aromas of lemon oil, iodine, mandarin zest and hazelnut cream. On the palate, it’s medium to full-bodied and searingly intense, built around a bright line of tangy acidity but with a beautifully textural attack and a deep core of fruit. The finish is tensile and stony, becoming chalkier after an hour or two. When I saw Coche a few days before ordering this bottle, he counseled decanting it, and I’m glad that I followed his advice, as it’s a wine that blossoms aromatically and texturally with air. At almost age ten, it’s beginning to show well, but it has the balance and energy to evolve for two more decades.”(93pts)

This is a tightly wound, tensile Meursault with real presence and weight in the mouth, fanning out towards the sour lemon-tinged finish that feels so alive. How do they do it? This quintessentially elegant wine reveals liquid minerals intertwined with flowers, spices and stones. The French would say it is “aerien,” meaning it is spiritual. The palate is effortlessly balanced with perfect acidity, immense tension and poise with an elegant, stony, almost conservative finish that delivers wonderful complexity. This may warrant more superlatives with further bottle age. Awesome.”(96pts)

56 Meursault - Vintage 2009

Perrières, Coche-Dury

"Light and not really bothersome reduction is in any event not sufficient to hide the sublimely elegant aromas of white flower, citrus and wet stone. This refined introduction is followed by stony and beautifully precise flavors that possess a positively gorgeous mouth feel before terminating in a driving, citrusy and presently compact finish that delivers superb persistence. This is still very much of a baby and given that it's blessed with both an abundance of dry extract and impeccable balance should augur for an excellent future."(94pts BH)

57 Meursault - Vintage 2012

Perrières, Coche-Dury

"This MP was rich and long, displaying signature acacia and honeysuckle aromas. So rich' appeared in my notes again, but it was a touch oaky at first. With air, though, that resolved itself. This was still heavier than I expected, and Mr. Pink admired its laser focus.' I can't remember who Mr. Pink is, but he has a name lol"(96+pts JK)

58 Meursault - Vintage 2014

Charmes, Comte Lafon

1nl, 1nc

"It demonstrated a subtle reduction on the nose with scents of dried quince complementing the citrus fruit, walnut and smoke aromas. The palate is well balanced with fine delineation, harmonious with notes of tangerine and orange zest, the oak nicely integrated with appreciable weight on the finish. Very fine, very sophisticated..."(95pts)

59 Meursault - Vintage 2001

Les Gouttes d'Or, D'Auvenay (Leroy)

nl, ssos

"Honey and spice characterize the nose of this chewy, mouth coating, enormously deep, muscular and broad shouldered flavors with a stunningly concentrated, rich and long back end. Still quite tight and indeed closed and could easily rival a great Bâtard in sheer size, depth, power and length though the flavor profile is different. A genuinely great effort."(95pts BH)

60 Batard Montrachet - Vintage 2004

Domaine Leflaive

2lstl, 6ssos, 1x6 magnum owc

"Despite the presence of moderate reduction, the nose offers an elegant mix of wood spice, fresh and wonderfully nuanced high-toned white flower aromas and just a touch of exotic fruit that precedes sweet, rich and notably powerful flavors that possess exceptionally good dry extract levels which confer a textured, almost chewy mouth feel on the sleekly muscled and explosive finish. This is an impressive effort that is relatively racy by the usual standards found in Batard and one that should age for years."(94pts BH)

61 Chevalier Montrachet - Vintage 2004

62 Batard Montrachet - Vintage 1990

Ramonet

2lbsl, 1lwrl, 1cuc

"The only other wine belonging at the top of the pyramid was the 1990 Ramonet. It was lipsmacking and zippy, with milk, corn, spice and mint, and while its fruit was showing some outstanding secondary qualities, its finish was still ascending and primary. It outclassed all the other whites by a few lengths."(97Mpts JK)

63 Montrachet - Vintage 1983

Ramonet

lbsl, lwrl

"The 1983 Ramonet Montrachet was another intense nose full of spine and wax. It was the most pungent of the flight and very youthful. Its intensity was beautiful like an Aurora Borealis, and its acidity was the most superior of the flight. (96+pts JK) A flat out superb nose that is obviously very ripe with botrytis hints yet there is nothing obvious or cloying about it that introduces wonderfully long, fantastically rich and complex flavors that culminate in sappy, palate staining and almost unbelievably long finish. This is drinking perfectly now yet displays absolutely no sign of tiring and should drink well for another 10 years, perhaps longer."(95pts BH)

Ramonet

3hbsl, 3tal

"This just exudes breed even with its colossal nose of limestone, oak spice and cornucopia of flower aromas, especially dried rose petal followed by powerful, ultra rich, thick, palate staining flavors that are remarkably detailed for such a massively constituted wine. This has a palate impression of a red wine with its tannic structure. I prefer the elegance of the 99 but for sheer size this is impressive and one of the best 98 whites I have tasted 2008-2015."(94pts BH)

65 Chablis - Vintage 2002

Les Clos, Raveneau

1lstl, 1crc, 1hcr

"Raveneau's 2002 Chablis Les Clos is off the charts. Limestone, chalk, spices, white peaches, and minerals can be made out in its aromatics (these are less expressive than Raveneau's other 2002s, typical for a young Les Clos). A powerful, full-bodied effort, it reveals a personality of awe-inspiring intensity, depth, and concentration. Pure, dense, muscular, exceptionally well-balanced, this brilliant wine boats a complex flavor profile of salty pears, earth, flint, and hints of candied lemons. Wow!..." (98-100pts)

Montee de Tonnerre, Raveneau

"The expressive and ripe nose displays various floral nuances, citrus, stone, oyster shell and ocean breeze scents that are trimmed in just a hint of wood. There is really beautiful detail to the stony, sappy and sleekly muscular middle weight flavors that display a lovely sense of harmony and vibrancy on the moderately dry and impressively persistent finish. While this is very much still on the way up this is built for the medium-term and should be at or very near its peak in 4 to 6 years."(93pts BH)

69 Hermitage - Vintage 1990

J.L. Chave

"1990 is the Hermitage appellation's greatest vintage since 1978, and maybe since 1961. I have been tasting Chave's Hermitage since the great 1978 vintage, and the black-colored 1990 is unquestionably the most massive and concentrated wine he has yet produced. Perhaps the real difference between it and the splendid 1989 is that the 1990 exhibits a more roasted character to its nose, as well as a bit more tannin and concentration in the mouth. Except for that, they are both mind-boggling, monumental bottles of red Hermitage."(98pts)

70 Côte Rôtie - Vintage 1999

Jamet

"One of the all-time greats from this estate is the still inky colored 1999 Côte Rôtie. From a hot year that had many vigneronns struggling with vinification issues, Jean-Paul compared 1999 to 2009 more than once. Sensationally rich, concentrated and full-bodied, it reveals a classic bouquet of pepper, smoked herbs, black currants and licorice. One sexy Côte Rôtie that's just hard to resist, it's drinking perfectly today but will evolve nicely for another decade or more."(97pts)

"I loved the 2001 Côte Rôtie, but it's not for the instant gratification crowd, and even at age 14, it still has a wall of acidity and tannin. Compared to the '91 by Jean-Paul, it's a serious, medium to full-bodied, concentrated and structured Côte Rotie that has lots of cassis, currants, pepper, smoked meats and game. Possessing high acidity, beautiful concentration and ample underlying structure, give bottles another 2-4 years of cellaring and enjoy through 2031."(95+pts)

The fruit is enormous, the acidity, the concentration, the house's barrel tones: all are present and correct the most full-bodied wine to come from the property since 1976 The nose's spectrum embraces nuts, coffee, butter, sun-dried sheets, toffee-wrappers, orchids, vanilla, balsam poplars, and oranges. "Remarkably perfumed nose projects an exotic bouquet of deep, leesy yellow fruit, minerals, honeycomb, smoked meat and flowers, with Asian spices building expanding in the glass. Almost painfully concentrated, offering a surreal parade of orchard and pit fruits, smoked meat, toasted brioche and marrow braced by intensely salty, stunningly incisive minerality. Imagine a Frankenstein's monster of Chablis Le Clos and Clos Ste. Hune-but one with perfect balance, of course-and you get an idea of what I found in my bottle. The energetic, stony character builds exponentially on the finish, which didn't seem to, well, finish. The best analogy I can come up with for the intensity, focus and clarity of this Champagne is liquefied barbed wire. Utterly hallucinatory and one of the most amazing wines I've ever been fortunate enough to drink."(99+pts IWC)

"The Salon 1999 Brut Le Mesnil disgorged already in 2011 and dosed with a pretty typical six grams of residual sugar displays faintly fusil and quarry dust notes as well as hickory nut, almond, walnut and toasted wheat piquancy on the nose. Polished and subtly creamy in texture yet brightly juicy with apple and lemon, this displays an uncanny sense of lift and refinement, perfectly complementing the honeysuckle and heliotrope perfume that waft inner-mouth. You could lose yourself in the ineffability of this wine's floral diversity and in its resonantly nut and grain low tones. Hints of apple pip lend subtle additional piquancy on a long and at once soothing as well as stimulating finish, with suggestions of oyster liquor becoming prominent as the bottle stands open for a few minutes, and serving to milk the salivary glands for all that they are worth."(95pts)

"I had this wine in a blind tasting - I have had it frequently, and have never failed to give it a perfect rating. At the same time, I have often mis-identified it in blind tastings as the 1986 Mouton-Rothschild. In this tasting, the wine was phenomenal. The color remains an opaque purple. The bouquet is beginning to develop secondary aromas of cedar and truffles to go along with its intense cassia, black-raspberry, blackberry, tarry, toasty personality. Exceptionally dense, concentrated, and full-bodied, this wine possesses layers of concentrated fruit that are beautifully balanced by the wine's sweet tannin and well-integrated acidity. MR. BURGUNDY

Our featured collection is almost all amazingly profound Burgundy with a tremendous number of lots from ten of its finest producers. Originally, however, Mr. Burgundy cut his teeth on Bordeaux with the release of the heralded 1982 vintage, with his first major purchase being a case of Lynch Bages from that special year. His love for wine was taken higher to another level in the 1990s by the passion also known as Burgundy. This passion could not be stopped, and he continued to acquire more Burgundy over the next two decades, slowing down a bit over the past decade. Many of the wines were purchased on release with some regular backfilling of the older vintages at auction. His current collection is over 15,000 bottles! I have had the pleasure of sharing wines with him for over almost twenty years, as he was a part of one of my first tasting groups, and also a part of many of some of my greatest wine nights.

Mr. Burgundy is a genuine wine loving soul who has always had a generous spirit. He has been a drinker first, a collector second and seldom a seller until now. When he realized it might take him fifty plus years (and into his hundreds (of years old!)) to work his way through drinking his collection, he figured it was time to let a chunk go. He never bought wine as an investment; rather, he always focused on buying the producers he truly enjoyed. This is a spectacular opportunity to buy the best of the best Burgundies in quantity, and a monument to great Burgundy collecting expertise.

Currently, Mr. Burgundy stores his wines professionally as well as in his custom-built, underground wine cellar, which is kept at an ideal 55 degrees and 70% humidity and houses about twenty percent of his collection. Now on to some highlights!

We begin this very special consignment from Mr. Burgundy with fourteen lots of Rousseau crested by several magnums going back to 1985! We continue with ten lots of Vogue with Musigny going back to 1989, and then Leroy takes a lioness' share with seven lots of d'Auvenay focusing on Bonnes Mares, forty lots of Domaine Leroy and eight lots of Maison Leroy. Every lot of Leroy and for that matter, every time a bottle of Leroy is opened is a highlight, but we shine the light on 1990 Chambertin, 1993 Clos de la Roche, 1991 Musigny, 1990 Richebourg and 1988 Romanee St. Vivant just to give you a little teaser!

Domaine de la Romanee Conti counters by taking the lion's share with 59, yes fifty-nine, lots of its Grand Crus. There are nineteen lots of La Tache arching over 1959 to 2009, fifteen lots of Richebourg from 1971 to 2014, nineteen lots of Romanee-St. Vivant spanning 1978 to 2012 as well as 2010 Romanee Conti itself. We told you he was Mr. Burgundy!!!

Dujac is exceptionally represented with nearly four dozen lots (!) including eight Bonnes Mares 1985 to 2009, four from Chambertin, fifteen of Clos de la Roche 1980 to 2012 and four lots of Romanee St. Vivant. There are more than two dozen lots of Roumier focusing on seventeen lots of Bonnes Mares spanning 1971 to 2009 and some Musigny and Amoureuuses for spice. Mugnier has eleven lots from Musigny star, featuring 1988 to 2006.

SINCE 1820

109 Richebourg - Vintage 2010

A. Gros

"Here too there is less obvious wood than I typically find with this wine and it better enables the reticent and exceptionally cool fruit and broad ranging spice notes to be expressed. There is wonderful verve and freshness to the broad-shouldered, dense and extract-rich flavors where an intense minerality surfaces on the palate staining, focused and linear finish that delivers simply terrific length." (93-95pts BH)

2 bottles per lot $1200-1600

110 Chambertin - Vintage 1985

A. Rousseau

lbsl, sdc

"The 1985 Rousseau was close behind it, a bit more yeast with lots of busty red fruit and a granular, granite-like finish." (98Mpts JK)

1 magnum per lot $12000-18000

111 Chambertin - Vintage 1991

A. Rousseau

"Sumptuously rich fruit followed by flavors that are astoundingly complex and powerfully long with magisterial elegance. This is supreme in its expression of that which is Chambertin, offering power without weight yet an intensity and pungency of flavors that must be experienced to be believed. This wine has improved like a rocket since it was released and while there are still solid but ripe finishing tannins, it is slowly approaching its peak. Only a handful of Burgundies ever show this level of quality and this has to be one of the top five wines of the vintage." (96pts BH)

1 bottle per lot $5000-7000

112 Chambertin - Vintage 1995

A. Rousseau

"What a sexy and exotic red Burgundy. Backward and unforgiving now, this wine is nonetheless packed with dense, ripe black cherry, plum and well-integrated oak flavors that fan out on the long finish." (96pts WS)

3 bottles per lot $6000-8000

113 Chambertin - Vintage 1996

A. Rousseau

vlbsl, tl

"As great as so many of the wines that we had already tasted on this magical evening, this next flight of reds absolutely stole the show. It began with a spectacular bottle courtesy of Big Mike. The first thing I wrote was, WOW. The Rousseau was meaty, intense and DEEP; it was full of rose, iron, crushed red fruits, vitamins, tannins, alcohol, acidity, brick, iron, wildfire it was game over. As Eli decreed, that s it. The palate was rich, hearty and incredible with its rose, oil, game and vitamin flavors. This was wine was flat out incredible." (97pts JK)

1 magnum per lot $6500-8500

114 Chambertin - Vintage 2001

A. Rousseau

"Tasted alongside the 2001 Clos Saint Jacques, the 2001 Chambertin Grand Cru possesses an ethereal, floral bouquet of raspberry jam, Morello cherries, minerals and undergrowth, gaining in intensity all the time in the glass. The palate is very natural and refined, in no way a powerful Chambertin, rather one of finesse, grace and purity. Divine." (95pts)

1 magnum per lot $6000-8000

115 3 bottles per lot $6000-8000

116 Chambertin - Vintage 2002

A. Rousseau

"Pine resin, sweet blackberries, and dark cherries are found in the nose of the 2002 Chambertin. Medium-bodied, its silky-textured character offers spice box, black raspberry, cherry, cassis, and notes of fresh herbs. This pure, noble, suave wine also possesses a prolonged, seamless finish that is loaded with additional layers of fruit." (94-96pts)

3 bottles per lot $6000-8000

117 Chambertin - Vintage 1990

Clos de Bèze, A. Rousseau

Clos de Bèze, A. Rousseau
 2bsl, 2lsl
"Classic Clos de Bèze nose that offers an explosion of incredibly complex aromas with a flavor spectrum so broad that it is akin to the unfolding of a peacock's tail. Rich, dense and structured with a finish that is almost painfully intense. Still very young, though more expressive today than the Chambertin, and offers a wonderful combination of power and finesse. There are solid tannins but they are completely buffered by all of the mid-palate sap. An elegant, altogether exquisite Clos de Bèze."(94pts BH)

Sweet, pure fruit began a bit reticent but exploded with aeration to show great thrust and pinot tang. Despite its substantial volume, this wine's fresh berry flavors are sharply delineated. Sweetly oaky in the mouth and on the suavely tannic, very long finish. Finishing note of cinnamon."(94pts VM)

"Deep red-ruby, the darkest of these '95s. Knockout aromas of black raspberry, chocolate, espresso and exotic spices. Incredible inner-mouth mineral and berry flavors. Spicy, delineated and truly palate-staining. Has a structure that reminded me of Cabernet Sauvignon. Explosive finish, with tannins that coat the palate, teeth, furniture." (96pts VM)

130 Musigny - Vintage 1998*Vieilles Vignes, Comte de Vogue1x12 bottle owc*

"Massive aromas of red and black fruits and a fascinating array of spices and violets with austere yet regal soil inflected flavors of incredible density. This is arguably 100% pure extract of pinot yet the textural impact does not come across as syrupy or viscous. There is superb balance to go with the serious nature of this wine and it simply reeks class. Wine simply doesn't get much better." (95pts BH)

132 Musigny - Vintage 2001*Vieilles Vignes, Comte de Vogue1x6 bottle owc*

"One of the finest wines of the vintage, this is simply a spectacular effort that has captured every bit of the potential it originally displayed in cask. Restrained and backward nose of a fantastically complex mix of blackberries, spice, cedar, soy, anise and dried herbs followed by full-bodied, multi-layered flavors of amazing length. Opulent and lavish yet all remains exquisitely balanced and this is astonishingly precise. A real stunner of a wine that is as classy and graceful as they come. As good and classy as the '02 if not quite as structured." (96pts BH)

12 bottles per lot $6000-8000

133 Musigny - Vintage 2002*Vieilles Vignes, Comte de Vogue1x6 bottle owc*

"The extraordinary 2002 Musigny Vieilles Vignes will most likely not have as much cellaring potential as the great 1949, 1959, or 1990, yet qualitatively is in the same league as those jewels from the past. It sports a profound nose of red cherries, spices, candied raspberries, and hints of oak. This noble, concentrated, refined wine reveals loads of flowers intermingled with red as well as black fruits in its complex personality. Unlike the bold, chewy, hyper-concentrated 1990, this is a feminine wine, a work of art with exquisite tannin. Anticipated maturity: 2007-2018." (97-99pts)

135 Bonnes Mares - Vintage 1995*D'Auvenay (Leroy)1-4cm bc, Iwisl, 2cc, Isos*

"...displays a fabulously perfumed, elegant nose of roses in addition to red and dark fruits. In the mouth, this explosive, intensely powerful and structured wine offers deeply roasted, lush, dark fruits. Full-bodied, it has a brilliant combination of elegance and power (a hallmark of great wines). It should be cellared for 8+ years and enjoyed over the subsequent decade." (93pts)

3 bottles per lot $8000-12000

136 Bonnes Mares - Vintage 1996*D'Auvenay (Leroy)1vlscl, Iwisl, Isdc*

"This dark colored wine has a violet and cookie dough-laced nose that gives way to a velvety-textured, massively concentrated, masculine, broad-shouldered and powerful character. This full-bodied, thick, highly-structured, intense, and extraordinarily proportioned wine is crammed with candied blackberries, cassis liqueur, beef blood, and loads of supple tannins. Its immensely long finish tails off after 40 seconds on notes of sweet blueberries and vanilla-imbued oak. Lalou Bize-Leroy bottled her Domaine d'Auvenay 1996s before harvesting the 1997s because "they were so good, I did not think they could get better". She compared them to the 1959s saying they had the same richness, fruit, and body at this stage of their evolution." (95pts)

139 Mazis Chambertin - Vintage 1996
D'Auvenay (Leroy)
lbsl, lscl
"We started with an unbelievably good 1996 D'Auvenay (Leroy) Mazis-Chambertin. D'Auvenay is an estate-owned property owned and made by Leroy. It had a big nose, with huge amounts of rusty, deep fruit, plum and cassis to be exact, with minerals and a hint of chocolate. Only 870 bottles of this wine were made. Welcome to Burgundy, the microscopic labyrinth to greatness. There was also a touch of gas and popcorn to its nose, but it did not bother me. The wine had rich, mind-boggling concentration and was mouth coating, staining and gripping, but it still had the balance of a world class Burgundy. I could not stop drinking it. This secondary soy/hoisin and rice vinegar complexity emerged with time."(96pts JK)

"Amazing nose - so youthful - honey there with round and rich red fruits with a touch of Kahlua and chocolate has an incredible vanilla extract quality as well palate screams outstanding sweet, leathery fruit outstanding length Bipin called it 'flawless.' It must have been - Bipin actually finished his glass! '1959 was a big harvest with an extremely ripe, very mature crop that we brought in earlier than waqs usual in that era, which is to say September 25th. "Aged burg nose of Asian spices and a hint of sous bois with pretty, nicely spicy flavors that have quite a bit of tannin poking through on the finish. 149 La Tâche - Vintage 1978

gsl, cuc, excellent color

"My expectations were understandably sky high given the reputation, but I was not disappointed because it lived up to everything I hoped for. Mature in color with wide bricking on the rim, the nose is utterly bewitching with fragrant scents of orange peel, iron piping, damp undergrowth, wild mushroom and a hint of dried blood. It felt intense yet beautifully defined. The palate felt fully mature after 38 years, the tannins completely melted. While there is not the weight of the 1978 Romanée-Conti, there is a sense of presence and grandeur imbued by this La Tâche. The balance is perfect, the symmetry beguiling, and it gently fans out on the pure, caressing finish. It offers everything you could wish from a mature Pinot Noir; a hauntingly beautiful wine that I shall remember for a very long time."(98pts)

"Sixteen wines were down and only eight to go. Make that nine, as the next wine was served out of magnum, a 1983 DRC La Tâche. The LT had an incredible nose. 'Now that's a real wine,' I wrote. Its sweetness was incredible, as Big Boy quickly called out 'ballgame,' meaning the competition was over. There was also great iron, big Asian spice and musk. Incredible kept coming up over and over in my notes. The palate was off the charts - rich, creamy, luscious, vigorous and spiny, it certainly did not change my opinion that 1983 DRC wines are delicious right now, especially out of magnum."(96pts JK)

153 La Tâche - Vintage 1993

Domaine de la Romanée Conti

"...is the forgotten, great young vintage of La Tâche. It really needed some time to open up, at first a bit herbal, very tight and structured. After some time, its density, balance and tannins took over, and its palate and acidity were enormous, even longer than the 99 although not as dense. Rose, iron and tea all reluctantly emerged in the mouth in this Frankenstein of a La Tâche, a Frankenstein that graduated from Harvard, that is."(97+pts JK)

157 La Tâche - Vintage 1999

Domaine de la Romanée Conti

"...is blessed with an incredibly intense, powerful nose that loses its broodiness with aeration and eventually unveils a crystalline set of mineral-soaked aromatics that sport a decadent, almost exotic floral note wilted violets and potpourri. The palate has a quite astonishing structure, but it is more the symmetry that makes this one of the greatest vintages of recent years. It unfolds with daring passion to reveal layers of plush but focused dark plum and cassis fruit that just seem to flow and flow on the never-ending finish. It is a multifaceted, multidimensional masterpiece that really needs another decade in bottle."(100pts)

"Strikingly extravagant nose of rose petals, oriental spices, pungent tea and leather notes plus ultra elegant pinot fruit. The powerful, chiseled, pure flavors are remarkably detailed, precise and fine with mind bending complexity yet for all the emotional drama of this wine, it remains understated and almost aloof at the moment. The finish is dense, structured and quite firm though there is nary a hard edge to be found and while this too cannot rival the other worldly 1999, 2001 will one day be thought of as a genuinely excellent vintage for La Tâche. In short, aristocratic in every sense."(96pts BH)

"Tasted at the La Tâche vertical at The Square. It was initially difficult to choose between the 1999 and 2002 La Tâche, but in the end the former just ascended to the stratosphere, while the latter simply cruised, albeit at a very high altitude. Now at 13 years of age, there is just a slight bricking on the rim. It feels a little more forward than the 1999 a stylish and personality-driven bouquet with predominantly red berry fruit interlaced with warm bricks and undergrowth (much more so of the latter compared to the 1999). The palate is beautifully balanced with exquisite tannin, perfect acidity and an effortless, you might say easygoing personality. That is deceptive because it is a complex and utterly harmonious La Tâche that is the epitome of elegance. Unlike the 1999, I would broach this now with an hour's decanting. Wonderful."(97pts)

165 La Tâche - Vintage 2005*Domaine de la Romanée Conti1nl, 1cuc*

"There is only one word to do the nose true justice and that is kaleidoscopic as the aromatic breadth here is simply dazzling with red and black cherry, cassis, plum and subtle earth notes replete with the same Asian spice cabinet aromas as the RSV displays but here the floral aspect, particularly rose petal, is much more pronounced.
However, the '05 LT is almost a combination of the RSV's class, grace and sensuality and the Riche's power, taut muscularity and huge length as the overall palate impact is equivalent to a vinous bomb exploding on the cuts-like-a-knife finish that can be measured in minutes not seconds. This is structured to the point of being chewy yet it is never rustic or coarse because the gorgeously detailed palate is buffered by buckets of dry extract. As readers know, I often use the word Zen to describe the kind of inner harmony of a great vintage of Romanée-Conti but rarely with La Tâche yet in 2005, the LT has this element of inner calm and grace as well. In sum, this is a huge but utterly classy and stylish wine that will undoubtedly go down as one of the all time great LT's." (99pts BH)

"A discreet but incredibly complex nose features notes of spicy, pure and relatively high-toned fruit that is laced with plenty of rose petal and violet hints. There is excellent energy and freshness to the lacy and stunningly precise broad-scaled flavors that build in intensity from the densely concentrated mid-palate to the explosive and mouth coating finish that seemingly goes on without end.
This is a big LT with ample muscle and very firm but not aggressive structure along with superb depth of underlying material and positively mind-blowing length." (98pts BH)

"The 96 was sensual and classic in the nose with a splash more perfume than usual. It was a lean, mean rose and rust machine with great acidity. It was wintry in a fresh, wet snow way. Minerals were crackling underneath. It was exquisite in the mouth, everything it is supposed to be, someone shared. It was a bit lean yet still somehow meaty, racy yet its finish slow and unwinding. Rose, citrus, leather, vitamin, mineral and stem flavors were all there in this budding beauty." (95pts JK)

"Oh yes. Oh yes, yes, yes. This 1999 Richebourg Grand Cru is a bit like a great athlete, one who really shows its class against stiff opposition, here in the form of 18 other Richebourg! It follows the same thread as the imperial 1999 La Tâche. It has been blessed with a sensational nose that boasts quite astonishing delineation and precision, fabulous mineralité. The aromatics are far more detailed and enthralling than the 2007 tasted alongside. The palate is beautifully structured, virtually symmetrical with filigree tannin, with a gentle crescendo in the mouth towards an effervescent finish with hints of orange peel. Simply effortless."(97pts)

"The 1999 Romanée-St-Vivant initially has its nose put out of joint by the precocious 1999 Échézeaux, but allowing the wine to unfold over 30 to 40 minutes, it shows its true breeding. Returning after ten minutes, the nose positively explodes from the glass with a sorbet-like purity hints of wild strawberry, cassis and a little blueberry a piercing intensity that is wondrous to behold. The palate is medium-bodied and does not have the volume of the 1999 Échézeaux, but there is superior clarity and focus, the tannins clearly fine and the finish shimmering with tension and femininity. "The 2002 Romanée Saint Vivant from Domaine de la Romanée-Conti has a heavenly bouquet. It was served blind but the tangible stem addition betrayed the grower, particularly when it was later compared next to an Henri Jayer. The bouquet is very complex with red berries, tree bark, a touch of dried blood and smoke, but what is striking is the delineation. The palate is medium-bodied and as you would expect, extremely well balanced. There is plenty of sappy red fruit here suffused with sage and rosemary, a touch of spice enlivening a finish that has impressive density (so much so that it could pass as a Richebourg.)"(95pts)

"...charts its own mysterious path, dissimilar to that of their Grands-Échézeaux, as well as reflecting the strides in quality that have manifestly been achieved in recent years in this site, more than at any other at this domaine. Iris, buddleia, and musky narcissus-like floral perfume; ripe purple plum and blackberry; saffras and licorice; along with smoked meat and a hoisin-like amalgam of spices and soy all waft alluringly from the glass. The tannins here are ultra-refined and there is a vintage-typical sense of levity, despite all of the dark intrigue of enveloping black fruits, forest floor, fungal, and carnal flavors that persist on the palate. Here is an uncanny alliance of the sensual and thought-provoking such as only great red Burgundy among the world's red wines can engender, and if this wine doesn't stimulate in you cravings and wonder at once, the fault is doubtless in yourself and not the glass. It seems to marry the brightness and finesse of the 2002 with the texturally richness of the (unexpectedly fine) 2000, two standouts in recent tasting of Romanée-St.-Vivant that I was privileged to attend. But there is much more depth here, and I expect that this wine's beauty will be worth pondering and savoring for at least two decades."(95pts)

Add to this plenty of attractive nuances to the kaleidoscopically layered red currant and plum suffused aromas and you have something pretty special. This is, not surprisingly, much more refined than the GrandsEch as the supporting tannins on the silky middle weight flavors are extremely fine-grained yet notably dense as the explosive finish is quite firm. "The 2012 Romanée St Vivant, incidentally served before Richebourg rather than afterwards unlike previous years, was picked on September 28 and 29 at 24 hectoliters per hectare. There is a wondrous, ethereal purity to this 2012, a little more sumptuous than I recall it from barrel, with kirsch and freshly picked strawberries. As it opens, it gains more and more sensuality. The palate is rounded, almost curvaceous in the mouth, clearly more concentrated than the 2011 with a sense of authority and purpose, a bit of daring-do on the long finish. It leaves a slightly ferrous residue on the aftertaste, completing what is a marvelous and sensual Grand Cru. 1,148 cases produced."(96pts)

"Madame Bize made superb '91s virtually across her entire range and this wine is no exception with its deep, rich, complex nose and flavors that display remarkable depth, including earth and tobacco notes. The finish is subtly complex and still quite structured but the tannins are ripe and buffered by plenty of extract. In sum, this is dense and intense and should continue to improve for years to come. Consistent notes."(93pts BH)

- 235 Richebourg - Vintage 1993

"Compared to the reserved and brooding wine that I last saw some nine years ago, this has become quite expressive with a simply stunning nose of spice, blue and black pinot fruit and warm earth nuances leading to seductive, broad and powerful flavors that offer superb depth and intensity plus stupendous length. This is dripping with velvet as the concentrated sap that seemingly suffuses every aspect of the wine. While I appreciate that it sounds contradictory, this is discreetly opulent and yet never loses its remarkable sense of balance and finesse."(96pts BH)

251 Bonnes Mares - Vintage 1999

Dujac

6lbls

"Classic young Bonnes Mares with its austere, firm exterior yet with a breathtakingly intense inner core of fiery fruit and extract of pinot. The sweet tannins are mouth coating and the texture almost liquorous yet there is a certain tension here that adds a note of mystery, as though the wine has much more to reveal than its presently hinting at. This may well have the best balance and overall material of any of these 99s and I have long believed that it is the most underrated wine in the Dujac portfolio. Captivating in every sense."(92-94pts BH)

253 Bonnes Mares - Vintage 2008

Dujac

"A cool, stony and reserved nose features spice, dark and red berry fruit, obvious earth and smoked game influences, all of which continue onto the intensely mineral-infused big-bodied flavors that for all the size and power remain beautifully detailed on the focused, powerful and moderately austere finish."(94pts BH)

6 bottles per lot $2400-3200

254 Bonnes Mares - Vintage 2009

Dujac

"A remarkably fresh and expressive nose displays heightened red berry fruit, earth and mineral aromas that give way to firm, serious and equally mineral-driven big-bodied flavors that offer excellent verve on the wellmuscle and especially structured finish that seems to go on without end. This positively dazzling effort is not quite old school in basic character though it knocks on the door of it and like several of these grands crus, will need 15 to 20+ years to reach its full prime."(96pts BH)

6 bottles per lot $4500-6000

255 Chambertin - Vintage 2007

Dujac

1x6 bottle ocb

"Aromas of black cherry, red berries, iron and flowers hint at a liqueur-like ripeness. Dense, sweet and deep, but in a rather polite style for Chambertin, with its fruits and flowers to the fore. But this classy, beautifully balanced wine shows a weightless quality that is compelling."(93pts VM)

12 bottles per lot $14000-18000

256 Chambertin - Vintage 2008

Dujac

"This is also quite cool and restrained with relatively high-toned red pinot, raspberry and currant aromas sliding gracefully into powerful and impressively broad-scaled flavors that are rich, full, sweet and textured while being underpinned by ample minerality and very firm tannins on the focused, detailed and strikingly long, linear and compact finish."(95pts BH)

3 bottles per lot $3500-4800

257 Chambertin - Vintage 2009

Dujac

1x6 bottle ocb

"...boasts gorgeous textural finesse and sheer energy from the very first taste. Blue and black fruit lead to spices, mint, licorice and tar as the wine explodes from the glass. Next to some of the other grand crus in the Dujac lineup, the Chambertin often comes across as quite obvious. Some of the wine's subtler qualities emerge, but only over time. Layers of fruit crescendo to the palate staining finish. The Chambertin combines power and finesse to a degree seldom seen, even in Burgundy. This is pure sophistication."(98pts)

6 bottles per lot $10000-14000

258 Chambertin - Vintage 2011

Dujac

1x6 bottle ocb

"A much more reserved, even brooding nose offers impressive breadth with its scents of dark berries, wet stone, violets, spice hints and earth. The textured, pure and intensely mineral-driven broad-shouldered flavors possess a relatively elegant mouth feel as the supporting tannins are really quite finely grained yet for all the refinement, there is no lack of muscle and power. But what really sets this apart is the superb complexity and length..."(95-97pts BH)

267 Clos de la Roche - Vintage 1999

"There is a certain reserve and distance present in this wine that the other wines don't have. Slightly austere with a mineral essence that tends to suppress the pinot baby fat lurking beneath the surface. The potential here is enormous yet it is largely hidden and unlike many 99s, this is not at all showy but rather calm and deliberate. All the components are here for a long and slow evolution but it may take 10 to 15 years to realize its awesome potential." (93pts BH)

Black cherry, kirsch distillate, cedar, incense, iron filings, wet stone, and roasted meats and coffee represent a few of the immediate aromatic suggestions forced on this taster. "This was the second time that I have had a magnum of 1985 Dujac Clos St. Denis this year, one in HK and now one in NY. It is easy to see why I spend so much time in these two cities. My first comments were wow again, fabulous nose, see JAN HK notes. This magnum was served a bit colder and was not quite as opulent as in HK, but its aromatics slowly unveiled and revealed an S on its chest, just the same. Leather, zip, sauce and a hint of September marked this long, fine and superb red."(97pts JK)

I very much like the balance here and this too is remarkably seductive yet sufficiently well structured to suggest up to a decade of potential improvement."(93pts BH)

"The 2009 Clos St. Denis initially comes across as big and powerful. The wine finds a more feminine side of its personality with time in the glass. Despite its deceptively mid-weight body, the 2009 has plenty of underlying structure and ideally needs to be cellared for at least a few years. Conveys great intensity without any impression of weight, thanks to its underlying minerality and energy. Finishes seamless and extremely long. 288 Romanée St. Vivant - Vintage 2009

"The 2009 Romanee St. Vivant has come together beautifully since I tasted it last year. Sweet red cherries, roses, mint and orange peel float on the palate in this sensual, utterly beguiling wine. This is an effortless, gracious Burgundy of the highest level. The 2009 character comes through in spades, but there is something about the Romanee St. Vivant that transcends vintage. Call it the utmost in classicism. The Romanee St. Vivant can be slow out of the gate, but once it starts blossoming in bottle it is truly majestic. Readers lucky enough to find the 2009 are in for a treat. Anticipated maturity: 2024-2044." (97pts)

292 Vosne Romanée - Vintage 2002*Cros Parantoux, E. Rougetwisl*

"The nose is classy, wonderfully elegant and utterly pure, revealing concentrated aromas of red and black pinot fruit aromas plus layers upon layers of spices, including sandalwood, anise, soy, hoisin and a strong note of minerality. The linear, almost severe flavors are concentrated as well with finer tannins than usual and decidedly higher acidity than the EÉchézeaux and the precision is almost painful. This is not a powerful wine, and certainly less powerful than the Ech but it's a good deal more elegant and this too possesses impeccable balance that should permit it to age for 2 decades, perhaps longer."(94pts BH)

293 Musigny - Vintage 1997*Faiveley*

"A complex and expressive nose reflects notes of oak, floral aromas and subtle spice nuances that can also be found on the rich, detailed, intense and still very primary big-boned yet elegant flavors that culminate in a mineral-infused and impressively vibrant finish." (92pts BH)

294 Musigny - Vintage 2007*Faiveley*

"Extraordinarily complex nose offers berries, sappy minerality, smoked meat, chocolate, coffee and truffley underbrush. Like liquid velvet in the mouth, boasting outstanding density of texture and terrific sappy life. With its chewy texture and powerful saline impression of soil, this is less a pinot noir than a liqueur of terroir."(95pts VM)

295 Musigny - Vintage 2008*Faiveley1x1 bottle owc*

"It's surprising how expressive this normally reticent wine is already with a kaleidoscopic array of spice and red berry fruit elements nuanced by floral notes that can also be found on the mildly wood-influenced, delineated, intense and powerful medium weight plus flavors that retain a fine sense of focus on the driving, palate staining and hugely long finish."(93-96pts BH)

297 Bonnes Mares - Vintage 1978*G. Roumierwisvl, cuc, excellent color and condition*

"The '78 was brimming with pure red fruit, almost oceanic with its kaleidoscope of red. There was great spice, great musk and great mushroom and truffle complexity. Nice kisses of forest and brown sugar (the non-advanced kind!) rounded out this amazing wine. There was super length to this special stuff, and it held as its finish continued to smack my lips again and again."(98pts JK)

"The magic continued with the best bottle of 1985 Roumier Bonnes -Mares that I have ever had, which reminded me of the saying that there are no great wines, just great bottles. While I m not sure I agree with that 100%, there was no doubting that this was a great bottle. Gamy and rusty, intense and hearty, this bottle was still adolescent and made me want to think about it thirty years from now."(96+pts JK)

"The '88 was rich, deep, dark and dank. It was incredibly full and long, with rich and heavy overtones. This was a dark, meaty and big wine. It was zippy and zesty, spiny and briny, and it was easy to see why many think Roumier made the wines of the vintage. Still a long ways to go."(96pts JK)

"A 1990 Roumier Bonnes Mares was a strong match for the '89 HB. It was a rich and heavy Burgundy, but still possessing pure red fruits, foresty goodness, and citrus twists despite the deep ocean here. This wine has decades to go. No 1990 problems' here."(97+pts JK)

303 Bonnes Mares - Vintage 1993*G. Roumier1nl*

"The 1993 Roumier Bonnes-Mares was a gorgeous example of 1993 but also actually rich in fruit, even more so than the bottle I had four days prior at CRU with Allen at a Roumier dinner (who's in charge of scheduling??? Oops, that's me). The nose was full of rich, red, vitaminy fruit; make that a symphony of red, purple and black fruits. Vibrant, fresh and long, its nose was incredible and had secondary earth aromas. The palate was so 1993 with its wave of t 'n a, cedar, leather and earth. It was still a baby, but what a baby, oh, baby...I better stop."(96pts JK)

304 Bonnes Mares - Vintage 1995*G. Roumier3wisl, 1nl*

"This was the first time that I had tasted the 1995 Bonnes Mares Grand Cru from Christophe Roumier. It is said that he did nothing wrong in this vintage and this splendid bottle attests to that (though another bottle was slightly corked). It has a bouquet that clearly evinces Grand Cru quality: a complex, nuanced aromatic profile of red cherries, blueberry, cold stone and iris, all delivered with quite brilliant delineation. The palate does not disappoint. It has exquisite poise, supremely fine tannin and delivers that opulence and lusciousness you expect from Bonnes-Mares. The only fault is that you will finish your glass too quickly and the current market value. Those with bottles in their cellar ... I am jealous. Tasted September 2016."(97pts)

305 NO LOT306 Bonnes Mares - Vintage 1996G. Roumier1lbsl, 1tl*

"The 1996 Roumier Bonnes Mares was far and away the best of the flight, but it clearly needed lots more time. I think Roumier is almost Bordelais in that it needs three decades to shed its skin on the top level. This was a classic '96 with its bristling acid zipping, zigging and zagging. This was both classy and gorgeous which is not always an easy combination to come by lol. The whips and chains of the '96 vintage were on full display like... like...let's just say that when 1996s are on, they are fantastic."(96+pts JK)

3 bottles per lot $3500-4800

307 Bonnes Mares - Vintage 1999*G. Roumier3lbsl*

"1999 was a concentrated vintage with big yields. A more intriguing nose - deeper and darker more black fruits, with still some red in there with a reduction sauce quality truffles, earth, stone, nut and spice round out the initial aromas a very balanced and beautiful nose - full yet soft, stylish, and long nose gets better and better as well! Coiled and wound on the palate ('doesn't want to show you anything,' observed Brian) with a touch of stems on the finish amongst its noticeable tannins - will be an incredible wine!..."(95+pts JK)

"There was a chalkiness to its nose, and some gas in the mask, so to speak. Someone noted about Roumier, the darkest fruit of the Côte de Nuits. 'Slate, hot rubber and acid were prominent in this dungeonesque red. Hamburger called 2006 an underrated vintage'" (94pts JK)

"This is also remarkably fresh with very ripe but not over ripe aromas of cassis, spice, stone and raspberry liqueur. There is a palpable sense of energy running through the rich, powerful and brooding broad-shouldered flavors that benefit from a huge dollop of dry extract that pushes the very firm tannic spine to the background on the explosive and youthfully austere finish that possesses genuinely outstanding length. I very much like the balance here and this should age effortlessly for decades." (96pts BH)

The concentration of sweet extract and mouth coating richness are incredible but the sheer length of this is hard to believe. A picture perfect example of power without weight. This has only just begun to reveal its potential and should age beautifully for a very long time to come. Superb juice." (95pts BH)

The medium to full-bodied flavors are sweet, rich and very fresh with a sappy, intense and a hugely long finish that has a youthful firmness to it. This is flat out terrific and should age exceptionally well." (93pts BH)

"A gentle touch of wood spice frames spicy, seductive and fragrant black berry fruits that complement perfectly the sexy, silky and mouth coating flavors that possess a really lovely velvety texture on the long and impressively harmonious finish. This is a wine of elegance and finesse yet it doesn't lack for mid-palate punch and the tannins are already well-integrated. I quite like this and it will age." (90pts BH)

G. Roumier
 nl, vlgs, lwrl
 "The 1988 Roumier Musigny had a spectacular nose. This was the 4th time I had this rare wine in the last year, just one of those things. I think that is close to 1% of the production! That would be like drinking 1000 bottles of Lafite I think, for reference purposes only, of course. The Roumier was rich and delicious with an iron clad finish. There was nice dryness to its long finish, showing the tannins of the vintage, and black and purple fruits balanced with vitamins and more iron."(97+pts JK)

 "The deep and complex nose offers up a fine mélange of dusty cherries, red plums, cocoa powder, a beautiful base of soil, woodsmoke, fresh herbs and a vibrant topnote of orange peel. On the palate the wine is deep, full-bodied, complex and quite velvety on the attack,. With a good core, a slightly four-square personality (that is part and parcel with the style of the vintage), but really lovely length and grip on the complex, gently-tannic and tangy finish."(93pts JG)

 "There was an incredible elegance' to the 1996 Roumier Musigny per the Master. It was darker and brooding but classy. Its palate was beefy and full of iron, a veritable spine city. There was a drop of cotton candy here as well. This needed time in the glass, as it was very shy at first, throwing off citric lemon-lime vibes. Rose petals and sexy cranberry flavors emerged, and Puppup loved its floral' qualities."(97pts JK)

 "This 1999 Roumier Musigny had a similar thread with the Cras with its peanutty edge, but its body had 'all-time energy' from the crowd. It was clearly thicker and deeper than the Mugnier, with much more POWER I wrote in capital letters. There was zip and impetus to this majestic wine, and while still too young, it was oh so strong. Wait if you have some."(97+pts JK)

 A perfumed and airy nose of lavender, spice and distinct floral notes highlight the intense, structured and quite powerful full-bodied flavors that culminate in huge and mouth coating length. 324A Échézeaux - Vintage 1991*H. Mayer for Georges*

"It was followed by a 1985 Mayer Échézeaux, which on this night outshined the Cros. It was similar in its fruit and flavor profile, but it possessed more structure, more acidity and gave a bigger overall impression. Perhaps on a night where fewer wines were sampled, or I had more time to get to taste each of these wines unfold, I might have preferred the Cros, but on this night, the rugged and full-bodied nature of the Échézeaux stood out more for me."(95+pts JK)

325 Musigny - Vintage 1988*J.F. Mugnier*

"This remains rather unevolved for the vintage with only nuances of wonderfully intense mix of earth, game and spice notes on the still fresh fruit nose followed by reserved, rich and beautifully precise medium full flavors that possess unusual elegance compared to the usual somber and rustic character of most '88s at this stage of their development. I quite like this and it is still on its way up."(92pts BH)

326 Musigny - Vintage 1999*J. Drouhin*

"Magnificent complexity, superb flavor detail and a penetrating minerality that culminates in a finish that lasts for minutes. As I commented in the Musigny vertical report, the Drouhin Musigny is a seriously underrated wine and all of the immense potential the '99 displayed in cask has been captured here. It would not surprise me if my score was ultimately found to be overly conservative as the picture perfect balance should permit this to age for 30 years or more."(94pts BH)

326A Musigny - Vintage 2001*J. Drouhin*

"A completely different expression with ripe, higher-toned, less earthy aromas that seem to be the essence of black pinot fruit. The silky flavors are fine, pure and exceptionally detailed and possess simply superb length. A distinguished wine that is the epitome of power and richness without weight and given the jaw dropping precision of the finish, you have something really special."(94pts BH)

326B Musigny - Vintage 2006*J. Drouhin*

"Musky floral notes suggesting narcissus, magnolia, and perhaps some sort of exotic orchid mingle in the nose of Drouhin's 2006 Musigny with quinine, birch beer, and kirsch. The palate boasts remarkable richness and sheer viscosity for the vintage though little superficial sweetness along with textural refinement that goes beyond even the best of the rest of this year's Drouhin collection. Fruit pit bitterness; brown spices; roasting pan reduction of meat and fat; and an almost palpable sense of chalky and ore-like minerality add to the mystery and invigoration of a vibratory finish. This tastes awfully delicious today, though it should probably be given a few years in bottle. It ought to perform marvelously for at least a decade."(95pts)

"Mugnier's 1999 Musigny Grand Cru is still a very youthful wine, but a few hours' decant gives a more than adequate sense of its immense quality. A beautiful bouquet of raspberries, black cherry, cocoa powder, violets, peony and incipient notes of rich soil and cedar introduce a pure, full-bodied wine with pitch-perfect balance and a deep, spherical core of ripe tannin, juicy acidity and reserved concentration. This is not an especially flamboyant wine, but it's incredibly authoritative and sophisticated; and in another decade, it will be just irresistible."(96+pts)

348 Corton Charlemagne - Vintage 1999

Coche-Dury

Iscl, Iswc, one bottle different importer

"...is a spectacular white Burgundy that numbers among the greatest recent vintages of this legendary wine, wafting from the glass with notes of preserved citrus, toasted sesame, buttered popcorn and gingerbread, showing more and more complexity as it unwinds in the glass. On the palate, the wine is full-bodied, deep and concentrated, with wonderful tension at the core, its glossy texture underpinned by a bright line of acidity that carries through the penetrating, searingly intense and unremitting finish. This Corton-Charlemagne's sheer length marks it out as one of the high points of this tasting. Jean-François Coche observes that the 1999 vintage was tight-knit and rather unyielding in its youth but that he always had confidence in its extraordinary potential."(100pts)

"This was very Coche' per The French Paradox, full of lots of smoky fireplace action and clean waterfall qualities. This was a super fresh 2000 that was as good as the vintage in general gets. A great wine in every respect."(96pts BH)

This is an impressive effort that is relatively racy by the usual standards found in Batard and one that should age for years." (94pts BH)

"Leflaive's 1989 Chevalier-Montrachet Grand Cru is still a very youthful wine as it approaches its 30th birthday, blossoming in the glass with aromas of ripe citrus fruit, beeswax, fresh peach, white flowers and warm bread. On the palate, it's full-bodied, muscular and concentrated, with a vibrant and tight-knit core that's still quite firmly structured, concluding with a long and resonant finish. With a pH of 3.36 and fully 14.4% alcohol, this is analytically the ripest wine in this tasting, yet it is exquisitely balanced and can age for another two decades in a good cellar." (97+pts)

360 Chevalier Montrachet - Vintage 1990*Domaine Leflaive*

"While I entertained higher expectations of the 1989, it was in fact the 1990 Chevalier-Montrachet Grand Cru that emerged as the wine of the tasting, blossoming in the glass with a complex bouquet of confit lemon, orange rind, dried white flowers, pastry cream, warm bread and vanilla pod. On the palate, the wine is full-bodied, satiny textured and enveloping, with broad shoulders, a lively spine of acidity and superb amplitude and concentration, concluding with a long, penetrating finish. Powerful and strikingly complete, this is a Chevalier that more than nods to Montrachet in style. But by the numbers alone, it was cropped at 57 hectoliters per hectare and finished up with 14.1% alcohol and pH 3.23. This is by some margin the finest bottle of Leflaive's 1990 Chevalier-Montrachet that I've encountered." (98pts)

This just shimmers with tension and develops hints of cockleshell with time. "The 2011 Chevalier-Montrachet Grand Cru was picked on August 25, the earliest harvest in the history of the Domaine Leflaive, and the resulting wine was another of the sleepers in this tasting, unfurling in the glass with an attractive bouquet of white flowers, fresh peach, tangerine, pear, pastry cream and warm bread. On the palate, the wine is full-bodied, expansive and satiny textured, with a layered and open-knit core that's fleshy but lively, concluding with a long and precise finish. The sheer aromatic breadth is continued on the gorgeously textured, suave and classy flavors that possess excellent mid-palate fat and buckets of dry extract on the opulent, refined, mouth coating and palate staining finish that goes on and on. A bounty of 2005 DRC professionally stored and ready for your cellar.

396A Échézeaux - Vintage 2005

Domaine de la Romanée Conti

"The soaring nose of spicy cassis, black cherry and violets this displayed from cask has now become very reserved and brooding, merging into rich, full and utterly delicious flavors that possess a beguiling texture and unusually fine tannins compared to what I typically see with the Ech. This is a big wine by any measure with excellent mid-palate density and superb length. Really good stuff and as the "value" play in the DRC line-up, one to strongly consider because it surpasses its normal quality level by more than a fair margin in 2005." (94pts BH)

396C La Tâche - Vintage 2005

Domaine de la Romanée Conti

"There is only one word to do the nose true justice and that is kaleidoscopic as the aromatic breadth here is simply dazzling with red and black cherry, cassis, plum and subtle earth notes replete with the same Asian spice cabinet aromas as the RSV displays but here the floral aspect, particularly rose petal, is much more pronounced. However, the '05 LT is almost a combination of the RSV's class, grace and sensuality and the Riche's power, taut muscularity and huge length as the overall palate impact is equivalent to a vinous bomb exploding on the cuts-like-a-knife finish that can be measured in minutes not seconds. This is structured to the point of being chewy yet it is never rustic or coarse because the gorgeously detailed palate is buffered by buckets of dry extract. As readers know, I often use the word Zen to describe the kind of inner harmony of a great vintage of Romanée-Conti but rarely with La Tâche yet in 2005, the LT has this element of inner calm and grace as well. In sum, this is a huge but utterly classy and stylish wine that will undoubtedly go down as one of the all time great LT's." (99pts BH)

While it sounds moderately odd to describe it this way, there is a swagger to the '05 Riche and this will clearly be one very long distance runner..." (97pts BH)

396E Romanée Conti - Vintage 2005

Domaine de la Romanée Conti

"An exceptionally floral yet restrained nose with aromas of both rose and violets that combine with a panoply of spice notes yet the overall impression is classic young RC as the nose is both cool and reserved yet aristocratic. The sweet, intense, focused, detailed and vibrant flavors offer superb drive and punch though there is not the sheer scale of the LT yet they're finer and somehow even purer; indeed absolutely crystalline though I kept asking myself how this was possible as the purity of the La Tâche is itself mind blowing. The descriptor of 'power without weight' came to mind again and again as the flavors slide down the throat with no sense of heaviness yet the impact and precision of the presently somewhat austere finish is quite simply hard to believe. In a word, this is mind bending and in a visceral sense, this is a monumental wine that of real emotional impact. Genius in a glass."(99+pts BH)

396F Romanée St. Vivant - Vintage 2005

Domaine de la Romanée Conti

"This is also very primary and backward as hints of supremely elegant and seductive exceptionally ripe black fruit aromas replete with soy, hoisin, clove and anise nuances merge into wonderfully fine and refined linear and firmly structured flavors that culminate in a precise, pure and driving finish that goes on and on. This is a really impressive effort that offers terrific potential but fans of this wine should note that it is arguably more masculine than it usually is yet at the same time utterly seamless. A 'wow' wine that is perhaps the ripest of the DRC '05s. A true knockout that is sheer class."(97pts BH)

ICONIC WINES OF YESTERYEAR

Older wines are getting harder and harder to find. Fortunately, this French collector has been collecting the icons of France, Italy and Spain for decades and offers over eighty lots focusing on these mature, iconic gems. There are some truly rare and special bottles here! We begin with two instant collections of magnums, yes magnums, of Conterno Barolo Monfortino and Vega Sicilia Unico. The Montfortino magnums span 1988-2010 and the Vega magnums from the glorious 1960 to the outstanding 2008 vintage. Two of the truly spectacular and most iconic of Europe's greatest red wines in the glory of magnums! We then shine the spotlight on 1919 Ausone, 1948 Haut Brion magnum, 1953 La Mission and 1952 Latour a Pomerol for Bordeaux, then Burgundy continues the march of grand old wines with 1978 Clair-Dau Musigny, 1972 Romanee Conti and 1945 Faiveley Chambertin. Sexy stuff!

White Burgundy is dominated by Coche-Dury with Corton Charlemagne going back to rare 1990. Six lots of Guigal La Las young and old roll us into six lots of legendary Gentaz going back to 1976!!! A magnum of 1971 Dom Perignon and bottle of 1955 Salon freshen us up to dive into an exceptional collection of wines from Piedmont, with eighteen lots of Giacosa leading the way crested by a 1990 Santo Stefano Riserva magnum, 1971 Le Rocche Riserva, and 1978, 1982, 1989 Collina Rionda Riserva! Seven lots of Barolo Mascarello spanning 1961 to 1989 set up nearly two dozen lots of Monfortino Riserva from 1941 to 2006, crested by a full case of the profound 1990. There is Gaja going back to 1961 as well as extremely rare Nonino and Levi Grappas. We conclude with six lots of Vega Sicilia Unico covering 1951 to 1967.

All wines carefully acquired and professionally stored by this most knowledgeable European connoisseur.

400 Château Cheval Blanc - Vintage 1952*St. Emilionts, ltsl, scc, spc, ssos, outstanding color and condition"There was a great nose to the 1952 Château Cheval Blanc with its pencil dust, iron, gravel, charcoal and plummy fruit. The Bordeaux were served semi-blind, by the way, as in we knew what they were but not the order. There were great minerals here in this rich and decadent red with loads of deep dark chocolate and coconut. There was a creaminess and tenderness, but the finish hit with a bang zoom. Super-concentrated, and now beginning to shed enough tannin so that it can be fully appreciated, this enormously constituted La Mission-Haut-Brion has developed that fabulous Graves set of aromatics - tobacco, black fruits, minerals, roasted herbs, and cedar. Huge, massive, thick, and succulent, with moderate tannin, and some amber notes at the edge... it comes closest in style to resembling the 1945, with a hint of the sweet, ripe 1959."(100pts)*

408 Chambertin - Vintage 2011*A. There is outstanding richness to the powerful and impressively scaled flavors that possess an abundance of dry extract that imparts a velvety quality to the mid-palate while also buffering the tightly wound core of firm tannins on the driving mineral-inflected and hugely persistent finish."(96pts BH)*

409 Chambertin - Vintage 1993*Clos de Bèze, A. Rousseau*

2vlbsl

"There was something extraordinary about this bottle of 1993 Rousseau Chambertin Clos de Bèze, bordering on supernatural. Everything I could ask for in a great Burgundy was there - ripe red fruits, forest floor and the complexity of terroir; breed, style, length. The fruit had a catnip-like quality that made me feel happy and silly, and its acidity and finish said, I know I'm good now, but just you wait and see.' It was impossible to stop drinking, even in the context of a dozen plus other, fabulous Rousseau reds. This may prove to be one of those lightning bolts in a bottle; on this day, it didn't get any better."(99pts JK)

"A cool and highly perfumed nose consists of sous-bois, spice and hints of dried flowers and the sauvage. The lilted, pure and overtly stony medium weight flavors possess outstanding delineation and vibrancy along with really lovely complexity, all wrapped in a balanced and strikingly long finale. Like most 1980s today this is not especially rich or concentrated but it's harmonious, refined and classy. In short, this is terrific."(93pts BH)

414 NO LOT415 La Tâche - Vintage 1980Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

4.5cm bc, lbsl, spc, cuc, excellent color

"Tasted at the La Tâche vertical at The Square. Not having tasted the La Tâche 1980 for 14 years, I must admit that I had high expectations for this wine and it truly delivered. Ignore the pale color, the extensive bricking on the rim because you will be transfixed by the nose. It is absolutely ethereal with quite brilliant transparency, fleeting glimpses of wild heather, jasmine, rose petals and Lapsong Souchang. The palate is fresh and tense, gently building in the mouth with all the delicacy you can imagine. No, there is not the length here but it is far fresher than the 1985 La Tâche with a sense of nervousité on the finish. Of all the vintages of La Tâche this is one of the most impressive and also the most difficult to put into words. It is simply a heavenly Pinot Noir at its peak."(98pts)

1 bottle per lot $4500-6000

416 Romanée Conti - Vintage 1972*Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

3.5cm bc, vlsc, sdc, cuc, excellent color

"The perfumed and still fresh if by no means youthful nose speaks of primarily sous-bois, spice, sandalwood, dried rose petal and Asian-style tea wisps. The sleek, intense and overtly mineral-driven flavors possess outstanding delineation while delivering excellent depth and length on the somewhat linear finish where the only reproach is a touch of dryness."(93pts BH)

417 Romanée St. Vivant - Vintage 1980*Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

"Bricked through to the center. A complex, wonderfully fragrant nose of spices, strawberry and a hint of sous bois is followed by rich, soft, round, supple flavors and a satiny mouth coating finish that goes on and on. This is easily the best bottle that I have ever had as several other recent examples have been pretty but clearly declining. By contrast, this was a truly lovely wine of impressive balance, concentration, elegance and length."(92pts BH)

"Warning: this incredible white Burgundy can leave you speechless. Appraised blind, everyone fortunate enough to have a glass of this Corton-Charlemagne in front of them, recognized its greatness. The bouquet is imbued with spine-tingling mineralite and a shimmering tension that is impossible to encapsulate in words. It just leaves you with a huge smile on your face. "The 2010 Coche-Dury Corton Charlemagne was so elegant and so long (I wrote: see previous note with The Rev and Bad Boy in LA, or did I not write that one up?). It was reminiscent of the 1996 vintage upon its release, another vintage that Coche released late, except I think that it was 1k a bottle at the time not five! It was still quite shy, but one sip had me once bitten. The wine was clean and pristine, clearly with the most potential generosity."(98pts JK)

"Jean-Francois Coche produced a total of 900 bottles (at 18 hectoliters/hectare) of his other-worldly 1995 Meursault Perrières. This quintessentially elegant wine reveals liquid minerals intertwined with flowers, spices and stones. The French would say it is "aerien," meaning it is spiritual. On the palate, this highly defined and hyper-concentrated, thick, full-bodied yet perfectly delineated Meursault Perrières exhibits waves of toasted almonds, hazelnuts, wet stones and an unbelievably long finish. Literally minutes after having tasted it my palate remained permeated with its sumptuous flavors."(98pts)

430 Meursault - Vintage 2008*Perrières, Coche-Dury*

"The 2008 Meursault Perrières is a stunning white Burgundy for the vintage. It has detailed, vibrant, mineral-laden bouquet that is full of energy and sense of place, cognizant that it comes from one of the appellation's finest vineyards and not wanting to let you, the grateful imbibers, down. The palate is effortlessly balanced with perfect acidity, immense tension and poise with an elegant, stony, almost conservative finish that delivers wonderful complexity. This may warrant more superlatives with further bottle age. Awesome." (96pts)

2 bottles per lot $4500-6000

431 Montrachet - Vintage 2005*Domaine Leflaive1x1 bottle owc*

"...never racked out of barrel and into holding tank to complete its levage in the way all of the prior wines are handled and as such, it virtually always displays a bit more oak influence. True to form, notes of pain grill and vanilla serve as a background for the very reserved, indeed reticent aromas of white flower, peach, apricot, mango and hints of spice that introduce brooding and powerful flavors supported by thick and concentrated dry extract that stains the palate on the finish that seems to go on and on without end. This is incredibly backward and by comparison, the Chevalier seems open for business whereas this is going to need a great deal of time to see its final majority so if you're one of the few fortunate to ever find a bottle, be prepared to let this slumber away for at least a dozen years first and fifteen is not out of the question." 432 Chablis - Vintage 2002*Les Clos, Raveneau*

"Raveneau's 2002 Chablis Les Clos is off the charts. Limestone, chalk, spices, white peaches, and minerals can be made out in its aromatics (these are less expressive than Raveneau's other 2002s, typical for a young Les Clos). A powerful, full-bodied effort, it reveals a personality of awe-inspiring intensity, depth, and concentration. Pure, dense, muscular, exceptionally well-balanced, this brilliant wine boasts a complex flavor profile of salty pears, earth, flint, and hints of candied lemons. Wow!..." (98-100pts)

435 Côte Rôtie - Vintage 1985*La Mouline, E. Guigal1-3cm bc*

"One of the all-time great La Moulins, this still youthful and unevolved wine does not have the tannic ferocity of the 1988, or the sheer force and intensity of the 1978, 1976, and 1969, but it represents the epitome of this single-vineyard wine. Everything fits perfectly in this full-bodied, black/purple-colored wine that reveals no garnet or amber at the edge of its color. The nose offers up a formidable array of overripe black raspberries and cherries intertwined with scents of cedar, chocolate, olives, and toast. Extremely full-bodied, with an unctuousity and opulence that must be tasted to be believed, this velvety-textured wine's finish lasts for over a minute. It is one of the most concentrated but profoundly endowed and well-balanced wines I have ever tasted. Like so many of the wines Guigal has produced from this vineyard, no matter how hard one tries to articulate its glories, words are simply inadequate." (100pts)

3 bottles per lot $4500-6000

436 Côte Rôtie - Vintage 2011*La Mouline, E. Guigal1x6 bottle owc*

"Starting out the single vineyards and bottled in February (after over four years in new oak barrels), the 2011 Côte Rotie la Mouline is as slutty, sexy and seamless as they come. Full-bodied, thrillingly concentrated and unctuous, it offers classic Mouline notes of cured meats, violets, black raspberries, espresso and hints of vanilla bean. Philippe Guigal commented that the worst thing about 2011 was the it came after 2010, and while the previous two vintages will get all of the attention, this 2011 will deliver almost as much pleasure, and do it right from the start as well. It needs 3-4 years of cellaring and will drink sensationally through 2041." (98pts)

The wine is powerful, rich, and exceptionally well-balanced, with magnificent concentration and a long, spicy, hugely tannic finish that is not out of balance for the wine's exceptional extraction of fruit. Because of the super-ripeness achieved in the 1989 vintage, this wine can be drunk young but promises to last for decades to come. A brilliant effort!"(96pts)

"Similar to other experiences that I have had with this wine, the color was pale and tea-like, looking more like a sherry than a wine. However, the wine was delicious, although admittedly a wine for necrophiliacs. Its chewy texture and marzipan complexities made for a tasty treat, although I could easily see many thinking this wine was over the hill."(95pts JK)

Someone compared it to walking into a sausage and cheese shop. Two of my favorite things lol. Chocolate, mushrooms and all types of nuts were found in this insane wine. It was so tasty in a chocolaty way, showing more flesh than the 1958, but it was also big and long. It got deeper and really stretched out in the glass. Greatness..."(98pts JK)

The wines were a 1952 Monfortino and 1966 and 1969 La Moulines. These are all 98 or 99 point wines and probably Italy's and the Rhône's greatest wines... EVER."(98-99pts JK)

Monfortino Riserva, G. Conterno

"Perhaps the greatest Monfortino? The 1955 Monfortino out of magnum was amazing, still very young with loads of spice, tannins and alcohol in its incredible nose. There was tar, leather and rose as well - all the components to stamp a 'classic' on it. The acids were great, as was its long and spiny finish. It crushed the other 1955 wine on the table, a 1955 Biondi Santi Brunello di Montalcino Riserva."(96+pts JK)

"The 1970 had a beautiful nose and ended up being one of my wines of the night. It was inviting and deep with its classic nose, and the palate was enormous yet somehow smooth. The fruit was mountainous with loads of beef and chocolate; thick, long and outstanding."(96+pts JK)

480 Barolo - Vintage 1971

Monfortino Riserva, G. Conterno

1bn, 1ts, 2vhs, 1bsl, 1lscl, 1scc, excellent color and condition

"The 1971 Barolo Monfortino flirts with perfection. Although not yet fully mature, it is hard to resist because of its blazingly intense nose of truffles, smoked herbs, earth, dried fruits, and spice. Massively constituted, with huge body, high tannin, extraordinary symmetry and purity, and mouth-staining extract levels, this is one of the greatest Barolo Monfortinos Conterno has ever produced. Is it ready to drink? Yes, but the wine has at least 20-30 years of life remaining."(98pts)

"A massively concentrated and powerful Monfortino packed with flavors of ripe dark cherries, wet earth, tar, and licorice. 484 Barolo - Vintage 1982*Monfortino Riserva, G. ConternoIts*

"The 1982 had very dry tannins in its chocolaty and earthy nose, more mature than youthful. It seemed to be on a faster maturity curve than most of the other vintages. The wine was very spicy in an earthy way with sandpaper flavors. Ray was surprised by the 1982 and found it to be one of the better ones that he has ever had."(94pts JK)

4 bottles per lot $7000-9000

485 Barolo - Vintage 1985*Monfortino Riserva, G. Conterno*

"The 1985 Giacomo Conterno Barolo Monfortino Riserva was clearly the best of flight, and it was thick, rich and full of grit. There was all sorts of desert action on its finish. The Zen Master found it had 'all the elements' one could want in great Barolo and also noted 'Chinese tea.' This was so dry and so long, just awesome stuff and full of tobacco and leather flavors."(97pts JK)

3 bottles per lot $4500-6000

486 Barolo - Vintage 1988*Monfortino Riserva, G. Conterno*

"The 1988 seemed like a whole, new world as we entered a more youthful stage of Monfortino. The wine still had its baby fat in its nose and was nutty, almost syrupy, with lots of black fruits, tar, cement and peking duck. The wine was much heavier in its tannin and alcohol expressions, and the fruit was dominated by cassis and grape. After having all those older wines, this flight was definitively youthful. Roberto found the 1988 to be the 'most complete at the moment.' He then continued how 1988 was a disastrous vintage at Giacomo Conterno because it was the year that he started working full-time in the family business - HA! He was then asked when he started making the wine, to which he replied 'never. The wine is made in the vineyard and in the winery you can only damage the wine.' It was an excellent, bordering on outstanding, wine."(94+pts JK)

6 bottles per lot $5500-6500

487 Barolo - Vintage 1990*Monfortino Riserva, G. Conterno10bn, Inovl, 1ltal, 5lsc, 1sc, 6nvl*

"In this context, the 1990 Barolo Riserva Monfortino is almost too much. While the 1990 Cascina Francia delivers tons of pleasure, the 1990 Monfortino is still years away from offering its finest drinking. Still, this breathtaking Barolo is a pleasure to drink for its round fruit and long, powerful finish. It is exceptional in every way. Here the fruit is quite a bit darker in tonality than the Cascina Francia, with mesmerizing layers of mocha, leather, licorice and tobacco that develop in the glass and add further complexity. This is a marvelous effort from Conterno, but it will require the patience of a saint. Anticipated maturity: 2020-2050."(98pts)

12 bottles per lot $20000-28000

488 Barolo - Vintage 1993*Monfortino Riserva, G. Conterno7bn, 1nl*

"The 1993 is generally considered an unimportant vintage, but Roberto feels that it will be regarded differently in time. Wheels called 1993 in Piedmont the equivalent of 1980 in Burgundy in that people trashed the vintage, but in the end it turned out great. There was a hailstorm that limited quantity and put a black cloud on the 1993 vintage. The nose was fine and elegant with spearmint, cherry fruit and licorice. 'Dolce and elegante,' Roberto cooed. It was incredibly classic by Barolo standards with its tar, smoke, leather and asphalt and indubitably a beautiful wine, fine and smooth. The elegance and finesse to its style and length were intoxicating. I have to agree with Roberto that 1993, at least for Monfortino, is an outstanding vintage."(95pts JK)

8 bottles per lot $5500-6500

489 Barolo - Vintage 1995*Monfortino Riserva, G. Conterno*

"Significantly concentrated, it represents a tiny crop because of hail damage. The wine reveals the essence of licorice, kirsch, smoke, red currant and cherries, as well as the tell-tale rose petal and licorice notes. It is ripe and full-bodied, with sweet fruit, copious glycerin, and a seamless finish that lasts for nearly 45 seconds. As the wine sat in the glass, it became even more floral and concentrated."(94-5pts)

3 bottles per lot $2000-2800

490 Barolo - Vintage 1996*Monfortino Riserva, G. Conterno*

"...breathtaking nose that is to die for. Expressive aromas of leather, spices, cocoa, and roses gradually emerge from the glass. On the palate the wine displays masses of concentrated fruit that coat the palate with extraordinary length and expansiveness and with a purity of expression that keeps me coming back to wine time and again. Although it remains quite youthful and somewhat dominated by its structure, I am encouraged by its development. Perhaps we won't have to wait decades to enjoy this wine at its prime..."(97pts)

491 Barolo - Vintage 1997*Monfortino Riserva, G. Conterno*

"The 1997 Barolo Riserva Monfortino might be considered Giovanni Conterno's monument, the greatest ever made in a series which goes back all the way to the 1950s. Enormously full and ripe, layered and textured with a richness which is almost indescribable, it truly has it all, the rose petals, tar, and licorice of the nose, the succulent density of the flavors, the endless finish which rises to a crescendo of sensual authority."(98pts)

513 Château Pétrus - Vintage 1990

Pomerol

6gsl, 2wisl, 3nc, 1x6 magnum owc

"The phenomenally rich, well-endowed 1990 Pétrus has been magical from the first time I tasted it in cask. The color is a dense, jammy plum/purple. The wine possesses a knock-out nose of black fruits intertwined with aromas of toasty new oak, caramel, and flowers. Massively rich and full-bodied the 1990 is an extraordinarily rich, seamless wine with layers of flavor, and a finish that lasts for nearly 45 seconds."(100pts)

514 Château Cheval Blanc - Vintage 2008

St. Emilion

1x12 bottle owc

"Bright red-ruby. Brooding aromas and flavors of licorice, cherry pit, bitter chocolate and black cardamom. Lush and sweet in the mouth but with terrific definition and grip. This very young wine is most impressive on the vibrant, mounting, palate-saturating aftertaste, which features fine-grained tannins, solid structure and lovely spicy perfume. Wonderfully aristocratic wine whose outstanding energy should ensure a long and graceful evolution in bottle." (94+pts VM)

"...offers aromas of high quality unsmoked cigar tobacco, lead pencil shavings, creme de cassis, earth, cedar and asphalt. Full, rich and stunningly concentrated, I doubt it is inferior to the 2010, just more classic as well as slightly more forward and a degree weaker in alcoholic potency (12.5% versus 13.5%)."(98pts)

516A Château Margaux - Vintage 1982

Margaux

3bn, 1wc, 1x12 bottle owc

"We transitioned to the remaining four First Growths in the next flight, beginning with a phenomenal bottle of 1982 Margaux (sourced from Château). The Margaux had a pungent nose, and its t n a jumped out at first. It also had cinnamon, iron, rock and gorgeous perfume. It was beyond licorice according to Dan, and Australian John admired its cherry liqueur. The palate was rocky without the horror but with the picture show, not its usual feminine self, Ray observed. Though spiny and long, the Margaux was still stylish with a touch of that Margaux elegance. This was a great bottle of this wine, and it ended up being wine of the flight, outshowing all the other First Growths."(97pts JK)

12 bottles _____ per lot $7500-10000

516B Château Margaux - Vintage 1986*Margaux6bn, 1x12 bottle owc*

"The 1986 Château Margaux is one of the dark horses of the vintage. It has an exquisite bouquet that is now fully mature, with a mixture of red and black fruit, violets, pastilles and hints of cold stone. It blossoms in the glass, gaining intensity all the time. The palate is medium-bodied with fine tannin, a more robust Margaux as you would expect given the vintage, clearly with firm backbone, more straight-laced than the 1985 or 1989. Yet there is wonderful delineation and focus here. If you seek strictness and classicism in a wine, then this is the place to come, plus there is superb mineralité and tension on the ferrous finish. Perhaps a little overlooked in recent years, the 1986 Margaux comes highly recommended for those who love the property. This is a wine finally coming of age. Tasted July 2016."(97pts)

12 bottles per lot $5000-7000

516C Château Margaux - Vintage 2000*Margaux3lbsl, 1x12 bottle owc*

"The 2000 possesses a saturated ruby/purple color to the rim as well as an extraordinarily promising nose of creme de cassis intermixed with white flowers, licorice, and hints of espresso and toasty oak. There is great intensity, compelling purity, a multi-layered, full-bodied palate, and a finish that goes on for nearly 70+ seconds. Bottled naturally, with no filtration, it is a monumental example of the elegance and power that symbolize this extraordinary vineyard. A tour de force in winemaking, many of my colleagues predicted, far earlier than me, that it would be the wine of the vintage."(100pts)

10 bottles per lot $7000-9000

516D Château Mouton Rothschild - Vintage 2003*Pauillac1x12 bottle owc*

"Backward, powerful, and extremely tannic, the dense purple-colored 2003 Mouton-Rothschild, a blend of 76% Cabernet Sauvignon, 14% Merlot, 8% Cabernet Franc, and 2% Petit Verdot, fashioned from yields of 28 hectoliters per hectare, with a finished alcohol of 12.9%, improves dramatically with aeration. With full-bodied, meaty, powerful, dry flavors as well as a huge finish, this high class wine should be at its finest between 2012-2040+. During its sojourn in barrel, it reminded me of a hypothetical blend of the 1982 and 1986 Moutons, but since bottling, it appears different, and even more tannic than those two vintages. I still believe the finest recent Mouton-Rothschild is the 2000."(95pts)

12 bottles per lot $5000-7000

516E La Tâche - Vintage 1990*Domaine de la Romanée Conti1lbsl, 1wsvl, 1sdc*

"I cannot think of a more profound, young red Burgundy tasted than DRC's 1990 La Tâche. Although it still requires another 3-4 years of cellaring, it is incredibly endowed, with an extraordinary perfume of Asian spices as well as jammy black raspberries, cherries, and blackberries infused with smoke, toast, and dried herbs. Full-bodied, but ethereal, with layers of flavor, as well as mind-boggling delicacy and complexity..."(100pts)

2 bottles per lot $11000-15000

516F Richebourg - Vintage 2012*Domaine de la Romanée Conti1scl*

"The Richebourg 2012 was picked September 27-28 at just 19 hectoliters per hectare, one of the lowest yields in this vintage. This has a serious bouquet, reserved at first, more earth than air. Unusual for this cuvée, there is a sense of exoticism here, a Richebourg daring to show a bit of ankle. Blackberry pastille intermingle with wilted violets, and there is a touch of warmth that belies the precocity of the growing season. Leaving it aside for 10 minutes, there are hints of Provençal herbs, broom and even fennel. The palate is medium-bodied and the first thing that strikes you is its backbone. Well, this is Richebourg after all. But there is an arching structure to this wine that is disguised by the silkiness of its texture, plus an almost citrus freshness and brightness on the finish. This is a Richebourg that will make you giddy with pleasure. 634 cases produced."(97pts)

519 Château La Mission Haut Brion - Vintage 2005

Graves

"The 2005 La Mission Haut-Brion is pure perfection. It has an absolutely extraordinary nose of sweet blackberries, cassis and spring flowers with some underlying minerality, a full-bodied mouthfeel, gorgeously velvety tannins (which is unusual in this vintage) and a long, textured, multi-layered finish that must last 50+ seconds. This is a fabulous wine and a great effort from this hal-lowed terroir. Drink this modern-day legend over the next 30+ years. Only 5,500 cases were produced of this blend of 69% Merlot, 30% Cabernet Sauvignon and 1% Cabernet Franc." (100pts)

"...has an opaque ruby/purple color, followed by an extraordinary aromatic expression of liquid minerals/stones interwoven with the tell-tale graphite notes, mulberry, black currants, caramel, and tobacco. In the mouth, it is remarkably light on its feet, but somehow seems to pack intense flavors into layer upon layer of fruit and richness that cascade over the palate. A compelling wine, with extraordinary precision, great intensity, and a seamlessness..." (100pts)

522 Château Lynch Bages - Vintage 2000

Pauillac

1nl, 3 bottles different importer

"Beginning to open magnificently, the still dense purple-colored 2000 reveals a blossoming bouquet of blackberries, cassis, graphite and pen ink. Full-bodied with velvety tannins that have resolved themselves beautifully over the last eleven years, this wine is still an adolescent, but it exhibits admirable purity, texture, mouthfeel and power combined with elegance. One of the all-time great examples of Lynch Bages, the 2000 is just beginning to drink well yet promises to last for another 20-25+ years." (97pts)

Scorched earth, smoke, menthol, licorice and new leather flow with marvelous intensity all the way through to the powerful finish. Over time the classic Giacosa bouquet of dried rose petal emerges, rounding out this fabulous effort in grand style. 554 Bollinger Vintage Champagne - Vintage 2005

Grande Annee

2x6 bottle ocb's

"...is a classical but comparatively precocious rendition of this cuvée that's already drinking well, offering up aromas of honeyed yellow apples, dried white flowers, English walnuts, praline and tea leaves. On the palate, the wine is full-bodied, broad and vinous, with a fine mousse, ripe acids and a dry, richly saline finish." (93pts)

555 Krug Vintage Champagne - Vintage 1990

Clos du Mesnil

4x1 bottle owc's

"The foremost vintage in recent years combined with in my opinion the world's foremost vineyard clear and unexpected aromas of papaya and melon arose. This wave was followed by a spicy breeze, laden with juniper elements incredibly subtle and multifaceted, just as it headed into its last and in my opinion best phase: the Selosse Phase!" (96pts RJ)

4 bottles per lot $6000-8000

556 Krug Vintage Champagne - Vintage 2002

Clos du Mesnil

12x1 bottle owc's

"... offers up a deep, pure and youthful bouquet of fresh apricot, pear, a marvelously complex base of chalky soil tones, hints of the Crème patissière to come, a dollop of fresh nutmeg and a nice touch of citrus zest in the upper register. On the palate the wine is deep, full-bodied and seamless, with the inherent power of the 2002 vintage very much in evidence in its bottomless core, but with the overall profile of the wine one of unrepentant refinement. As stunningly beautiful as the fruit component is here, the wine is more defined by its brilliant mineral drive on the palate, with its elegant mousse, perfect balance and very, very long, nascently complex and laser-like finish the stuff of legends. The wine seems to attain its lift and backend energy from its limestone mineral drive, rather than the bright, zesty acidity and the overall impression is of almost otherworldly perfection." (100pts JG)

557 Barolo - Vintage 2006

Granbussia Riserva, A. Conterno

2x6 bottle owc's

"...is exceedingly "Piemontese" in character. The wine follows in local tradition with a bouquet that is ethereal and fine, yet powerful and long-lasting at the same time. It is shy and reticent at first, but once it starts to open the wine seemingly never stops. There are notes of black fruit, spice, tar, licorice, pencil shaving and a touch of rusty nail. The wine shows beautiful finesse and will definitely endure a long and prosperous drinking window. The tannins show silky integration and there is an enormous push of power and persistence in the palate." (97pts)

558 Barolo - Vintage 2011

"...is sweet, round and sensual, as it has always been from barrel. Kirsch, rose petals, sweet red cherries, crushed flowers, mint and cinnamon are all laced together in the glass. The tannins are silky, round and beautifully ripe. I expect the 2011 will offer a long and wide drinking window of pure pleasure over the next 20 years or so." (94+pts VM)

Cannubi Boschis, L. Sandrone

"I was simply floored by the 1990, which announces itself with an unbelievably fresh nose of roses, spices and minerals belying its 15 years of age. Though medium-bodied, it offers tremendous opulence, concentration and length on the palate, with waves of ripe, sweet red and black fruit, menthol, and mineral flavors and a soft, generous texture. This youthful Barolo must be tasted to be believed, and well-stored bottles should drink well for at least another 10 years. A real privilege to drink this from an impeccably stored bottle."(98pts)

This is one of the most aromatically expressive, lifted Barolos I have ever tasted from Bricco Fiasco, where the wines tend to be bruisers."(97+pts VM)

Poggio di Sotto
"The 2010 Brunello di Montalcino opens slowly and gracefully before it shows its full potential. This slow moving bouquet is a beautiful quality that is shared by many of the best wines from this stellar vintage. Once it gets started, this Brunello offers wild berry, graphite, tar and balsam herb tones that are direct and focused. This wine is steady and sure. It also reveals balanced acidity that adds to the length and the polished feel that this wine majestically projects. This vintage from Poggio di Sotto should evolve at a slow pace for the next 10-15 years."(95+pts)

Deep, palate-staining mirabelle, peach pit and poached pear flavors are complicated by anise and bitter cherry skin, showing excellent grip. Finishes long and spicy, with excellent breadth. "The 1996 Salon was like the razor's edge; there was so much vim, vigor and acidity here it was like being in the eye of a storm. One could see the greatness of the 1996 vintage in the Salon, which was fresh as a baby's bottom. It was white meaty underneath that 1996 greatness; so balanced, so long, so stylish and deeply penetrating. Rob gave it 6 stars. Incredible. Pure Blanc de Blanc Le Mesnil. No dosage. It was probably the greatest young Champagne that I have ever tasted."(97+pts JK)

"The 1989 has taken forever to shed its formidable tannins, but what a great vintage of Lynch Bages! I would rank it at the top of the pyramid although the 1990, 2000, and down the road, some of the more recent vintages such as 2005, 2009 and 2010 should come close to matching the 1989's extraordinary concentration and undeniable aging potential. Its dense purple color reveals a slight lightening at the edge and the stunning bouquet offers classic notes of creme de cassis, subtle smoke, oak and graphite. Powerful and rich with some tannins still to shed at age 22.."(99+pts)

1x12 bottle owc, excellent color

"We transitioned to the remaining four First Growths in the next flight, beginning with a phenomenal bottle of 1982 Margaux (sourced from Château). The Margaux had a pungent nose, and its t n a jumped out at first. It also had cinnamon, iron, rock and gorgeous perfume. It was beyond licorice according to Dan, and Australian John admired its cherry liqueur. The palate was rocky without the horror but with the picture show, not its usual feminine self, Ray observed. Though spiny and long, the Margaux was still stylish with a touch of that Margaux elegance. This was a great bottle of this wine, and it ended up being wine of the flight, outshining all the other First Growths."(97pts JK)

"...has a classic pencil-lead, cedar-infused nose that rockets from the glass, a subtle floral note developing with time. The palate is medium-bodied with supple red berry fruit, a pinch of white pepper and cedar, structured compared to coeval vintages and perhaps further along its drinking plateau than previous examples. Certainly à point, I would be reaching for bottles of this now if you cannot locate those 1982s, or alternatively seek out the superlative 1996. This still remains a fine, rather regal Pichon-Lalande. Tasted July 2016."(95pts)

SEE YOU ON SATURDAY!

NOW IN LONDON. STORE YOUR WINE IN

We've got a new hub. Actually, it's the oldest hub there is. London was the first original wine hub, long before New York and Hong Kong took center stage. We are in London every month collecting great wines for our auctions, increasingly so, and we have long had our eye on establishing a presence. That time is now.

The best thing about London is the "In Bond" system. The British were intelligent enough to realize that many products are purchased for investment as well as pleasure. The "In Bond" system allows you to store your wine in the UK tax free, something unfortunately the USA does not offer. Of course, anything you buy that is in London for any given auction will be transported the same, ideal way that it would have been were it already shipped to New York or Hong Kong. It will just arrive six weeks later.

BOND. TAX FREE.

- Bonded Warehouse Transfers are complimentary, and can be arranged at any time!
- Temperature controlled boat shipments depart frequently, with wines generally available at our New York or Hong Kong warehouses approximately 6 weeks after each sale.
- Free temperature controlled boat shipping for wines laying in London to New York for all New York auctions
London to Hong Kong for all Hong Kong auctions
- USD $25 per case for wines laying in London to Hong Kong for all New York auctions.
- USD $25 per case for wines laying in London to New York for all Hong Kong auctions.
- Air rates available upon request.

We can help arrange storage and transport for you at any time.

New York. Hong Kong. Now London. Only Acker.

LIVE AUCTION ~ LOTS 600-1549

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 7TH, 2019 BEGINNING AT 9:30AM

MAREA RESTAURANT ~ NEW YORK CITY, NEW YORK

A DREAMY SELECTION OF BURGUNDY, CHAMPAGNE, PORT AND MADEIRA

Wake up! It's Saturday morning and the auction is about to start! This dream is now a reality, thanks to this meticulous collector who was able to acquire the highest quality wines in quantity. This important collection has been featured in our auctions before, and no matter how much we sell from it, we are always impressed by what comes next. This is also our second installment of our 'In Bond In London' initiative!

After an appetizer of two original cases of 1989 Haut Brion, Burgundy captures the imagination with recent great releases of Dugat-Py, Leroux, de Montille, Dujac, Faiveley, Fourrier, Roumier, Jadot, Drouhin, d'Angerville, Domaine Leflaive, Arnaud Ente and Raveneau. There are some amazing wines here, and most are still in their original box!

We round out this tremendous collection that we are thrilled to represent once again with Jamet, Selosse, Egon Muller, Ornellaia and Sassicaia along with loads of lovely Port dating back over 100 years and Madeira going back even further to 1850!

600 Château Haut Brion - Vintage 1989

Graves

2lbsl, 1x12 bottle owc

"This continues to be one of the immortal wines and one of the greatest young Bordeaux wines of the last half-century. Consistently prodigious and almost a sure bet to top the scoring card of any blind tasting of this vintage as well as other years, the 1989 Haut-Brion is a seamless, majestic classic, and a tribute to this phenomenal terroir and its singular characteristics. The wine still has a very thick, viscous-looking ruby/purple color; a spectacular, young but awesome smorgasbord of aromas ranging from scorched earth, liquid minerals, graphite, black-berry and black currant jam to toast, licorice, and spice box. The levels of fruit, extract, and glycerin in this viscous, full-bodied, low-acid wine are awe-inspiring. The brilliant symmetry of the wine, extraordinary purity, and seamlessness are the hallmarks of a modern-day legend. It is still in its pre-adolescent stage of development, and I would not expect it to hit its full plateau of maturity for another 3-5 years, but this should be an Haut-Brion that rivals the greatest ever made at this estate. Life is too short not to drink this wine as many times as possible! A modern day clone of the 1959? Anticipated maturity: 2005-2030. Last tasted, 1/03."(100pts)

"The 2010 Mazoyeres-Chambertin explodes from the glass with tons of mineral-driven energy and vibrancy. It is a striking wine layered with saline notes that wrap around the red fruit with tons of intensity, conveying a sense of urgency that is thrilling. Bright red berries, flowers, mint and licorice saturate the palate on the piercing finish. The use of 100% whole clusters gives the wine much of its aromatic brilliance and delineation. This is another 2010 that is clearly built for the long haul as evidenced by the huge tannic finish. Anticipated maturity: 2025-2045."(95-97pts)

 "The 2015 Volnay 1er Cru Les Caillerets "Ancienne Cuvée Carnot" would definitely be one of my picks from Bouchard Père this vintage. It has a lovely, expressive, terroir-driven bouquet with red cherry, crushed strawberry and wet limestone. There is impressive delineation here. The palate is medium-bodied, very well balanced with caressing, supple tannin that belie the structure underneath. *Les Malconsorts, cuvée Christiane,
Domaine de Montille
1x6 bottle ocb*

“There are 7 barrels of the 2012 Vosne-Romanee 1er Cru Les Malconsorts Christiane this year from 0.48 hectares of vines tucked into La Tache. Ever since this prize plot came into Etienne de Montille’s hands, he has felt that it creates a different Pinot Noir to the regular Malconsorts and I can vouch for that myself having compared the two cuvees blind over three of four vintages in Paris, back in 2009. They both undergo identical vinification. It has a wonderful, exuberant bouquet laden with vivacious orange sorbet, strawberry preserve, minerals and incense like fireworks across the sky. The palate is medium-bodied, streamlined with very fine lithe tannins accompanied by a fine silver thread of acidity. It feels more compact, perhaps denser and more imposing than the regular Malconsorts and delivers a long persistent finish to complete a swarthy Malconsorts Christiane that is suffused with grandiloquence. Tempted?”(94-96pts)

“The 2013 Vosne-Romanée 1er Cru les Malconsorts “Christiane,” which I asked to taste directly alongside the regular Malconsorts, has more delineation and precision, more mineralité coming through on the nose, veins of wet limestone and sea spray emerging with time. The palate is also noticeably different with greater tension and focus, a sense of coiled-up energy that is uncommon in this vintage. This surely illustrates the profound effects of terroir: a serious 2013 that should age with style.”(94-96pts)

"While compositionally similar to the regular cuvée, the wood treatment is a bit more subtle and the aromas are distinctly more reserved. The strikingly rich, intense and concentrated flavors possess not only a bit more underlying tension but also notably more minerality on the explosively long and sappy finish. Moreover this is markedly firmer yet the grain of the tannins is even finer."(94-97ps BH)

"This is more obviously 2015 in style than any of the preceding wines with its very ripe aromas of cassis, roasted plum, spice and plenty of earth nuances. The exceptionally rich and opulently concentrated big-bodied flavors possess a caressing mouth feel thanks to the equally good level of sappy dry extract, all wrapped in a youthfully austere, robust and rustic finale."(94pts BH)

659 Volnay - Vintage 2010

Clos des Ducs, Marquis d'Angerville

1x12 bottle owc

"The 2010 Volnay Clos des Ducs is a wonderfully complete wine. Layers of sculpted, chiseled fruit flow gracefully as the Clos des Ducs opens up in the glass. Dark red cherries, licorice, spices and cedar are given an attractive lift by the expressive floral notes that are woven throughout. This is a beautifully centered, poised wine that impresses for its purity and focus. Anticipated maturity: 2020-2040."(95-97pts)

660 Volnay - Vintage 2010

1x12 bottle ocb

"Initially there is a touch of reduction though aggressive swirling liberates the admirably pure, fresh and elegant nose of a plenitude of floral notes along with a ripe mix of red berries and iron, stone and earth hints. There is good power and excellent complexity to the wonderfully well-delineated medium weight flavors that possess fine phenolic ripeness and superb energy on the focused, linear and stunningly long and saline-infused finish."(94pts BH)

Les Champans, Marquis d'Angerville

"The 2015 Volnay 1er Cru Champans is superb, wafting from the glass with notes of cassis, red cherry, raspberry and candied peel that is still very fruit driven, savory nuances only emerging with extended aeration. On the palate, the wine is full-bodied, powerful and muscular, with an authoritative chassis of fine-grained but firm tannins and a deep core of crunchy fruit. This is shutting down, but it's full of promise for the future."(93+pts)

Les Champans, Marquis d'Angerville

2x6 bottle ocb's

"In contrast to the precocious 2017, the 2016 Volnay 1er Cru Les Champans is tight-knit and reserved and will demand patience. Offering up aromas of plums, cherries, violets, dark chocolate and forest floor, the wine is, medium to full-bodied, chewy and firm, with lovely depth at the core but an imposing, muscular chassis of fine-grained tannin that asserts itself on the finish. I have no concerns about the balance of this Champans, but readers should plan on waiting at least a dozen years before pulling corks."(93+pts)

666 Meursault - Vintage 2008

"The 2008 Meursault villages is very classic on both the nose and palate this year, as the wine delivers a lovely bouquet of tangerine, iodine, apples, lovely floral tones, a great base of minerality and just the faintest wisp of vanillin oak. On the palate the wine is fullish and very, very pure on the attack, with fine mid-palate depth, excellent focus and a superb, racy and very minerally finish."(92pts JG)

"The 2010 Meursault Charmes has found a level of focus over the last year that it didn't have from barrel. The characteristic Charmes richness is there, but over time, the wine's mineral elements have taken on additional prominence. Layers of deep, resonant fruit crescendo to the textured, multi-dimensional finish. This is a great showing from Comtes Lafon. Anticipated maturity: 2015+."(95pts)

"In bottle, Leflaive's 2015 Puligny Montrachet 1er Cru Folatieres has found reserves of tension and precision that belie its buxom showing from barrel, opening in the glass with a pure bouquet of white peach, stone fruit pits, confit lemon, spring flowers, pastry cream and a discrete framing of new oak. On the palate, the wine is medium to full-bodied, layered and complete with impressive harmony and a long, classy finish. Elegant, harmonious and youthfully reserved, this classic Folatières should really hit its stride after five years in bottle. Matured in 20% new oak and bottled under Diam 30."(92+pts)

"The 2015 Puligny Montrachet 1er Cru Pucelles offers up a ripe but reticent nose of lemon cream, mandarin, yellow orchard fruit and apple blossom. On the palate, the wine is full-bodied and the most ample of Leflaive's premier crus this year, with a glossily textural attack, good depth at the core and grand cru amplitude followed by a saline, tangy finish. In style, this Pucelles nods to neighboring Bienvenues-Bâtard-Montrachet, but it isn't quite as concentrated, and I'd expect it to offer more precocious appeal in its youth."(94pts)

La Côte Faron

"The NV Extra-Brut Grand Cru La Cote Faron is ridiculously great. Layers of fruit emerge effortlessly from this large-scaled, dramatic Champagne. The wine needs quite of time to open up, but when it does it is a stunner. This is pure Ay in its rich, voluptuous personality and creamy texture. Red berries, dried flowers, licorice, mint and licorice are layered into the rich, seductive finish. Readers who prefer a more mineral-driven style of Blanc de Noirs will prefer the Le Bout de Clos, Selosse's wine from Ambonnay, while those who prefer a more overt expression of fruit will flip out over the Cote Faron. Either way, it's hard to lose. They are both magnificent. Disgorged February 21st, 2011. Anticipated maturity: 2011-2015."(97pts)

"Having followed this wine's evolution in barrel for the past few years, it is an honor to evaluate the final product. This Sassicaia has blossomed since my previous encounters with it as a young, awkward adolescent. The long-awaited 2015 Bolgheri Sassicaia represents a tremendous effort that comes together with seamless precision and focus. This is a confident and proud red wine from Tuscany. Starting with the primary material at hand, you sense the quality of fruit thanks to the wine's beautifully dark appearance and the rich texture it offers to the palate. The acidity is integrated, but more freshness still would have been welcomed in my view (and would also contribute to its longevity). The bouquet is amplified both in terms of volume and length. Its playlist includes dark berry fruit, spice, leather, licorice and roasted coffee bean. Yet, the mouthfeel is extremely graceful and silky. The wine's undisputed pedigree is showcased on the palate. It should also be noted that this edition of Sassicaia feels more ready and open to me. It will age and evolve beautifully, but the 2015 Sassicaia can also be enjoyed in the medium-term. This wine is all about the here and now."(97pts)

Everything here is so precise and at the same time, unassuming, as if this Nacional is aware of its breeding without the impulse to brag about it. It has closed down just a little since last year, but I take this as a positive sign that this legendary Nacional will delight for decades rather than years. THE GREAT 2008 DOM PERIGNON

2008 was a special year in Champagne and especially for Dom Perignon, with the perfect combination of pure ripeness and chiseled acidity giving wines of complexity, depth and balance. William Kelley of the Wine Advocate hails the 2008 Dom Perignon, “The finest release of this iconic cuvée since the 1996 vintage,” and Antonio Galloni lavishes abundant praise as well as you can see below. Here is a great opportunity to stock up on a benchmark Champagne with ten lots, all in their original six-pack cartons, purchased on release and professionally stored.

“...is once again stunning. More than anything else, I am surprised by how well the 2008 drinks given all the tension and energy it holds. Then again, that is precisely what makes 2008 such a unique vintage – namely that the best wines are so chiseled and yet not at all austere. Lemon peel, almond, mint, smoke and crushed rocks are all finely sculpted, but it is the wine’s textural feel, drive and persistence that elevate it into the realm of the sublime. The 2008 will be even better with time in the cellar, but it is absolutely phenomenal even today, in the early going. Three recent bottles have all been nothing short of magnificent.” Antonio Galloni, Vinous Media.*

“What I admire most about the 2008 is the way it shows all the focus, translucence and energy that is such a signature of the year, and yet it is also remarkably deep and vertical. In other words, the 2008 is a Champagne that plays in three dimensions.”(98+pts VM)

FLOCK OF BURGUNDY

We can never have too much Burgundy and here to help the cause are a tight coterie of Burgundy lovers supplying sultry elixirs such as 1990 Ponsot Clos de la Roche, 1985 Jayer Echezeaux, 1978 Roumier Bonnes Mares, 1996 Rousseau Chambertin magnum, 2008 Leflaive Chevalier, 2005 La Tache, 2016 La Tache, 2001 Vogue Musigny, 1949 Leroy Chambertin, 1986 Romanee Conti, several vintages of Ramonet Montrachet, 1969 Engel Clos Vougeot, several 1985s from Ponsot and much, much more! All wines properly stored.

735 Clos de la Roche - Vintage 1990
Vieilles Vignes, Ponsot
6vlsl, 2lwrl
"This is a prodigious effort. Given recent perplexing offerings from this producer, it is amazing how phenomenal Ponsot's wines can be. The 1990 exhibits a deep, dense, murky, ruby color as well as an explosive nose of gravel, spring flowers, and black and red fruits. Extremely rich and full-bodied, with spectacular concentration, an unctuous texture, and an extraordinarily long finish, this wine remains youthful, but its fat and succulent texture are hard to resist."(98pts)

Sweet and seamless in texture, it possesses spicy raspberry and floral pastille flavors that put on weight with air. Surprisingly dense for the vintage, which was never known for power and depth, it finishes with surprising thrust, silky tannins and lingering smokiness."(92pts VM)

739 Meursault - Vintage 2012
Perrières, Coche-Dury
"This MP was rich and long, displaying signature acacia and honeysuckle aromas. So rich' appeared in my notes again, but it was a touch oaky at first. With air, though, that resolved itself. This was still heavier than I expected, and Mr. Pink admired its laser focus.' I can't remember who Mr. Pink is, but he has a name lol"(96+pts JK)

Vieilles Vignes, Ponsot
"There is even more aromatic complexity with similar and brilliant red and black fruit notes though not the spice with superbly sappy, concentrated and very pure flavors that display flat out incredible length and impeccable balance. This will join the ranks of some of the best vintages of Ponsot's Clos de la Roche, which is saying something. It is however built for the very patient." (93pts BH)

"Deep, rich, expansive fruit offering intriguing notes of wonderfully rich Vosne spice and packed flavors displaying solid structure and ripeness. Rich, long and quite tannic at this point though the tannins are round and there is no evidence of any astringency. The pieces are all in place for a long, slow evolution and if this can develop additional complexity over time, my score may be conservative." (92pts BH)

"The '78 was brimming with pure red fruit, almost oceanic with its kaleidoscope of red. There was great spice, great musk and great mushroom and truffle complexity. Nice kisses of forest and brown sugar (the non-advanced kind!) rounded out this amazing wine. There was super length to this special stuff, and it held as its finish continued to smack my lips again and again." (98pts JK)

746 Screaming Eagle Cabernet Sauvignon - Vintage 1992

"... is exceptionally impressive. The wine's opaque purple color is followed by a sensational nose of jammy blackcurrants and subtle toasty oak. As stunning as the aromatics are, the wine reveals even greater richness and intensity on the palate, offering up layers of stunningly proportioned, ripe, intense fruit, full body, great purity, and an inner-core of sweet, creamy, highly extracted blackcurrant/cassis fruit. The tannin is nearly concealed behind the massive extract and richness. All the component parts are brilliantly focused and in balance. The finish is awesome!" (99pts)

"As great as so many of the wines that we had already tasted on this magical evening, this next flight of reds absolutely stole the show. It began with a spectacular bottle courtesy of Big Mike. The first thing I wrote was, WOW. The Rousseau was meaty, intense and DEEP; it was full of rose, iron, crushed red fruits, vitamins, tannins, alcohol, acidity, brick, iron, wildfire it was game over. 751 Charmes Chambertin - Vintage 2007*Vieilles Vignes, D. Bachelet*

"Wild, fully ripe nose combines black cherry, violet and game. Wonderfully sweet and lush in the mouth, conveying an impression of lower acidity than the Corbeaux and village example. This is deceptively pliant, complex and open today but it's hard to believe it won't evolve positively in bottle for a decade or more. Finishes juicy, sweet and very long, with an intriguing savory, smoky minerality." (93pts VM)

752 Volnay - Vintage 2005*Clos des Ducs, Marquis d'Angerville4nl*

"The magnificently pure and airy essence of red pinot fruit is reserved and cool with its classy, sweet and vibrant flavors that are also linear and filled with an underlying tension, culminating in a fine, long and utterly harmonious finish that seems to go on and on. This is truly Zen-like in its harmony of expression. The '05 Ducster is destined to take its place alongside the greatest vintages of the past and while the words "best ever" are presumptuous in a wine with such a distinguished history, the mere fact that it has the potential to be among the very best is praise enough." 753 Chevalier Montrachet - Vintage 2008*Domaine Leflaive6lscl, removed from owc*

This is long, tight and linear with huge amounts of dry extract that renders the very firm acid spine almost invisible at present though the finish is clearly shaped by it." (97pts BH)

756 Grands Échézeaux - Vintage 2014

Domaine de la Romanée Conti

"Here the expressive nose is even spicier and more floral with its lovely array of rose petal, lilac and lavender scents adding elegance to the mostly dark pinot and earth aromas that are also trimmed in a bit of wood but in this case it is even more subtle. As is virtually always the case this is bigger, richer, more powerful and more muscular with excellent volume to the rich and mouth coating flavors that deliver superb length on the chiseled, robust and hugely long finale."(95pts BH)

1 bottle per lot $1400-1800

757 La Tâche - Vintage 2016

Domaine de la Romanée Conti

"As is often the case, the highly perfumed nose is the most floral-inflected of the range with its equally cool and restrained array of violet and rose petal scents that combine with an extraordinary group of spice elements on the essence of red currant aromas. The mouthfeel of the imposingly-scaled and powerful flavors is again robust yet refined with just as much minerality as the Richebourg adding even more lift to the almost painfully intense and extravagantly long finish that also just goes and goes."(98pts BH)

758 Romanée St. Vivant - Vintage 2016

nl

"A more restrained and cooler nose reflects super-fresh and floral-inflected aromas of exceptionally spicy red and dark currant, violet, plum and tea. There is a highly refined mouthfeel to the almost lacy yet concentrated middle weight flavors that possess first-rate complexity on the balanced and wonderfully persistent if youthfully austere finish. This crunchy effort is class in a glass with its emphasis on finesse which is quite different from the evident power and punch of the Corton. Textbook built-to-age RSV."(95pts VM)

1 bottle per lot $2200-3000

758A La Tâche - Vintage 2005

Domaine de la Romanée Conti

"There is only one word to do the nose true justice and that is kaleidoscopic as the aromatic breadth here is simply dazzling with red and black cherry, cassis, plum and subtle earth notes replete with the same Asian spice cabinet aromas as the RSV displays but here the floral aspect, particularly rose petal, is much more pronounced. However, the '05 LT is almost a combination of the RSV's class, grace and sensuality and the Riche's power, taut muscularity and huge length as the overall palate impact is equivalent to a vinous bomb exploding on the cuts-like-a-knife finish that can be measured in minutes not seconds. This is structured to the point of being chewy yet it is never rustic or coarse because the gorgeously detailed palate is buffered by buckets of dry extract. As readers know, I often use the word Zen to describe the kind of inner harmony of a great vintage of Romanée-Conti but rarely with La Tâche yet in 2005, the LT has this element of inner calm and grace as well. In sum, this is a huge but utterly classy and stylish wine that will undoubtedly go down as one of the all time great LT's."(99pts BH)

6 bottles per lot $26000-35000

759 Chambertin - Vintage 2005

A. Rousseau

vlwisl, vlsc

"I was frankly quite surprised to find the Chambertin almost as expressive and every bit as broad aromatically as the Bèze as the nose is equally kaleidoscopic if featuring a more deeply pitched set of fruit aromas and more earth. The flavors are bigger if not finer with serious power and weight on the rich, full and driving finish that possesses an exuberant underlying sense of energy, all wrapped in a core of rock solid but ripe and balanced tannins. Like the potential of the Bèze, this too has a chance to ascend as one of the top vintages ever typified by such years as '34, '49, '52, '62, '66 and '91. Arguably the Chambertin of the vintage."(99pts BH)

1 bottle per lot $3000-4000

760 Musigny - Vintage 2001

Vieilles Vignes, Comte de Vogue

"One of the finest wines of the vintage, this is simply a spectacular effort that has captured every bit of the potential it originally displayed in cask. Restrained and backward nose of a fantastically complex mix of blackberries, spice, cedar, soy, anise and dried herbs followed by full-bodied, multi-layered flavors of amazing length. Opulent and lavish yet all remains exquisitely balanced and this is astonishingly precise. A real stunner of a wine that is as classy and graceful as they come. As good and classy as the '02 if not quite as structured."(96pts BH)

1 bottle per lot $500-700

761 La Tâche - Vintage 2007*Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

"The high-toned, sweet themes continue inner mouth, with intimation of heliotrope, rowan, and lily perfume, while the wine's smoky, spicy elements seem to descend into a low-register undertone of roasted red meats and forest floor. As this opens to the air, a subtly sweet-saline suggestion of lobster shell reduction adds richness and succulence. Strikingly creamy in feel, this La Tache nevertheless possessed a fresh berry edge that helps convey vibrancy to a finish that practically glows in your mouth, offering another of those Burgundian paradoxes of light and dark." (96pts)

1 bottle per lot $2600-3500

762 Romanée St. Vivant - Vintage 2010*Domaine de la Romanée Contilscl*

"All that I could think when I first put my nose in the glass was "wow!" as the airy and very cool nose of ultra-elegant spice, floral and herbal nuances greeted me. Add to this plenty of attractive nuances to the kaleidoscopically layered red currant and plum suffused aromas and you have something pretty special. This is, not surprisingly, much more refined than the GrandsEch as the supporting tannins on the silky middle weight flavors are extremely fine-grained yet notably dense as the explosive finish is quite firm. Despite the tightly wound structure the overall impression of the mouth feel is one of delicacy and ultimate refinement." (96pts BH)

763 Château Mouton Rothschild - Vintage 1945*Pauillac1vhs, 1hs, 2lstl, 2scl, 1sdc, 2scc, outstanding color*

"A consistent 100-point wine (only because my point scale stops at that number), the 1945 Mouton-Rothschild is truly one of the immortal wines of the century. This wine is easily identifiable because of its remarkably exotic, over-ripe, sweet nose of black fruits, coffee, tobacco, mocha, and Asian spices. It is an extraordinarily dense, opulent, and rich wine, with layers of creamy fruit, behaving more like a 1947 Pomerol than a structured, powerful, and tannic 1945. The wine finishes with a 60+ second display of ripe fruit, extract, and sweet tannin. This remarkably youthful wine (only light amber at the edge) is mindboggling! Will it last another 50 years? ..."  "Powerfully ripe and expressive aromas that display a wonderfully spicy mix of sous bois and very warm earth notes followed by quite ripe and intense flavors underpinned by noticeable finishing structure that has a slightly rustic character to it. This is still quite vibrant and may very well outlive all of the DRC '78s with the possible exception of the Romanée-Conti. In short, this is a classic Grands-Échézeaux. Consistent notes." 776 Richebourg - Vintage 2005*J. Grivot"The 2005 Richebourg displays a fascinating and alluring bouquet of black raspberry, nutmeg, ginger, sandalwood, and marrow. It offers an incredibly spicy, intensely black-fruited, old vines impression in the mouth, coating the palate with silken folds of fruit yet gliding elegantly into a finish of dark berries, spice, raw meat, wet stone, and mineral salts. Like spading fertile earth, one turns up new, dark secrets with each sip. For all of its textural richness and ripeness of fruit, this superb Pinot preserves a certain "cool" restraint, with no superficial sweetness. It would be a shame to cellar this for fewer than 10-12 years."(96-97pts)*

777 Montrachet - Vintage 1996

Ramonet

lwrl, 1x1 Jeroboam owc

"...a monumentally scaled yet uncannily elegant and pure wine with a massive nose of limestone, citrus and white flowers of almost indescribable complexity followed by dense, very tight, beautifully nuanced flavors all wrapped in endless reserves of mid-palate sap. The backend display simply astonishing persistence that stains the palate. Yet for all this expressiveness, it's immediately clear that only a very small portion of the wine's potential is being revealed. The acidity of the '96 vintage is pronounced yet there is more than enough seve to balance it. A genuinely great wine of power, finesse, detail and riveting class. This rivals the DRC Montrachet and the Niellon Chevalier for wine of the vintage honors."(98pts BH)

"As it often is, this is the most complete wine in the cellar with a subtle trace of wood framing gorgeous, elegant and highly complex ripe orchard fruit and white flower aromas that perfectly complement the rich, full and beautifully textured flavors all wrapped in a powerful, long and utterly classy finish. This is an impressive wine on any basis and should drink well over a 20 year period however it will be approachable much sooner than is typical for this wine."(94pts BH)

"Unlike the majority of the Ramonet '04s, this is as one would expect, which is to say reserved and primary yet classy, pure and ultra refined with a wonderfully complex if presently subdued nose of spicy white flower fruit nuanced by hints of citrus, liquid minerals and acacia blossom that continue onto the rich, intense and beautifully delineated flavors that possess exceptionally subtle wood notes on the hugely long finish. As good as the other grands crus are, there is simply another dimension here and while I don't think this will be one of the longest-lived vintages of this much storied wine, it should provide much pleasure in its inimitable way. In a word, striking."(95pts BH)

789 Dom Pérignon Vintage Champagne - Vintage 2002
 2x6 bottle ocb's
"The 2002 Dom Pérignon speaks to opulence and intensity. Rich, layered and voluptuous in the glass, the 2002 shows off its flamboyant personality with flair. Butter, cooked apple and tropically-leaning fruits mesh together effortlessly. Interestingly, with time in the glass the 2002 gains in freshness and energy without losing its essential opulence. The elevated ripeness of the year gives the 2002 Dom Pérignon distinctly Puligny-Montrachet leaning inflections. Chef de Caves Richard Geoffroy adds that August that year was hot and very dry. Rain towards the end of the month and into early September freshened the vines and accelerated the final phase of ripening. This is yet another fabulous showing from the 2002, which continues to cement its reputation as a truly epic Dom Pérignon."(98pts VM)

The 2002 vintage generally yielded big wines, and of course, a significant amount of the Chardonnay for Dom Ruinart comes from the Montagne de Reims, where the wines are richer and broader, yet those are truly mere details. "The 2014 La Tâche Grand Cru is a very refined nose, so much so that blind I might mistake it from Romanée-Conti (as I opined to Bertrand de Villaine himself). Very precise, extremely pure and with wonderful mineralité, there is a lucidity embroidered into this wine. The palate is medium-bodied, symmetrical, with a little edginess creeping in here that lends the finish a sense of animation. The fruit shades from red to more black as it opens, yet the aftertaste is extraordinarily long and persistent. There is a kind of magic in this La Tâche."(96-98pts)

"I have had this wine more than two dozen times (lucky me), and it is one of the most thrilling wines I could ever drink. I loved it when it was an infant, and now that it may, or may not be, fully mature, I still think it is the quintessential expression of Guigal's La Mouline. The color remains an inky garnet, with no perceptible lightening at the edges. The celestial aromas include copious quantities of black raspberries, coconut, smoked duck, Asian spices, and violets. It overloads the olfactory senses. On the palate, this wine reveals unreal concentration, layers of thick, juicy fruit, beautifully integrated acidity and tannin, and a sumptuous finish that lasts for more than a minute. "Tasted blind at the Burgfest 2014 tasting, Rousseau's 2014 Chambertin Grand Cru has a fruit-driven bouquet laden with black cherries, crushed strawberry, ink and a touch of bay leaf. As it aerates, the fruit seems to take more of a back seat and the terroir comes through. The palate is medium-bodied with fine tannin, very pure and elegant, iron fist/velvety glove and so forth. This is what a grand cru should be. Utterly seductive and captivating, its satin texture might lure you into opening a bottle too soon. Give it a decade to admire Rousseau at full flight. 840 Échézeaux - Vintage 2000

1ltl, 1lbl

"The Échézeaux 2000 from Domaine de la Romanée-Conti won the hearts of everyone around the table one of those wines that you just cannot help falling for. It has a dark garnet core with thin bricking on the rim. The nose is actually reminiscent of a fine Musigny from de Vogüé, a little introverted at first but it's just kidding with you and bursts open with infectious joie de vivre. The palate is medium-bodied, quite linear at first with superb tension and energy. No, it is not as complex as the Grands Échézeaux 2000 but that Loire-like, sappy finish is beguiling. Drink now and enjoy over the next 15 years. Given the growing season this performs way above expectations."(92pts)

"The 2008 Échézeaux is a noticeable step up in quality from the Vosne-Romanée. This is a decidedly rich, powerful Échézeaux endowed with considerable muscle. The aromas and flavors build beautifully towards a dazzling, harmonious finish. The 2008 is a big Échézeaux that could use further time in the cellar. There is plenty of underlying structure to support a long life in the cellar. The 2008 is seriously impressive. If any wine can be said to represent value among the Domaine's 2008s, the Échézeaux is it. Anticipated maturity: 2018-2038."(94pts)

842A Grands Échézeaux - Vintage 2000

Domaine de la Romanée Conti

"The Grands Échézeaux 2000 is a cerebral Burgundy, not quite as convincing as it was three years ago, but still a great wine. Here it has a vibrant red berry, stony bouquet that is reserved at first, but opens nicely with limestone and sea-spray scents emerging with time. It has a quite brilliant balance on the palate not a powerful Grands Échézeaux but complex, with hints of black olive and chlorophyll emerging toward the finish that gently fans out and becomes a little spicier as it aerates. Superb."(92pts)

842B Grands Échézeaux - Vintage 2004

Domaine de la Romanée Conti

"The linear and ultra pure medium full flavors trade more on finesse and refinement than what is usually a relatively powerful and muscular wine. This isn't a big wine but the superb detail and unmatched precision are stunning."(91pts BH)

843 Grands Échézeaux - Vintage 2008

Domaine de la Romanée Conti

1x6 bottle banded owc

"The 2008 Grands-Échézeaux is a stunningly beautiful wine. Exotic notes of star anise, fennel, hard candy and orange peel meld into a deep core of expressive fruit. The 2008 Grands-Échézeaux is powerful from start to finish, with endless layers of flavor that grow in the glass. It is a spherical, multi-dimensional Burgundy in need of at least a few years in the cellar, perhaps quite a few"(95pts)

844 La Tâche - Vintage 2000*Domaine de la Romanée Contiscl*

“Quite deeply colored with the classic La Tâche nose of dried rose petals plus a fantastic array of aromas and spices too numerous to even try to describe that lead to fine, detailed and beautifully textured flavors and terrific length remarkably complex and has sneaky finishing intensity. I like this a lot for its superb style, grace and penetrating minerality...”(94pts BH)

1 bottle per lot $3000-4000

845 La Tâche - Vintage 2008*Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

“The 2008 La Tâche is another huge, powerful wine. Deep layers of perfumed fruit flow from this gorgeous wine. Mint, crushed flowers, orange peel and spices are just some of the notes that emerge from the wonderfully textured fruit. Darker hints of earthiness, tar and minerals frame the sweeping, eternal finish. This is simply dazzling.”(97pts)

4 bottles per lot $11000-15000

846 La Tâche - Vintage 2010*Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

“This is perhaps even more floral than the Richebourg and every bit as spicy on the ultra-pure, cool and remarkably elegant mix of red and blue pinot fruit, red currant and wild red berries that are openly mineral-inflected. As with all of the DRC ‘10s, the equally stony flavors and supporting tannins are extremely fine and while there is ample power and vibrancy, the palate feel is all silk and satin. To be sure, this is a big wine with impressive concentration but this is definitely not cut from the same cloth as say the 2005 or 2009 versions are. I can admire both styles but this one is seriously lovely.”(98pts BH)

3 bottles per lot $9000-12000

847 Richebourg - Vintage 1990*Domaine de la Romanée Contibsl, wisl, sdc*

“Amazing nose - incredible t’n a that is somehow ripe as will red fruits dominate with a hint of black here earth, truffle, leather, and game aromas are all divine singularly and collectively huge yet silky with a fabulous finish, fabulous fruit yes, this is fabulous wine, absolutely if you will secondary aromas of soy and mocha, with a pinch of sawdust massive ripeness and finish.”(97pts JK)

849 Richebourg - Vintage 2008*Domaine de la Romanée Conti1x6 bottle banded owc*

“The 2008 Richebourg sweeps across the palate with a breathtaking combination of elegance and power. It is a huge wine that boasts tons of mineral-driven, pointed fruit with more than enough depth to fill out its broad shoulders. All of the elements build gracefully towards the intense, taut finish. The Richebourg is likely to require considerable patience.”(96pts)

852 Romanée St. Vivant - Vintage 2002*Domaine de la Romanée Contivlscl*

“...has a heavenly bouquet. It was served blind but the tangible stem addition betrayed the grower, particularly when it was later compared next to an Henri Jayer. The bouquet is very complex with red berries, tree bark, a touch of dried blood and smoke, but what is striking is the delineation. The palate is medium-bodied and as you would expect, extremely well balanced. There is plenty of sappy red fruit here suffused with sage and rosemary, a touch of spice enlivening a finish that has impressive density (so much so that it could pass as a Richebourg.) I was not the only person to notice how it became more more savory and ferrous in the glass, after 30 minutes suggesting a touch of Japanese tea (the proper, thickly textured type). Just wondrous.”(95pts)

853 Romanée St. Vivant - Vintage 2004*Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

"A deft touch of wood frames exuberantly expressive and luxurious black fruit nose nuanced by a huge range of spices including anise, clove and cinnamon with notes of tea and hoisin as well. The moderately full flavors are sappy, rich and sweet with ample volume and a palate drenching finish that benefits from an underlying sense of vibrancy. There is real energy here, which seems to collect and focus the flavors." (92pts BH)

854 Romanée St. Vivant - Vintage 2008*Domaine de la Romanée Conti1x8 bottle banded owc*

"As one would reasonably expect, this is notably more elegant with a pure, delicate and layered nose of floral notes, in particular rose and violet, along with clove, anise and sandalwood nuances that gracefully introduce rich, forward and generous flavors that retain a wonderful sense of tension, detail and refinement on the precise, textured and focused finish that offers tremendous length." 855 Romanée St. Vivant - Vintage 2012*Domaine de la Romanée Conti1scl*

"...rather than afterwards unlike previous years, was picked on September 28 and 29 at 24 hectoliters per hectare. There is a wondrous, ethereal purity to this 2012, a little more sumptuous than I recall it from barrel, with kirsch and freshly picked strawberries. As it opens, it gains more and more sensuality. The palate is rounded, almost curvaceous in the mouth, clearly more concentrated than the 2011 with a sense of authority and purpose, a bit of daring-do on the long finish." (96pts)

858 Harlan Estate Red - Vintage 2010*signed label, 1x1 double magnum owc*

"I wouldn't be surprised to see the 2010 Harlan Estate inch closer to perfection over the next decade. Surprisingly supple for this vintage, while this cuvée is not usually that flamboyant or exuberant in its youth, the 2010 is sensual and performing remarkably well. Its deep purple color is accompanied by notions of charcoal, graphite, camphor, creme de cassis, barbecue smoke and blackberries." (98+pts)

868 Château Cheval Blanc - Vintage 2014

St. Emilion

1x12 bottle owc

"The 2014 Cheval Blanc is a blend of 45% Cabernet Franc and 55% Merlot, picked from 19 September until 8 October. It has a very succinct, almost understated bouquet, here a mixture of red and black fruit, cold limestone and crushed rose petals (the latter observed when the wine was in barrel). It is not a set of aromatics that go out and grab your attention, rather the sophistication creeps up on you. The palate is medium-bodied with crisp tannin. Unlike the Deuxième Vin, there is real structure and backbone here, a gentle but insistent grip in the mouth. It errs towards black instead of red fruit, intermingling with sage and cumin, then segueing into a precise finish with a long, lingering ferrous finish (à la Pomerol!), finally a hint of oyster shell on the aftertaste. It is one of the most subtle Cheval Blancs that I have tasted in a long time, although it will doubtlessly be deceptively long lived. This is a serious Cheval Blanc for serious oenophiles." (96pts)

871 Château Lafite Rothschild - Vintage 2014

Pauillac

1x12 bottle owc

"The 2014 Lafite-Rothschild, tasted with head winemaker Eric Kohler, has retained that very opulent and outgoing bouquet that dare I say actually reminded me of Mouton-Rothschild. There are layers of blackberry and boysenberry fruit, still that hint of juniper berry, certainly a more extrovert Lafite-Rothschild compared to recent vintages. The palate is medium-bodied with crisp tannin, very focused and quite linear, again with plenty of black fruit laced with cedar and tobacco. It begins to clam up towards the saline finish, suggesting that it will need several years in bottle, but I still have high expectations for this First Growth once afforded several years in bottle." 881 Chambolle Musigny - Vintage 2016
Les Amoureuses, Comte de Vogue
1x6 bottle owc
"There are just four casks of the 2016 Chambolle Musigny 1er Cru les Amoureuses this year. They are all used as winemaker François Millet's only option would have been to use 25% new oak, which he felt was excessive. There is something almost sedate about the aromatics, unfurling gracefully in the glass with scents of blackcurrant, bilberry, wilted violet and a splash of ink. The palate is medium-bodied with a succulent and overtly fruit-driven opening sporting cassia and blackcurrant. There is a touch of chalkiness to the texture that counterbalances the tightly coiled opulence, while the finish brims with energy. Overall, this is not a deep or especially concentrated Les Amoureuses yet it is as precise as a Swiss watch."(93-95pts)
6 bottles per lot $3500-5000

882 Musigny - Vintage 1990
Vieilles Vignes, Comte de Vogue
"The Bordeaux-like, saturated dense ruby/purple color is followed by a tight-fisted nose and flavors of black fruits, underbrush, minerals, smoke, and new oak... This loaded effort should prove to be one of the longest-lived red Burgundies made in the last twenty years."(96pts)

883 Musigny - Vintage 1993

884 Musigny - Vintage 2008
Vieilles Vignes, Comte de Vogue

"This is also quite reserved at present with an elegant, airy, cool and pure nose that is kaleidoscopically complex as it offers red currant, plum, black cherry and a panoply of floral and spice notes, in particular violet and anise, before marrying seamlessly into mineral-driven and alluring big-bodied flavors that explode on the powerful and almost painfully intense finish that delivers genuinely stunning length."(96pts BH)

- 885 Musigny - Vintage 2012
Vieilles Vignes, Comte de Vogue
1x6 bottle owc
"Tasted blind at the annual "Burgfest" tasting in Beaune. The 2012 Musigny Vieilles Vignes Grand Cru from de Vogüé has slightly brighter and more vivacious fruit than J-F Mugnier, and in fact, the two wines seem to go in two different trajectories in the glass, this blossoming and the other becoming more occluded. De Vogüé's Musigny is unashamedly floral in style, very elegant and yet delineated. There is a noticeable estuary scents, mudflats and seaweed, that begin to permeate the fruit. The palate is medium-bodied with very fine tannin, wonderful acidity and succinctly integrated new oak that is barely tangible. It is intense but elegant, long and tender in the mouth. It is a fabulous Musigny, one of the best that the domaine has produced in recent years."(98pts)

The velvety and mouth coating imposingly-scaled and intense mineral-driven flavors are blessed with seemingly endless reserves of dry extract that coat the palate on the highly seductive finish that delivers fantastically good length on the youthfully austere, backward and immaculately well-balanced finale. This opulent yet very serious effort is also going to require a very long snooze in a very cool cellar but it should be a remarkable Musigny when it finally emerges."(97pts BH)

"The 2016 Vosne-Romanée 1er Cru Les Beaux Monts has a perfumed bouquet with cold limestone scents that infuse the Morello cherry and crushed strawberry, tightly wound and nicely focused, understated compared to others that I have encountered from this vineyard. The palate is medium-bodied with fine definition, fresh and focused with the volume one expects from the premier cru delivered on the final third. This is brimming with great potential even if it might be predestined to fall under the shadow of the outstanding Malconsorts."(92-94pts)

 "Once again this is distinctly restrained in style with its cool and attractively refined nose that features a broad mix of super-spicy and floral-inflected aromas that include violet, plum and black raspberry. There is ample minerality and dry extract to the full-bodied and solidly powerful flavors that possess that wonderful sense of underlying tension that carries over to the rich and mouth coating finish."(96pts BH)

Vieilles Vignes, Ponsot
 "This is a prodigious effort. Given recent perplexing offerings from this producer, it is amazing how phenomenal Ponsot's wines can be. The 1990 exhibits a deep, dense, murky, ruby color as well as an explosive nose of gravel, spring flowers, and black and red fruits. Extremely rich and full-bodied, with spectacular concentration, an unctuous texture, and an extraordinarily long finish, this wine remains youthful, but its fat and succulent texture are hard to resist."(98pts)

Marquis de Laguiche, J. Drouhin
"The 2016 Montrachet Grand Cru (Marquis de Laguiche) felt very closed and taciturn on the nose when I tasted it, despite rigorous coaxing. The palate is well balanced with a lightly honeyed, spicy opening, more saline than the Corton-Charlemagne with a long aftertaste carried by a tang of ginger that leaves the mouth tingling. It will deserve 5 or 6 years in bottle, but it will be worth the wait."(93-95pts)

It outclassed all the other whites by a few lengths."(97Mpts JK)

"Tasted blind, the 2011 Chevalier-Montrachet Grand Cru is a vintage that I omitted during my Burgundy tasting. I missed out because here it out-flanked the Montrachet from Sauzet. It has developed a complex bouquet with apple blossom, hazelnut and a soupcon of cold granite. I appreciate the drive and intensity of the Chevalier-Montrachet. The palate is lively with superb precision, offering the crescendo you expect from this vineyard. It is still primal yet there is impressive energy and nervosité that will stand it in good stead for long-term aging. This is an excellent Chevalier-Montrachet from Sauzet that should repay bottle aging. Tasted October 2016."(95pts)

BURGUNDY AND PIEDMONT BLISS

Perhaps no other two regions are better at communicating terroir than Burgundy and Piedmont, and this is a most special combination of the two, going back to the glorious decades of the '60s and '70s thanks to this seasoned connoisseur who is ever so present in our auctions. Burgundy gets the first call with a couple lots of Rousseau Chambertins, six lots of DRC 1971s (!), several lots of Drouhin Musigny and a full case of 2006 Raveneau Valmur. Giacosa rules the roost in Piedmont (as usual) with Santo Stefano Riserva back to 1964, and 1985 Falletto Riserva. Three lots of Monfortino back to 1971 provide a very fine finale, indeed. All wines ideally stored.*

929 Chambertin - Vintage 2001

A. Rousseau

"Tasted alongside the 2001 Clos Saint Jacques, the 2001 Chambertin Grand Cru possesses an ethereal, floral bouquet of raspberry jam, Morello cherries, minerals and undergrowth, gaining in intensity all the time in the glass. The palate is very natural and refined, in no way a powerful Chambertin, rather one of finesse, grace and purity. Divine. Drink now-2026. Tasted January 2014."(95pts)

"The 1971 DRC La Tâche was another perfect bottle, smoky and sexy in every which way. This was a great, thick wine that exuded greatness. This wine was full of ceramic spices and had cement on its finish, sleeping with the fishes style. This was a bottle that ended all discussions, there was no need for life thereafter. It was so good."(99pts JK)

Wagyu flavors dripped from its bones, along with signature rose, menthol, and iron. Great stuff."(98+pts JK)

Incredible, sexy, alluring spice and fruit in the nose...coy but definitely showing some skin...an excellent balance of sweet black and red fruits...saucy and ripe, with a liqueur quality to the palate...great tannins, a 'super long' finish (at this stage the grammar skills were waning) - the finish goes on and on and on...touch of sweet kirsch that borders on cassis...still alcoholic, very young and shy but more flesh than the Grands Ech...wait another ten years!..."(98+pts JK)

936 La Tâche - Vintage 2012

"Though this is by no means exuberant, it's clear that there is good ripeness to the spiced green tea, hoisin, soy, anise, sandalwood and rose petal aromas. The cool, pure and seductively textured medium weight plus flavors brim with both minerality and plenty of dry extract that buffers the extremely firm but not hard shaping tannins on the overtly austere if seriously persistent finish."(97pts BH)

937 Griottes Chambertin - Vintage 2002

J. Drouhin

"The nose here is completely different after the fireworks delivered by the Grands Ech with its reserved, backward, discreet red fruit aromas framed by a subtle touch of oak spice. Intriguing notes of game, leather and earth nuances can be found on the sappy, long, precise and focused flavors of indescribable complexity and what is perhaps the best acid/fruit balance of these '02s. Understated and supremely classy juice that is indisputably of reference standard quality."(94pts BH)

1x1 Jeroboam owc

"A broad-ranging and more expressive nose consists of a wonderful range of spice elements together with notes of black tea, earth and floral hints. There is strikingly good intensity and real power to the overtly muscular big-bodied flavors that ooze a fine dry extract that imparts a suave, even velvety mouth feel to the robust finale that also delivers superb persistence."(96pts)

939 Volnay - Vintage 2005

Clos des Ducs, Marquis d'Angerville

"The magnificently pure and airy essence of red pinot fruit is reserved and cool with its classy, sweet and vibrant flavors that are also linear and filled with an underlying tension, culminating in a fine, long and utterly harmonious finish that seems to go on and on. This is truly Zen-like in its harmony of expression. The '05 Ducster is destined to take its place alongside the greatest vintages of the past and while the words "best ever" are presumptuous in a wine with such a distinguished history, the mere fact that it has the potential to be among the very best is praise enough."(94-97pts BH)

The intensity is nothing short of phenomenal, even for a grand cru at this age and the overall impression is one of grace and power. A great effort that is drinking perfectly now and will for some years to come."(94pts BH)

2 bottles per lot $1200-1600

942 Chablis - Vintage 2006

Valmur, Raveneau

2x6 bottle ocb's

"According to Raveneau, the airy exposure of its site inherently lends more elegance to his 2006 Chablis Valmur and less weight or opulence than the Blanchots. (The Valmur, too, originates with a high average age of vine.) Diverse flowers and herbal high tones in the nose usher in a remarkably polished, refined palate, one no less tactile in its mineral dimensions than the Blanchots, but more transparent, and with a lift that matches its wafting floral perfume and a purity of yellow plum and grapefruit that are seductively succulent. This unforgettably persistent, truly grand cru should dazzle for 12-15 years."(95-96pts)

943 Barolo - Vintage 1989*Granbussia Riserva, A. Conternoscl*

"Conterno's 1989 Barolo Riserva Granbussia is darker in color and fresher than the 1990. Sweet mentholated, balsamic aromatics meld gracefully into an expressive, layered core of dark fruit. The 1989 is a big, expansive Granbussia that takes time to reveal its qualities in full, but it is a remarkable wine for the integrity of its fruit, the finesse of its tannins and its sumptuous overall balance. It remains a benchmark wine for Conterno and the appellation. Curiously, two bottles I tasted at the estate were more forward than several I have had in the US recently. Anticipated maturity: 2009-2024."(97pts)

"The 1971 Barolo Monfortino flirts with perfection. Although not yet fully mature, it is hard to resist because of its blazingly intense nose of truffles, smoked herbs, earth, dried fruits, and spice. Massively constituted, with huge body, high tannin, extraordinary symmetry and purity, and mouth-staining extract levels, this is one of the greatest Barolo Monfortinos Conterno has ever produced. Is it ready to drink? Yes, but the wine has at least 20-30 years of life remaining."(98pts)

"Decidedly different - more fragrant and singular in its personality aromatically great spice (leather and tar, of course) BBQ, charcoal, a touch of ripe plums, baked brown sugar nice t 'n a hint of anise huge finish that remains integrated wine still has a long future blacker, nuttier flavors."(96pts JK)

954 Barolo - Vintage 1985

Monfortino Riserva, G. Conterno

1bn, 4lbsl, excellent color

"The 1985 Giacomo Conterno Barolo Monfortino Riserva was clearly the best of flight, and it was thick, rich and full of grit. There was all sorts of desert action on its finish. The Zen Master found it had all the elements' one could want in great Barolo and also noted 'Chinese tea.' This was so dry and so long, just awesome stuff and full of tobacco and leather flavors."(97pts JK)

SUPERSTARS FROM BURGUNDY, CHAMPAGNE AND SPAIN

It is a pleasure to welcome back this collector who knows what he likes and insists on collecting the best of the best from these fascinatingly fantastic regions. Dujac is the MVP with nine lots of focusing on the 1999 vintage. There are also full cases of 2001 and 2003 Roumier Bonnes Mares, two cases of 1996 Salon and CVNE back to 1981. All wines removed from professional storage.

973 Château Margaux - Vintage 1982

Margaux

lbsl, lgs, spc, 1x1 Jeroboam ovc

"...had a pungent nose, and its t n a jumped out at first. It also had cinnamon, iron, rock and gorgeous perfume. It was beyond licorice according to Dan, and Australian John admired its cherry liqueur. The palate was rocky without the horror but with the picture show, not its usual feminine self, Ray observed. Though spiny and long, the Margaux was still stylish with a touch of that Margaux elegance. This was a great bottle of this wine, and it ended up being wine of the flight, outshining all the other First Growths."(97pts JK)

1 Jeroboam per lot $5000-7000

974 Bonnes Mares - Vintage 1999

Dujac

1-3.5cm bc, 1vlscl, 1sos, 1x12 bottle ocb

"Classic young Bonnes Mares with its austere, firm exterior yet with a breathtakingly intense inner core of fiery fruit and extract of pinot. The sweet tannins are mouth coating and the texture almost liquorous yet there is a certain tension here that adds a note of mystery, as though the wine has much more to reveal than its presently hinting at. This may well have the best balance and overall material of any of these 99s and I have long believed that it is the most underrated wine in the Dujac portfolio. Captivating in every sense."(92-94pts BH)

977 Clos de la Roche - Vintage 1999

Dujac

"There is a certain reserve and distance present in this wine that the other wines don't have. Slightly austere with a mineral essence that tends to suppress the pinot baby fat lurking beneath the surface. The potential here is enormous yet it is largely hidden and unlike many 99s, this is not at all showy but rather calm and deliberate. All the components are here for a long and slow evolution but it may take 10 to 15 years to realize its awesome potential."(93pts BH)

"The brightest, freshest and most complex aromatic profile in the range with spicy floral red and black berry notes nuanced with cherry, plum, kirsch and warm earth aromas that lead to utterly delicious, pure and quite firmly structured flavors that possess knockout length. For an obviously ripe wine, this is really quite fine and classy with dense but refined tannins and again, just huge length."(91pts BH)

"Beguiling aromas of animal fur, blackberries, dark cherries, and violets can be found in the nose of the 2002 Volnay En Caillerets Clos des 60 Ouvrees. Viscous, deep, and chewy, this muscular wine boasts immense concentration and length. Its thickly textured personality reveals blackberry jam, candied dark cherries, and a myriad spices. Its prolonged finish exhibits exquisitely ripe tannin. Though I've been in love with the 1990 for years, this 60 Ouvrees may well surpass it!"(92-94pts)

"The 1996 Salon was like the razor s edge; there was so much vim, vigor and acidity here it was like being in the eye of a storm. One could see the greatness of the 1996 vintage in the Salon, which was fresh as a baby s bottom. It was white meaty underneath that 1996 greatness; so balanced, so long, so stylish and deeply penetrating. Rob gave it 6 stars. Incredible. Pure Blanc de Blanc Le Mesnil. No dosage. A SPECIAL COLLECTION OF BURGUNDY FEATURING DRC, DUJAC AND ROUMIER

This consignor is always talking, thinking and drinking Burgundy! He knows what he likes – Burgundy - and he has amassed a breathtaking collection, narrowing his eyes on the most exclusive Crus from the top producers. Thankfully, he has more than enough for himself and shares more wine with us! Four lots of Rousseau start things rolling and once again Dujac is the superstar's star with a baker's dozen lots including six selections of Clos de la Roche followed by six lots of Roumier Bonnes Mares in magnum going back to 1990! Each and every lot in this consignment is superlative stuff and would be a fine trophy to further adorn any great Burgundy collection. Even better, all wines were purchased on release with outstanding provenance and perfectly stored.

1002 Chambertin - Vintage 2009

A. Rousseau

"This is also ultra pure and densely fruited with notes of anise, mint, wet stone and a sauvage hint that introduces intensely earthy and mineral-driven big-bodied flavors that are rich, powerful, serious and densely concentrated, all wrapped in a silky, palate staining and colossally persistent finish."(96-98pts BH)

6 bottles per lot $12000-16000

1003 Chambertin - Vintage 2010

Clos de Bèze, A. Rousseau

"Very deeply colored, indeed this is the mostly deeply tinted of the Rousseau '10s. A gentle touch of wood offsets the highly complex and ultra-fresh nose that interweaves a superb range of floral, spice and distinctly ripe fruit elements. The seductively textured, detailed, pure and vibrant broad-shouldered flavors display a subtle minerality before terminating in an explosive, powerful and tautly muscled finish that delivers massive length."(97pts)

6 bottles per lot $11000-15000

1004 Gevrey Chambertin - Vintage 2008

Clos St. Jacques, A. Rousseau

"...the red strawberry side of the CSJ was very sexy."
(94pts JK)

4 bottles per lot $2000-2800

1005 Mazis Chambertin - Vintage 2005

A. Rousseau

"An earthier and much more serious nose of earth, game, truffle and spice adds plenty of aromatic nuance to the very fresh red and black berry aromas that complement perfectly the rich, supple and much sweeter big-bodied flavors that deliver a real sense of energy and volume to the driving and well muscled finish."(90-3pts BH)

1007 Vosne Romanée - Vintage 2005

Clos du Château, Comte Liger-Belair

"A floral nose resplendent with violets, Vosne spice, raspberry liqueur and black currant that is both slightly riper and very pure combines with delicious, precise and sweet flavors that display ample minerality, all wrapped in an understated and beautifully balanced that possesses top tier length on the beautifully long finish. Again, terrific quality at this level and highly recommended."(91pts BH)

1008 Vosne Romanée - Vintage 2009

La Colombiere, Comte Liger-Belair

5scl, 1nl, 1lsl

"The 2009 Vosne-Romanée La Colombiere is quite a bit fleshier than the 2010. The floral notes that are typical of this site are given a little extra volume and depth in 2009. Dark cherries, menthol and licorice are some of the nuances that flesh out on the generous, inviting finish. This is an especially round, inviting Burgundy with plenty of 2009 appeal."(93pts)

6 bottles per lot $2400-3200

1009 Clos de la Roche - Vintage 2005

Dujac

2lsl

"...for sheer intensity. Black cherry, kirsch distillate, cedar, incense, iron filings, wet stone, and roasted meats and coffee represent a few of the immediate aromatic suggestions forced on this taster. In the mouth, it is similarly compelling, with an eruption of clear black cherry, cassis, and meat juices, faintly bitter notes of fruit skin and pungent herbal and mineral notes adding complexity."(96pts)

6 bottles per lot $6000-8000

1010 Clos de la Roche - Vintage 2008

Dujac

"...is particularly refined in this vintage. The wine literally floats on the palate with weightless elegance in its intensely perfumed fruit. Crushed flowers and red berries linger on the silky, impossibly fine finish. This is a fabulous effort from Dujac."(95pts)

6 bottles per lot $2400-3200

1011 Clos de la Roche - Vintage 2009

Dujac

"...wafts from the glass with hints of tobacco, wild flowers and cherries. This is an elegant, refined Clos de la Roche long on finesse and pure sensuality. The gorgeous, finely-knit finish leaves a lasting impression..."(96pts)

6 bottles per lot $3500-5000

1012 Clos de la Roche - Vintage 2010

Dujac

"An intensely floral nose features notes of rose petals and lavender along with cool red berry fruit liberally laced with wet stone nuances. The taut and muscular broad-scaled and concentrated flavors are precise, intense and explosively long on the focused and stunningly persistent finish that is youthfully austere and breathtakingly intense. This faultlessly well-balanced but very firm effort will require extended cellaring and 15 to 20 years is probably what the structure will require to completely resolve."(96pts BH)

6 bottles per lot $4000-6000

1013 Clos de la Roche - Vintage 2011

Dujac

2lsl

"...is another superb bottle in the making, wafting from the glass in a deep and youthful blend of plums, black cherries, beautifully complex soil tones, gamebirds, coffee, a touch of citrus, violets and vanillin oak. On the palate the wine is deep, full-bodied and still very young (this too was late finishing up its malo and shows still a touch of gas on the backend), with a very soil-driven personality, ripe tannins and excellent length and grip on the youthful and very promising finish."(95pts JG)

6 bottles per lot $1800-2400

1014 Clos de la Roche - Vintage 2012

Dujac

"One of the more polished wines in the range, the Clos de la Roche is all about saline-infused energy and brilliance today. I very much like the precision here, but time has shown that the Clos de la Roche only starts to blossom with considerable bottle age."(96pts VM)

6 bottles per lot $2400-3500

1015 Clos St. Denis - Vintage 2009

Dujac

"...initially comes across as big and powerful. The wine finds a more feminine side of its personality with time in the glass. Despite its deceptively mid-weight body, the 2009 has plenty of underlying structure and ideally needs to be cellared for at least a few years. The Clos St. Denis is the epitome of weightless elegance. Dark raspberries, flowers and sweet spices wrap around the eternal finish. Anticipated maturity: 2019-2039."(96pts)

1016 Clos St. Denis - Vintage 2010*Dujac*

"This was initially noticeably reduced but aggressive swirling coaxes out a nose that is even more floral still with a pungent violet and rose character to the very fresh spice and earth-inflected fresh berry fruit aromas. There is beautiful subtlety to the detailed, refined and admirably pure middle weight flavors that possess a velvety, even plush mouth feel, all wrapped in a perfectly balanced and harmonious finish where the supporting tannins are remarkably fine-grained."(95pts BH)

6 bottles per lot $4000-6000

1017 Clos St. Denis - Vintage 2011*Dujac*

"Here too an adroit application of wood serves as a discreet foil for the more obvious floral aromas that enjoy added scope from the presence of pure, spicy and highly complex red and dark berry scents. There is an abundance of mouth coating extract that imparts a suave, even lush character to the very rich medium-bodied flavors that are an exercise in finesse and refinement while offering controlled power and outstanding length."(93pts BH)

1018 Clos St. Denis - Vintage 2012*Dujac*

"An intensely floral nose features notes of assorted red berries, earth, spice and soft wood nuances. 6 bottles per lot $2400-3500

1019 Clos St. Denis - Vintage 2013*Dujac*

"...has a slight reduction on the nose, but underneath that there is a floral note and what appears to be fine minerality. The palate is medium-bodied and takes time to coalesce in the glass, but it eventually finds good structure and an intriguing coconut note on the finish. Quite dense in the mouth, there is an appealing salinity within this Grand Cru, but I would give it 4 or 5 years before broaching a bottle."(93-95pts)

"A 1990 Roumier Bonnes Mares was a strong match for the '89 HB. It was a rich and heavy Burgundy, but still possessing pure red fruits, foresty goodness, and citrus twists despite the deep ocean here. This wine has decades to go. No 1990 problems' here."(97+pts JK)

1023 Bonnes Mares - Vintage 1993*G. Roumierssos*

"The 1993 Roumier Bonnes-Mares was a gorgeous example of 1993 but also actually rich in fruit, even more so than the bottle I had four days prior at CRU with Allen at a Roumier dinner (who's in charge of scheduling??? Oops, that's me). The nose was full of rich, red, vitaminy fruit; make that a symphony of red, purple and black fruits. Vibrant, fresh and long, its nose was incredible and had secondary earth aromas. The palate was so 1993 with its wave of t'n a, cedar, leather and earth. It was still a baby, but what a baby, oh, baby...I better stop."(96pts JK)

1 magnum per lot $6000-8000

1024 Bonnes Mares - Vintage 1997*G. Roumier*

"Ripest nose so far, and no surprise there fleshy, forward, and saucy thick aromas of red and purple fruits, sap, grape, and some brown sugar seems to be maturing faster but holding as well nice flesh on the palate, spicy and ripe tannins, with a touch of mint and menthol on the palate nutty brioche aromas develop nice finish, and the fruit is there to be great but not quite yet fruit rounds out nicely in the glass. Christophe said that the 'vintage was starting to change and close down, will age longer - would not drink '97s now.' Hmmtttt."(93+pts JK)

1025 Bonnes Mares - Vintage 2004*G. Roumier"Intense and brooding offers complexity and power in an understated way. Blackberry, mineral and tobacco flavors meld with the lively structure and fine-grained tannins. Picks up a violet theme on the long finish." (93pts WS)*

1026 Bonnes Mares - Vintage 2005*G. Roumierwc, cuc"In contrast to the aromatic fireworks of the Amoureuuses, here the nose is equally, indeed stunningly complex and deep but with a discreet and brooding character of mostly violets and blueberry notes against a backdrop of fresh earth that continues on the rich, intense and quite firmly structured big-boned flavors that are hugely long and built to age for decades." SIZZLING ROUSSEAU, ROMANEE CONTI AND DUJAC

Three of the biggest names in Burgundy are joined by other great wines from Burgundy, Rhone and Champagne thanks to an East Coast entrepreneur who is a regular at our bar, "Consignor Tavern." Almost every lot is a highlight, but we shine the spotlight on four lots of 1985 Rousseau, 1999 Vogue Musigny, 2006 La Tache, and four lots of Dujac Clos de la Roche going back to 1990 and 1985. That's what we call the sizzle!!! All wines properly stored.

"The 1985 Rousseau Chambertin Clos de Bèze also had lots of acid, despite the vintage usually being more forward. The quality of the producer was really shining. It had a brothy and sappy personality, along with tea biscuit qualities. It was another delicious wine, with nice leaves' to it along with excellent fruit. It was a veritable leather fun pack unto itself."(96pts JK)

"...is a fabulous grand cru at the very peak of its powers. The spellbinding nose is one of those that momentarily stops the world from turning: pure red currant jam, orange rind, limestone cave and a touch of Earl Grey – just wonderful delineation and heavenly focus, a studied intensity. The palate is medium-bodied with a vitamin-like purity and filigree tannins."(98pts)

"...wonderfully complex aromas of a simply incredible array of black fruits, earth, spice, crushed herbs and notes of chocolate with flavors that are huge but fine, powerful but subtle and rich yet detailed with a stupendously long finish that offers intense minerality. This is genuinely stunning juice and not to be missed if you have the chance."(96pts BH)

1035 Musigny - Vintage 2006

Vieilles Vignes, Comte de Vogue

"This is also extremely floral with a reserved nose that is an airy, spicy and ripe mélange of red and blue pinot fruit that displays really lovely violet and rose petal notes that are picked up by the minerally, intense and harmonious flavors that are beautifully proportioned and are blessed with ample amounts of dry extract on the essence of pinot and explosive, energetic and hugely long yet incredible precise finish that is also built on a base of firm minerality. This is almost exotic in character yet everything is in beautiful concordance. In a word, great."(96pts BH)

"Sweet, pure and completely classic mostly red pinot fruit aromas are enhanced by subtle nuances of floral notes, damp earth, underbrush and even a hint of game. The big, muscular but utterly refined flavors are superbly intense, reserved and backward supported by remarkably sophisticated tannins and stunning length. This is a very concentrated wine of real breed and impeccable balance that should age for 3 decades, perhaps longer."(93pts BH)

1037 Grands Échézeaux - Vintage 2001*Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

"This is clearly longer than its junior partner and is an incredibly forceful wine, indeed even a forceful one but with no lack of class."(93pts BH)

4 bottles per lot $6000-8000

1038 Grands Échézeaux - Vintage 2006*Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

"As it usually is relative to the Echézeaux, the restrained nose is distinctly more reserved but classier with a wonderfully intense and layered nose that is more floral still while offering up a variety of spice notes, including anise, clove and soy that can also be found on the pure and sleekly muscled flavors that possess real drive, indeed this does a slow but sure build from the mid-palate on through the explosive finish."(94pts BH)

2 bottles per lot $3000-4000

1039 La Tâche - Vintage 2006*Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

"The positively gorgeous if presently reserved nose offers up the hallmark spice and floral components that are broad and deep though requiring some real glasswork to coax out but it's worth the effort as the nose here, restrained or not, is brilliant. The big and generous flavors are an exercise in contrasts as they are at once round and rich while remaining wonderfully defined and precise with more minerality coming to the fore than any of the prior wines displayed, all wrapped in a linear, precise and palate staining finish that not withstanding the initial aromatic reserve, is indeed explosive." (96pts BH)

1lbsl, 1nl, 1lstl, 1sdc

"Amazing nose - incredible t'n a that is somehow ripe as wll red fruits dominate with a hint of black here earth, truffle, leather, and game aromas are all divine singularly and collectively huge yet silky with a fabulous finish, fabulous fruit yes, this is fabulous wine, absolutely if you will secondary aromas of soy and mocha, with a pinch of sawdust massive ripeness and finish."(97pts JK)

3 bottles per lot $9000-12000

1041 Richebourg - Vintage 1993*Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

1-3cm bc, 1ssos

"The 93 was shy, coiled and stemmy in its nose, with a milky, rosy and earthy complexity. There were secondary aromas of tea, wood, more stems and sweet cinnamon. In the mouth, the wine was wound and tangy, with a touch too much wood at first, very cedary in its flavor profile. The wine was undoubtedly excellent, with great acidity, and it continued to get more and more complex. Big, cedary and spiny, the palate also had traces of cinnamon and kisses of cedar, and its vitamin components became huge with time, and its musk flavors fattened out and developed nicely."(93pts JK)

3 bottles per lot $5000-7000

1042 Romanée St. Vivant - Vintage 2001*Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

"This displays a positively classic nose of soaring Asian spices, ripe plum and a gamut of ripe, pure and lacy red and black fruits with the latter predominating all wrapped together with a seductive kiss of sweetly scented, highly perfumed violets; the nose is, in a word, intoxicating. All of this aromatic intensity leads to remarkably powerful, linear, borderline robust flavors that show simply unbelievable complexity and stunning length. This will very likely surpass every other RSV from the Domaine in recent memory. A dazzling effort." (96pts BH)

4 bottles per lot $6000-8000

1043 Romanée St. Vivant - Vintage 2006*Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

"Iris, buddleia, and musky narcissus-like floral perfume; ripe purple plum and blackberry; saffras and licorice; along with smoked meat and a hoisin-like amalgam of spices and soy all waft alluringly from the glass. The tannins here are ultra-refined and there is a vintage-typical sense of levity, despite all of the dark intrigue of enveloping black fruits, forest floor, fungal, and carnal flavors that persist on the palate. Here is an uncanny alliance of the sensual and thought-provoking such as only great red Burgundy among the world's red wines can engender, and if this wine doesn't stimulate in you cravings and wonder at once, the fault is doubtless in yourself and not the glass."(95pts)

Slightly austere with a mineral essence that tends to suppress the pinot baby fat lurking beneath the surface. The potential here is enormous yet it is largely hidden and unlike many 99s, this is not at all showy but rather calm and deliberate. COCHE-DURY

If you were to ask most white wine connoisseurs what the best producer of white wine in the world is, Coche-Dury would be the answer more often than not. 'Coche' is at the pinnacle of White Burgundy and the grandest wine is their sole Grand Cru, Corton Charlemagne. This consignment consists solely of this iconic wine with eleven lots spanning 2001 to 2013. All wines ideally stored.

1049 Corton Charlemagne - Vintage 2001

Coche-Dury

1-3.25cm bc, 2lbsl

"A myriad of spices and anise-spiked pears are found in the highly expressive nose of the 2001 Corton-Charlemagne. Medium to full-bodied, with levels of dry extract that would tip the scales, and a supple, fleshy character of intense width and power, this wine is amazing. Magnificently supple, yet focused, boisterous, yet refined, thick, yet balanced, it possesses a finish that easily lasts for over a minute. Moreover, it has all the ear-marks of perfection. This velvety-textured wine is jam-packed with minerals immersed in pear syrup, copious spices (including clove, ginger, and juniper berries), as well as a distinctive note of apple sauce. It is layered, opulent, and sexy, while remaining nuanced and seamless. Wow!..."(98-100pts)

1050 Corton Charlemagne - Vintage 2005

Coche-Dury

"Warning: this incredible white Burgundy can leave you speechless. Appraised blind, everyone fortunate enough to have a glass of this Corton-Charlemagne in front of them, recognized its greatness. The bouquet is imbued with spine-tingling mineralite and a shimmering tension that is impossible to encapsulate in words. It just leaves you with a huge smile on your face. The palate neatly interlocks with the aromatics, that mineral tension just leaving you breathless with admiration."(98pts)

1051 Corton Charlemagne - Vintage 2007

Coche-Dury

"The 2007 Coche-Dury Corton Charlemagne was rich but young, definitely doing its suave Coche thing. It sparkled like diamonds and possessed outstanding richness, but it was still a bit shy. There were lots of white ice, minerals, white fruits and flowers in this "Spring"-y wine. The Paradox continued, You can see the whole Coche family in this flight'."(96pts JK)

3 bottles

per lot $10000-15000

1052 Corton Charlemagne - Vintage 2008

Coche-Dury

"The utterly profound 2008 Corton-Charlemagne Grand Cru is one of Jean-François Coche's great achievements and though today its quality is obvious, it's interesting that Jean-François and his son Raphaël recall 2008 in its infancy as "rude, closed, austere and cold." The wine wafts from the glass with notes of green orchard fruit, white flowers, oatmeal, vanilla pod, iodine and a subtle framing of new oak. On the palate, it's full-bodied, layered and multidimensional, its bright line of structuring acidity running through an ample but tense core of satiny texture and extract. The finish is bright, chalky and interminable. For a wine that retains all the tension and cut of a cool vintage, this Corton-Charlemagne's amplitude and power are striking. "Classic in the best sense" is Coche's understated judgment; less temperate commentators might call it perfection."(100pts)

1055 Corton Charlemagne - Vintage 2010

Coche-Dury

"The 2010 Coche-Dury Corton Charlemagne was so elegant and so long (I wrote: see previous note with The Rev and Bad Boy in LA, or did I not write that one up?). It was reminiscent of the 1996 vintage upon its release, another vintage that Coche released late, except I think that it was 1k a bottle at the time not five! It was still quite shy, but one sip had me once bitten. The wine was clean and pristine, clearly with the most potential generosity."(98pts JK)

1056 Corton Charlemagne - Vintage 2011

Coche-Dury

"...has an exquisite bouquet that truly deserves the phrase "liquid mineral." Imagine a limestone quarry being melted down and then distilled multiple times until there is just enough to fill your wine glass. The palate has perfect acidity and subtle spicy notes on the entry: hints of lime flower, citrus lemon and a subtle note of mandarin coming through with aeration. It exhibits balletic poise on the finish a sensational Corton-Charlemagne that just may turn out to be just as good as the 2010."(96pts)

4 bottles per lot $12000-16000

1057 Corton Charlemagne - Vintage 2012

Coche-Dury

"The aromatics unfurl with a sense of ease prioritizing finesse over power: beeswax, linden, lemon thyme and fresh pear. The palate is exquisitely balanced with fleeting glimpses of Seville orange and apricot. But there is more about the tension, the effortlessness and that it just rolls out across the finish like a huge Turkish rug. This is the kind of wine that exhausts superlatives."(97+pts)

2 bottles per lot $6000-8000

1058 Corton Charlemagne - Vintage 2013

"An incredibly densely fruited nose also only grudgingly offers up notes of stone, tangerine peel, white flowers, green apple and plenty of spice and soft wood nuances. There is an almost painful intensity to the equally concentrated and overtly powerful broad-shouldered flavors that brim with dry extract that simultaneously coats the palate while buffering the extremely firm acid spine on the incredibly long finish."(97pts BH)

Clos Rougeard

"It is always a treat to taste the brilliant wines from the Foucault brothers at Clos Rougeard, and their newly released 2005s are every bit as brilliant as one would expect from a great estate in a great vintage. The 2005 Clos bottling offers up a beautifully complex nose of red berries, black cherries, woodsmoke, soil, gentle cedary notes, a touch of juniper and a lovely topnote of fresh thyme. On the palate the wine is medium-full, tight and laser-like in its focus, with tangy acids, lovely mid-palate depth, ripe tannins and outstanding length and grip. The Clos bottling usually only sees a very modest percentage of new oak, and for this reason it is one of my favorites at the estate, despite the obviously superior raw materials of the Poyeux and the Bourg bottlings."(94+pts JG)

1065 Saumur Champigny - Vintage 2002

Le Bourg, Clos Rougeard

"The Foucaults' 2002 Saumur-Champigny Le Bourg displays a complex aromatic melange of machine, blackberry, smoked meat, resinous herbs, toasted nuts, sauteed mushrooms, flowers, and sweat. Sleek in texture, enormously rich and expansive in the mouth, yet retaining an invigorating core of acidity, it spreads salt and wet stone mineral traces, bitter black fruits and pungent herbs in the wake of its long, penetrating, juicy finish. I imagine this evolving into something like the glorious 1988 I was served on my recent visit."(92pts)

"...is absolutely stunning. This is a very classically balanced vintage of this great wine and is now approaching its peak, but there is still another layer of complexity lurking here below the surface and a bit more patience will certainly be rewarded! The superb bouquet wafts from the glass in a mix of cherries, a touch of sweet dark berry, woodsmoke, cigar wrapper, dark soil tones, hints of pomegranate and a gentle framing of vanillin oak. On the palate the wine is pure, full-bodied, young and vibrant, with a lovely core, superb soil signature, suave, modest tannins and great length and grip on the impeccably balanced finish."(96+pts JG)

1070 Saumur Champigny - Vintage 2003*Les Poyeux, Clos Rougeard*

"With a salty, smoky, sweaty overlay to its nose of concentrated, dried black fruits, the Clos Rougeard 2003 Saumur-Champigny Les Poyeux certainly reflects its vintage. But the Foucaults suggest that holding off until the end of September to harvest thus, "only" around two weeks earlier than normal was critical to success, and certainly the creamy-textured, nut paste and black fruit preserve-flavored palate exhibits less abrasiveness and considerably more sheer juiciness than many an 03. Lovely inner-mouth florals, high-toned cherry almond, and piquant nuttiness of finish draw attention away from the tannins and inform an impressively long finish. This appears to need 5-7 years in the cellar, but I think it's hard to predict the maturation of wines from this freakish vintage, even those from so talented a crew as this."(90pts)

1080 Barolo - Vintage 2001

Cascina Francia, G. Conterno

Inl

“Roberto Conterno continues this strong series with a Cascina Francia that is breathtaking for its elegance, poise and sheer beauty. Even better from bottle than it was from cask, the 2001 Barolo Cascina Francia displays a stunning nose of roses, spices and crushed raspberries with delicate layers of sweet dark red fruit, licorice and menthol flavors on a medium-bodied frame, closing with great freshness and fine, noble tannins. Several recent bottles suggest that this Barolo has put on some additional weight over the last few months. Despite its initially restrained impression there is plenty of structure and body underneath. It will be a fascinating wine to follow over the next several decades. One of the best Cascina Francias I have ever tasted, and among the very finest wines of this great vintage.”(96pts)

Everything is perfectly in balance here still my guess is that this great wine is showing only a hint of its potential. It is one of the finest Monprivatos in recent memory and a wine no one who is passionate about Barolo should be without.”(95pts)

NOW IN LONDON. STORE YOUR WINE IN

We've got a new hub. Actually, it's the oldest hub there is. London was the first original wine hub, long before New York and Hong Kong took center stage. We are in London every month collecting great wines for our auctions, increasingly so, and we have long had our eye on establishing a presence. That time is now.

The best thing about London is the "In Bond" system. The British were intelligent enough to realize that many products are purchased for investment as well as pleasure. The "In Bond" system allows you to store your wine in the UK tax free, something unfortunately the USA does not offer. Of course, anything you buy that is in London for any given auction will be transported the same, ideal way that it would have been were it already shipped to New York or Hong Kong. It will just arrive six weeks later.

BOND. TAX FREE.

- Bonded Warehouse Transfers are complimentary, and can be arranged at any time!
- Temperature controlled boat shipments depart frequently, with wines generally available at our New York or Hong Kong warehouses approximately 6 weeks after each sale.
- Free temperature controlled boat shipping for wines laying in London to New York for all New York auctions
London to Hong Kong for all Hong Kong auctions
- USD $25 per case for wines laying in London to Hong Kong for all New York auctions.
- USD $25 per case for wines laying in London to New York for all Hong Kong auctions.
- Air rates available upon request.

We can help arrange storage and transport for you at any time.

New York. Hong Kong. Now London. Only Acker.

THE MAYFAIR MAN

We couldn't think of a better collection and collector to welcome in our London initiative than the Mayfair Man! In fact, it was this collection that gave birth to the idea in the first place. I have spent some quality time with this collector at the dinner table for some time now, and it is a great pleasure and honor to welcome him and his first consignment ever from his massively impressive cellar.

This gentleman haunts the posh Mayfair section of London known for Saville Row and its bespoke tailored suits. Mayfair is a name that has become synonymous with luxury in London, and the Mayfair Man's collection is definitely most luxurious. In a similar way, the wine collection from this very high-profile media creative has been carefully assembled in an extensive, bespoke manner over the last two decades, focusing on nothing but the best producers in the world, impeccably sourced by those who represent them in London.

There are over 250 lots of extremely sought-after wines in pristine condition here. Everything was purchased en primeur or on release directly from the wineries or their representatives in London, with the exception of a few older bottles here and there, which were still meticulously sourced from the same merchants and kept in climate-controlled professional bonded storage in London, where they remain available for collection or transfer.

Here is a small taste of this diverse collection of highly regarded wines: There is a brief but tasty introduction of 2015 Bordeaux from Cos d'Estournel, Ducru Beaucaillou, Mouton and Palmer as well as 2000 and 2005 Lafleur. Burgundy takes charge quickly with twenty lots of Rousseau and its Chambertins, including several magnums, fourteen lots of DRC, fifteen lots of Dujac crowned by a parcel of 2010 magnums, eleven lots of Roumier with a flush of Les Amoureuses and six lots of Cathiard with three lots of Romanee St. Vivant. The red carpet of Red Burgundy continues with 1999 Mugneret-Gibourg Echezeaux, 2015 Comte Armand Clos des Epeneaux, 1999 Clos des Lambrays magnums, 2014 Leroy Grand Crus and 2005 Mugnier Musigny to name a few...White Burgundy continues the festivities with fourteen lots of the newest Chardonnay sensation, Meursault's Arnaud Ente, followed by eighteen lots from the master of Meursault and white wine's reigning Champion of the World, Coche-Dury, featuring his 1996, 2000, 2008 and 2009 Corton Charlemagne and a full OCB of 2012 Perrieres!!! We almost satisfy our Montrachet craving with three vintages of Comte Lafon, 2007 Marquis de Laguiche, four vintages of Ramonet and three from Sauzet. Gracefully maturing Rayas, Guigal, Chave and Chapoutier round up the Rhone. Bollinger, Dom Perignon, Krug and Pol Roger add sparkle and flair while sweeties from Huet, Donnhoff, Egon Muller and JJ Prum give us kisses before bed. The Italian collection is truly impressive with magnums of 2011 Asili Riserva and 1990 Falletto Riserva from Giacosa leading the parade of Piedmont that saunters with nine lots of Giuseppe Mascarello, seven lots of Gaja and nine lots of Roagna. Tuscany waves the flag with some Solaia, 1970 Biondi Santi Riserva, 1990 Soldera, 2009 Masseto and 1985 Sassicaia, in original box, of course. WOW!

It doesn't get any better than this. Pristine provenance, perfect storage. Ladies and gentlemen, we present to you: The Mayfair Man!*

1082 Château Cos d'Estournel - Vintage 2015

"...is muted at this very young stage. The nose offers fleeting glimpses at provocative cherry tart, chocolate mint, baked redcurrants, warm cassis and wild blueberry scents plus suggestions of lilacs, cinnamon stick and Indian spices. Medium to full-bodied, the palate absolutely explodes with vibrant red and black fruit bursts and tons of exotic spice accents, framed by super ripe, super firm tannins and a lovely line of freshness, finishing very long."(95+pts)

"This is incredible on the nose, showing coffee cake, blackberry, floral, coffee bean and vanilla bean, with Chinese spices. A very complex, full-bodied red, with seamless, hyperpolished tannins that caress every millimeter of the palate. Lasts for minutes. So beautifully balanced, I'm left speechless. Is it even better than the 1989?"(100pts WS)
 3 bottles per lot $1800-2400

1086 Château Lafleur - Vintage 2000
Pomerol
1x6 bottle owc
"I am not surprised the 2000 Lafleur has garnered the magical three-digit score. From bottle, the wine boasts a dense plum/purple color in addition to a gorgeous nose of kirsch liqueur intermixed with hints of black truffles, raspberries, and minerals. The tannin is present, but seems to creep up only upon intense inspection. Lafleur is enormously endowed, rich, and full-bodied, with a tremendous chewiness and, at the same time, sensuality. Pure, massive, and rich, with exceptional levels of glycerol and fruit nearly concealing high levels of tannin, and a 60+ second finish, this is a remarkable achievement, and ... just maybe the finest Lafleur since the 1982."(100pts)

1096 Château Palmer - Vintage 2015

Margaux

2x6 bottle owc's

"Bottled relatively late in mid-September 2017, the 2015 Palmer is a blend of 44% Merlot and 50% Cabernet Sauvignon with a small portion of Petit Verdot. Medium to deep garnet-purple colored, it offers vibrant red currants, black cherries, wild blueberries, earth and mineral characteristics to begin, with slowly unfurling floral notes of violets and dried roses plus compelling baker's chocolate and fragrant earth layers. Medium to full-bodied, generously fruited and possessing firm yet very, very fine-grained, mind-blowingly ripe tannins, the multifaceted palate features something of a skip in its step in terms of freshness, while it goes beguilingly earthy on the finish with some mineral hints. Very classy, elegant and sophisticated, this vintage is downright regal in its juxtaposition between poise and audaciousness. Think 2005 Palmer with a tick more fruit intensity, perfume and passion."(98pts)

"The 1999 Rousseau Chambertin was so ample, yet still a teenager. There was more purple to its deep fruit. Jennie P. admired its awesome make up and complexity. Despite being so young, it opened up in the glass a bit, resulting in the best bottle of this that I can ever remember having. It was thick, long and spectacular. Gentleman Jim, who was starting to resemble One-Eyed Jack lol, hailed it my favorite at some point. What a flight." (97pts JK)

"A positively kaleidoscopic nose features a wonderful panoply of spice and fruit aromas that offer something new and different with every sniff. The rich, full and utterly classic flavors are a study of the harmonious liaison of refinement and power that culminate in an explosive and driving finish that is even longer than that of the Clos St. Jacques yet it sacrifices nothing in terms of balance, harmony or transparency. A strikingly good wine packed with upside potential. While pronouncements of this sort are always fraught, it's possible that the 2005 Bèze could one day rival the best Rousseau Bèze ever..." The seductively textured, detailed, pure and vibrant broad-shouldered flavors display a subtle minerality before terminating in an explosive, powerful and tautly muscled finish that delivers massive length." "A brilliantly discreet spicy nose consists of sandalwood, essence of black cherry liqueur, violets and a hint of the sauvage. On the palate, the wine is full-bodied, ample and powerful, with a lavishly gourmand attack that evokes the 2009 rendition, but this quickly segues into the mid-palate of an altogether more tautly structural, serious wine, its considerable dimension and concentration underwritten by racy acids. The finish is long and firm. This is a monumental Clos de Bèze built for the long haul." (97pts)

On the palate, the wine is supple, open-knit and expansive, certainly charming, though with some substance at the core too, its acid bright and tannins polished. This may not be the domaine's "cheval de bataille," as the French expression goes, but it is an attractive wine." (91pts)

Silky on entry, then intensely flavored and bracing, delivering urgent, sharply delineated flavors of crushed red fruits, flowers and minerals. Offers outstanding cut and inner-mouth tension, especially in the context of the year. Wonderfully complex and precise on the juicy, endless finish, which leaves the taste buds quivering. "Tasted blind at the Burgfest 2014 tasting, Rousseau's 2014 Gevrey Chambertin 1er Cru Clos Saint Jacques has a very refined and delineated bouquet with prudent use of new oak here that is seamlessly integrated and allows the vibrant red fruit to flourish. The palate is medium-bodied with fine tannin, crisp acidity, very good tension and a welcome dash of spice toward the finish that conveys genuine substance and class. The aftertaste is incredibly long the mouth tingling with residual spiciness long after the wine has departed. This is stunning and, dare I suggest, equal to Rousseau's Chambertin and Clos de Bèze. "The 2005 Clos des Ruchottes is far too young to approach at the moment and like many others, it appears to be closing up. Here, the aromatics are closed, broody and stubborn, only reluctantly offering fleeting glimpses of black cherries, incense and minerals. The palate is very pure but distant at the moment, a prodigy without a tongue. But the signs are all here: a firm backbone, layer upon layer of fruit, but a wine that is more impressive than pleasurable at the moment. Got some in your cellar? Keep it there, you lucky thing. The palate is medium-bodied and a little bit more sinewy than previous years, with good density and vigor but perhaps not with quite the same precision as the Ruchottes on the finish. "The 2015 Pommard 1er Cru Clos des Epeneaux is fabulous, wafting from the glass with notes of wild berries, orange peel, cinnamon, rich soil and espresso. On the palate, the wine is full-bodied, ample and layered, with a lovely line of bright acidity, fine-grained tannins, sappy energy, and terrific depth and tension at the core. This is a great Clos des Epeneaux from Paul Zinetti."(95pts)

1136 Échézeaux - Vintage 2010

Domaine de la Romanée Conti

“Exuberant and ripe spicy purple fruit also exhibits distinct floral and warm earth nuances that go on to suffuse the rich and finely detailed medium-bodied flavors that possess excellent underlying tension before terminating in a focused, intense and gorgeously long finish. This is pure silk and lace but the really impressive aspect of this wine is just how much depth it has.” (94pts BH)

“Here the floral and spice characters are quite prominent on the sandalwood and spice suffused red and dark currant aromas. The suave yet well-detailed medium-bodied flavors brim with dry extract before terminating in a very firm but not hard green tea-inflected finish that delivers excellent length and impressive depth. I very much like the balance and about the only nit is a hint of warmth.” (93pts BH)

“As it usually is relative to the Échézeaux, the restrained nose is distinctly more reserved but classier with a wonderfully intense and layered nose that is more floral still while offering up a variety of spice notes, including anise, clove and soy that can also be found on the pure and sleekly muscled flavors that possess real drive, indeed this does a slow but sure build from the mid-palate on through the explosive finish.” (94pts BH)

1140 Grands Échézeaux - Vintage 2010

Domaine de la Romanée Conti

“This is the second time that I have tasted the 2010 Grands Échézeaux Grand Cru from bottle from Domaine de la Romanée-Conti, and it was a wine that prompted a table of mature Pinot aficionados to remark upon the joys of infanticide. This is just a fantastic wine from the domaine. The nose is heavenly with its exquisite delineation, the fruit maybe a touch darker and earthier than a couple of years ago -- yet still with subtle woodland/sous-bois aromas and a hint of morels. The palate is wonderfully defined, so fresh and precise with filigree tannin. Yet there is great backbone to this wine, a framework that imparts a sense of symmetry that is totally disarming. Of course, readers should afford this magnificent wine a decade in the cellar...unless by complete accident a corkscrew falls into the cork and twists around until the cork pops out. Then you will have to drink it.” (96pts)

While it sounds moderately odd to describe it this way, there is a swagger to the ‘05 Riche and this will clearly be one very long distance runner...” (97pts BH)

"This is also very primary and backward as hints of supremely elegant and seductive exceptionally ripe black fruit aromas replete with soy, hoisin, clove and anise nuances merge into wonderfully fine and refined linear and firmly structured flavors that culminate in a precise, pure and driving finish that goes on and on. This is a really impressive effort that offers terrific potential but fans of this wine should note that it is arguably more masculine than it usually is yet at the same time utterly seamless. On the palate, it's medium to full-bodied, ample and layered, with fine-grained tannins, creditable concentration and juicy acids, concluding with a fragrant finish. 1148 Clos de la Roche - Vintage 2014

"The 2014 Clos de la Roche Grand Cru was showing a little more reduction than the other Grand Crus this year, the shopfront closed. The palate is more expressive with supple tannin, a touch of white pepper on the entry, very cohesive but linear for a Clos de la Roche that keeps a tight control on the finish. "The 2014 Richebourg Grand Cru is more backward than the Romanée-Saint-Vivant at the moment (the opposite to Hudelot-Noëllat the previous day when it was the other way round). Here, there is a very subtle marine/seaweed influence that tinctures that dark berry fruit. The palate is defined by its very fine tannin, the focus and tension interwoven through every atom of this Richebourg; the finish is surfeit with nervosité and tension so that it slips down the throat (guilty!) with so much ease. Wonderful -- one of the wines of the vintage."(96-98pts)

The palate is very well balanced with superb density, almost Richebourg-like in style, here veering towards dark red fruit -- cranberry, wild strawberry and a touch of brown spice towards the supremely focused and long finish. I was momentarily whisked back to my youth, pot-holing in the Lake District, that tang of limestone and moorland in the air. The palate is medium-bodied with fine-grain tannin. "The 2009 Chambolle-Musigny Les Amoureses is sweet, layered and totally beautiful. At the same time, it is pretty clear the wine has already begun to shut down. With time in the glass, some of the typical weightless energy of Amoureses comes through, but despite its considerable appeal, the wine is showing only a fraction of its ultimate potential. "Candor forces me to admit that mere words won't begin to do a wine like this justice so I will simply state that the Mugnier Musigny is a compelling candidate for wine of the vintage honors, which is saying something significant in such a gifted vintage like 2005. An incredibly complex and kaleidoscopic nose features a dazzling array of aromas, particularly violet and rose petal nuanced with anise, clove and cinnamon that merges seamlessly into sweet, pure and ultra refined full-bodied flavors that are harmonious and deep, with a driving tension that forces everything into striking relief yet the palate impression is pure velvet on the immensely long finish. Moreover, it delivers one of my favorite aspects of great burgundy, which is power without weight but in this case, the '05 Musigny is an enormously powerful wine but not especially weighty. In short, this is flat out brilliant and is a wine that you will definitely want in your cellar." (99pts BH)

Apparently Frederic's great-grandfather did the same in the late 1920s before there were destemming machines. It has an ethereal, brilliantly defined bouquet with disarming pure red berry fruit that, for want of a better expression, are just pure pinoté. The palate is defined by exceptionally fine tannins, real tension, slightly chalky toward the second half with laser-like precision. This will be one of the wines of the vintage it is that good." It certainly has the most complexity with nuanced dark cherry, cranberry leaf, raspberry and cold stone scents that initially seem a little austere but open nicely with aeration. The palate is medium-bodied with very fine tannins. The oak is a little more conspicuous at this moment, although that will be subsumed with time. 1191 Romanée St. Vivant - Vintage 2015

S. Cathiard

1x3 bottle owc

"As usual, there are three barrels of Cathiard's 2015 Romanée-Saint-Vivant Grand Cru, though whereas historically it was 100% new oak, there are two new and a single one-year-old barrel maturing this wine. It finished its malolactic in June. It has a very composed and pure bouquet that gains in volume with time, with aeration bunches of wilted violet. The palate is medium-bodied with silky tannin, great structure and freshness here, the judicious use of new oak allowing the terroir to show through. It feels correct and strict on the finish, no bravura climax, rather finishing in more understated fashion and keeping you hooked."(96-98pts)

1192 Romanée St. Vivant - Vintage 2016

S. Cathiard

"There is a brooding intensity here, not unlike a Richebourg, more backward than recent vintages that I have tasted, yet after a couple of minutes you are overcome by intoxicating floral aromas that envelop the senses. The palate is medium-bodied with saturated black cherries, cassis, minerals and orange pith, the backbone of the Malconsorts with a very deep, quite grippy finish."(95-97pts)

1193 Vosne Romanée - Vintage 2010

Aux Malconsorts, S. Cathiard

"A restrained application of wood is unobtrusive and does not impede the expressiveness of the gorgeously spiced black cherry and cassis infused nose. The rich, powerful and robust large-scaled flavors possess excellent mid-palate density and plenty of extract that imparts a suave mouth feel yet the overall impression is a wine of focus, exquisite balance and persistence."(94pts BH)

1194 Vosne Romanée - Vintage 2015

En Orveaux, S. Cathiard

1x6 bottle ocb

"The 2015 Vosne-Romanée 1er Cru En Orveau was the first of Sebastien Cathiard's cuvées to finish its malolactic. The nose is tightly wound with subtle oyster shell and estuarine scents infusing the dark berry fruit, only reluctantly opening (unlike the more expressive and open Aux Reignots). The palate is sorbet fresh on the entry, but linear and correct, perhaps the most conservative and "classic" of Cathiard's 2015s and surely with a propensity to age over many years. One of the most enigmatic of the domaine's 2015, undeniably it is full of class."(93-95pts)

1215 Corton Charlemagne - Vintage 2008

Coche-Dury

"The utterly profound 2008 Corton-Charlemagne Grand Cru is one of Jean-François Coche's great achievements and though today its quality is obvious, it's interesting that Jean-François and his son Raphaël recall 2008 in its infancy as "rude, closed, austere and cold." The wine wafts from the glass with notes of green orchard fruit, white flowers, oatmeal, vanilla pod, iodine and a subtle framing of new oak. On the palate, it's full-bodied, layered and multidimensional, its bright line of structuring acidity running through an ample but tense core of satiny texture and extract. The finish is bright, chalky and interminable. For a wine that retains all the tension and cut of a cool vintage, this Corton-Charlemagne's amplitude and power are striking. "Classic in the best sense" is Coche's understated judgment; less temperate commentators might call it perfection."(100pts)

This vineyard contributes an element of refinement and class to Coche's hedonistic, powerful, and intense style. The 1996 is breathtaking because tasting it is a levitating experience. Its beguiling, almost spiritual bouquet is composed of precisely defined minerals. The palate is greeted by explosive, powerful, awesomely elegant, intense, mouth-coatingly sweet and yet bone dry stones, gravel, crisp pears, and toasty oak. "The strikingly complex, cool and reserved nose of mostly citrus, stone, floral and white orchard fruit aromas still displays plenty of wood that has not yet been integrated but the density is certainly here to allow that to happen even though it may require 3 to 5 years to do so. In the context of the 2011 vintage this is a superbly well-concentrated wine as the imposingly scaled flavors are a breathtaking combination of size, weight, tension and borderline painful intensity. Despite all of the volume, there is absolutely no heaviness, indeed the acid support is such that this remains impeccably well-balanced on the hugely long and palate staining finish."(97pts BH)

"...is exquisite, wafting from the glass with a youthful bouquet of lime, lemon pith, toasted nuts, pastry cream and fresh mint. On the palate, the wine combines the amplitude and texture of the Bâtard with the incisiveness and energy of the Chevalier; its glossy, multidimensional attack followed by a deep, limpid mid-palate and a long, penetrating finish."(96pts)

"A background note of pain grillé frames a notably ripe and still attractively fresh nose that displays notes of white orchard fruit that is cut with floral and discreet oyster shell nuances. Blanchots, Raveneau

6bsl, 5scl, 4crc

"Raveneau's 2001 Chablis Grand Cru Blanchot is marked by a bit of botrytis influence this year, which lends this normally rather generous site a decidedly gourmand quality. The wine bursts from the glass with an exotic bouquet of preserved lemon, honey, tangerine oil and peach, the prelude to a textural, full-bodied and concentrated palate impression that retains unerring precision despite its somewhat atypically precocious format. This is at its peak, and now is a very good time to start pulling corks."(93pts)

1254 Chablis - Vintage 2007

Blanchots, Raveneau

1crc, 1x12 bottle ocb

"At age ten, the 2007 Chablis Grand Cru Blanchot is still an adolescent, and a few more years of cellaring are recommended, but its quality is readily apparent. The wine unfurls in the glass with notes of lemon oil, fresh pastry, honeycomb, oystershell and dried white flowers. On the palate, it's full-bodied, layered and textural, with chewy old-vine extract, succulent acids and a deep, youthfully vibrant core. This represents an enticingly gourmand expression of 2007 Chablis and ranks as one of the vintage's highlights. I'd start pulling corks in earnest from 2020."(95pts)

Les Clos, Raveneau

"The 2014 Chablis Grand Cru les Clos has a much more expressive bouquet than the 2015, with beautiful orange blossom and smoky scents decorating the nose. The palate is very well balanced and so saline in the mouth that you almost want to reach for your bucket and spade. This Les Clos is so seductive and so harmonious, seeming to bloom and deliver fabulous intensity on the finish. Whereas Valmur is the pick in 2015, the Les Clos might be the pick in 2014, thanks to its sense of completeness. But as I mentioned in my remarks from barrel last year, patience will be paramount for those seeking to witness this Chablis at its peak."(97pts)

However, with the exception of Domaine Leroy, you cannot find a Richebourg or Musigny with the richness and complexity possessed by this awesome wine. The saturated dark purple color is followed by a wine that is surprisingly lighter in the mouth than its great flavor intensity and rich extraction would suggest. It is a winemaking tour de force in that Guigal has been able to cram phenomenal levels of fruit, complexity, and richness into this velvety-textured wine without causing it to taste heavy." (99pts)

"The 1996 was a great way to start off the evening, delivering an outstanding experience from the word go. Its nose had picture perfect balance between its sweetness, fruit and structural components. Big Boy called it, Krug-like with its green apples. Golden aromas showered over its minerally, slaty, racy and wound personality. BB kept harping on its slaty qualities, also appreciating its mid-palate depth. It did have that, flashing its fruit in the mouth like an Ali jab. There was great toast to this complex bubbly, but BB felt it was missing the pitch and citricity of 6-star, though I countered that it was still a bit young for 6-star status, and that many wines need to blossom into that category. However, a couple of other bubbles would soon remind us that 6-star status is something that can come across even at a young age."(95+pts JK)

"Smoky, stony intensity on the nose anticipates the sense of pithy, palpably mineral-infused concentration exhibited inner-mouth. Lime and crabapple offer welcome bright, tart juiciness while staining the palate with the piquancy of their seeds – an impression reinforced by a bittersweet note of chewy almond skin. In an effort not to be outdone in vibrancy by its impressive Grosses Gewächs siblings – in particular, the Abtserde – this wine, too, shakes up the mouth as it deposits a nearly ineradicable array of smoky, stony, oily, alkaline and other, hard-to-name mineral traces."(96pts VM)

What I would give today to be able to buy more at the same tariff! The 1990 Barolo Riserva Falsetto is one of Bruno Giacosa's most towering wines. Period. Rich, layered and opulent, this mineral-driven, powerful Barolo covers every inch of the palate with masses of dark fruit, smoke, soy, plums, menthol, dried roses, pine and a host of other balsamic overtones. This vivid, kaleidoscopic Barolo is a reference-point wine readers won't want to miss. As always, the Riserva Falsetto is virile and authoritative in tone. Simply put, it its profound. "A banner wine for Gaja, the 2010 Sori San Lorenzo brings the infinite and ethereal aromas associated with Nebbiolo into startling focus and clarity. Again, like the Sori Tildin, the structure and tannic firmness of the wine will carry the wine forward over the years and decades ahead. It demands much more time until it fully blossoms. I walked through the San Lorenzo vineyard with Gaia Gaja and she showed me some of their recent activity. Every second row is planted with barley that acts as a natural rototiller given its aggressive root system. Borrowing other "New World" ideas, they've started compost piles with Californian red worms and are using (with less success, I'm told) wooden tree boxes to repopulate the birds. All of this must seem very odd to the neighbors. Anticipated maturity: 2018-2040."(98pts)

"The Pajè vineyard is among the most calcareous in terms of soil composition within the entire Barbaresco appellation. The vines are 50 years old, and those six years of barrel and bottle aging are absolutely necessary. This plot is a little under two hectares in size, and this site has been in family hands since 1953. In fact, Roagna is releasing all its expressions from 2013 at the same time. Thanks in part to the relative youth of the vines (young I suppose only by Roagna standards), the 2013 Barbaresco Pajè's aromas are large in scale and generally more fleshed out. The tannins are also a bit more dry or astringent. The wine shows deep contrasts between the sweet nature of the bouquet and the very sharp nature of the mouthfeel."(94pts)

At the same time, I have often mis-identified it in blind tastings as the 1986 Mouton-Rothschild. In this tasting, the wine was phenomenal. The color remains an opaque purple. The bouquet is beginning to develop secondary aromas of cedar and truffles to go along with its intense cassis, black-raspberry, blackberry, tarry, toasty personality. Exceptionally dense, concentrated, and full-bodied, this wine possesses layers of concentrated fruit that are beautifully balanced by the wine's sweet tannin and well-integrated acidity. There is a lot of great wines in this sale, but it seems like we need some more Bordeaux. Voila! Here to help is a regular European consignor and longtime collector with 1995 Cheval Blanc, 1990 Grand Puy Lacoste, 1982 Haut Brion, 1982 Lafite double magnum, 1961 Latour, 1986 Leoville Las Cases double magnum, 1996 Margaux, 1982 Mouton and a sixteen vintage vertical of Yquem going back to 1947. “Port-like, with an unctuous texture, and a dark garnet color with considerable amber at the edge, the 1961 Latour possesses a viscosity and thickness. One of the three bottles served at the Château’s tasting revealed a surprisingly aggressive, minty, herbaceous nose, but the other two bottles were liquid perfection, exhibiting fragrant, cedary, truffle, leather, mineral, and sweet, jammy aromatics, full-bodied, voluptuous textures, exquisite purity and concentration, and a layered, highly-nuanced finish that represents the essence of compellingly great wine. The 1961 has been fully mature for over 15 years, but it seems to get richer, holding onto its succulence and fat, and developing more aromatic nuances without losing any sweetness or concentration. Moreover, it has a level of concentration that represents the essence of the Mouton terroir as well as the high percentage of Cabernet Sauvignon it contains. Cassis, cedar, spice box, minerals, and vanillin are all present, but this opaque black/purple Pauillac has yet to reveal secondary nuances given its youthfulness. It exhibits huge tannin, unreal levels of glycerin and concentration, and spectacular sweetness and opulence. Nevertheless, it demands another decade of cellaring, and should age effortlessly for another seven or eight decades. With full-bodied, meaty, powerful, dry flavors as well as a huge finish, this high class wine should be at its finest between 2012-2040+. During its sojourn in barrel, it reminded me of a hypothetical blend of the 1982 and 1986 Moutons, but since bottling, it appears different, and even more tannic than those two vintages. "In a recent blind tasting, this magnum still revealed the wine's marvelous fruit and precociousness. Although it does not possess the power and richness of a great vintage, it is an outstanding Pétrus. It offers a surprisingly intense, spicy, sweet, mocha, and black-cherry-scented nose, medium to full body, admirable fruit and purity, and a long, lush, super-soft finish displaying a trace of herbs and tea."(90pts)

"...is a stunning wine, soaring from the glass in a vibrant mélange of cherries, blood orange, nutmeg, meaty tones, cloves, a superb base of salty soil nuances, autumn leaves and a nice touch of savory brown spices in the upper register. On the palate the wine is deep, full-bodied, complex and tangy, with a great core of sappy red fruit, exceptional focus and grip and a bit of old-fashioned tannin still perking up the very, very long, very complex and classy finish." 1377 Penfolds Grange - Vintage 1980

"A fabulous Grange, this was a light harvest, and the blend ended up being 96% Shiraz and 4% Cabernet Sauvignon. The wine still seems very youthful, made in a very voluptuous, blockbuster Grange style. The wine has a dense ruby/purple color with no amber. A nose of melted asphalt, pepper, Crème de cassis, and blackberries changes little in the glass, but with airing, some sweeter plum, prune, and chocolate emerge in a very full-bodied, powerful, seamlessly constructed wine with perfect levels of glycerin and extract." 1378 Penfolds Grange - Vintage 1981

1bn, 3lbsl

"Sweet notes of creme de cassis, cedarwood, charcoal, and barbecue spices are followed by a full-bodied, opulent wine displaying heady amounts of alcohol, glycerin, and density in its full-bodied, skyscraper-like texture. I was drinking this wine with great pleasure in the mid-nineties, yet here it is nearly 15 years later, and the wine does not appear to have budged much from its evolutionary state. This is a testament to how remarkably well these wines hold up, and age at such a glacial pace." (97pts)

1379 Penfolds Grange - Vintage 1998

1x6 bottle ovc

"The inky/purple color is followed by an extraordinarily intense nose of Crème de cassis intermixed with blueberry and floral notes. As the wine sits in the glass, aromas of meat, plums, and cola also emerge. It is a seamless effort with sweet tannin, well-integrated acidity, sensational extract, and layer upon layer of blackberry and cassis fruit that stain the palate and fill the mouth. Its harmony, freshness, and remarkable length (the finish lasts nearly a minute) suggest an all-time classic." (99pts)

BOTTLED 1982

Grange Hermitage is generally recognised as Australia's finest red wine and has received international acclaim. This great wine developed by Max Schubert, commencing with the 1952 vintage, is made from premium Hermitage grapes grown at selected vineyards in South Australia and matured in small oak casks prior to bottling. During an extensive tour of the Bordeaux region of France in 1953, Max Schubert studied numerous wine-making practices that have become an integral part of Penfolds wine-making technique. He observed the practice of maturing wine in new oak casks, a previously untried in Australia. The development of Grange Hermitage represented the beginning of a new era in Australia's red wine-making tradition.

This knowledge combined with Max Schubert's foresight, skill and dedication has resulted in Grange Hermitage, the definitive Australian dry red table wine, acknowledged to be amongst the world's classic wine styles. It is recommended that Grange Hermitage should always be decanted before serving.

MATURE BORDEAUX AND MORE FROM A MIDWEST COLLECTOR

This collection comes to us from the estate of a Midwest collector who was passionate about wine and who kept a meticulous cellar. All the wine was purchased directly upon release with the intention to drink. He no doubt would be pleased the wines are being sold at auction and will find homes with other true oenophiles. Highlights include full cases of 1989 Angelus, 1975 Cheval Blanc, 1989 Ducru, 1989 Conseillante, 1989 Latour, 1983 Mouton and 1982 Palmer as well as parcels of 1989 La Fleur de Gay, 1982 La Lagune and 1982 Montrose. Cali rounds things out with 1985 Dominus, Heitz Martha's magnums and an imperial of 1978 Robert Mondavi Reserve.

1380 Château Angelus - Vintage 1989

St. Emilion

2bn, 3ts, 1x12 bottle owc

"Any Bordeaux lover would be thrilled to have either of the 1989 or 1990 in his or her cellar. Both wines reveal an opaque purple color, with the 1990 slightly more inky. Both wines are also exceptionally endowed, backward, rich, full-bodied, and crammed with fruit. The 1989 possesses a huge finish, with more noticeable tannin than in the 1990. Picking a favorite between these two fabulous examples of their respective vintages is - for me - presently impossible."(96pts)

There is great fruit on the palate, layers of richness, medium to full body, and fabulous harmony and precision. "It was time to rock with the 80s, beginning with the 1985. The 85 had a charming nose with nice musk and a sweet, caramel glaze. Chocolate, honey and graham cracker emerged as sexy secondary aromas, all able to speak on a platform of cassis underneath. "In all fairness, the last bottle in the vertical tasting I had of Pétrus came from a pristinely stored magnum that I owned, so perhaps a regular bottle of this wine might be fading a bit. Nevertheless, this has always been the best wine of the vintage and a gorgeous example of Pétrus. The wine shows considerable amber to its garnet color and has a sweet nose of coffee beans intermixed with cedar, herbs, black cherries, roasted nuts. The wine is sweet, elegant, medium to full-bodied, and totally savory and seamless. It is a gorgeous wine and one of the great sleeper vintages for Pétrus."(99pts)

"Tasted almost exactly a year after my previous encounter, this 1947 Château d'Yquem replicated the performance back then. It revealed that burnished amber color, then the glorious, intense and rich bouquet with dried honey, quince and mandarin, that hint of red fruit in the background tracing the birth year back to this hot postwar summer. The palate unctuous, almost heavy in the mouth, the acidity retaining sufficient freshness and poise with a powerful, quite spicy finish that feels extraordinarily long in the mouth. To repeat my earlier sentiment, whilst the 1947 is not up there with the greatest Yquem such as the 1929, 1945 or 2001, it occupies the tier below...and that's good enough for me. Tasted October 2016."(97pts)

“The wine was incredibly kinky and exotic in the nose; Wendy immediately noted Pina Colada, and Ray found it more coconuts and cream, splitting a hair into two. It definitely had this amazing suntan lotion quality, and Rob was admiring how pure and laser-like the wine was. Wendy noted some licorice, and Ray was being his usual self, calling it more anise. There was no doubting its exotic aromas that were bordering on tropical in a candle wax and Mounds (chocolate and coconut) way. Rob noted big banana 94 Colgin-ish, and while I saw what he was saying, the Cheval had more earth, barn and bread than the usual 1994 Colgin, although perhaps in forty years that Colgin will be the same! The flavors were chocolaty, bready, earthy and slaty, and Mike noted marzipan and took my Mounds and Almond Joyed me back. Rob got slightly critical and found it dessert wine-like, a la Chambers Tokay. The wine was kinky, exotic and outstanding.”(95pts JK)

1415 Château L’Evangile - Vintage 1975

Pomerol

1bn, 2ts, 8bsl, 2gsl, outstanding color and condition

“This wine displayed a slight hint of amber, as well as a huge nose of fruitcake, sweet cedar, and gobs of black fruits intermixed with scents of truffles Powerful and forceful, with rich, jammy fruit buttressed by high tannin, this full-bodied, superbly extracted wine is soft enough to be approachable, but this bottle remains 5-7 years away from full maturity.”(96pts)

1416 Château La Mission Haut Brion - Vintage 1950

Graves

2ts, 2hbsl, 2stl, 1vlscl, outstanding color and condition

“As I have written in the past, it was an extraordinary vintage in Pomerol. While the other appellations were less consistent, there is mounting evidence that a number of great wines were produced in 1950. I have had the 1950 La Mission before and thought highly of it. From a magnum, I adored its huge nose of freshly brewed coffee, hickory wood, cedar, and chocolate. Super-rich and dense, with little evidence of its age (the color is still an opaque dark garnet color), this full-bodied, concentrated wine is at its apogee.”(95pts)

 "A completely wonderful wine that almost reduced a good friend of mine to tears. It is full of life and vigor. Similarities to Krug '66 are many. The nose is elusive and appetizing with lots of fruit aromas from apricot and peach to mango. Weak tones of chocolate, nuts, oak, and coffee are there too, of course. In the mouth one can perceive the finest marmalade and small uplifting bubbles. Majestic aftertaste." (96pts RJ)

 "Its nose oozed butterscotch city. There were some secondary gingerbread cake aromas, along with toast, melted butter and caramel. The palate was razor sharp at first, fresh and zippy though mellowing over time, but a lot of time, like an hour. Bad Boy hailed it as a perfect bottle, and its vim and vigor seconded that emotion. "The parade of Taittingers continued with a glorious 1966 Taittinger Comtes de Champagne that Ray or Bruce brought over to me. I had had this wine last New Year s Eve, and it, too, was outstanding but much more mature than this bottle. This bottle was a wow wine, incredibly fresh and long and full of that golden Blanc de Blancs complexity and that signature butterscotch quality I find in the great Taittingers. It was another superb bubbly, and more than an adequate palate cleanser."(97pts JK)

"Rob noted that it was so Burgundian, while Wendy admired its Asian spices. Tobacco, leather, mesquite and espresso bean were all very expressive, and despite these aged aromas dominating, there was still a healthy dose of cassis fruit underneath it. Wendy picked up on green tea and saffron. There was still amazing color to this gravelly magnum. Its palate was pretty, less complex than its aromatics with nice flavors of Worcestershire, citrus and mocha. Paul found smoked sausage, and Teona even got into the act with antique wood. It got tangier, prompting Rob to say drink em up. This is totally integrated and ready to go. Tasty, balanced and smooth, there were nice, cedary flavors and still light vim on the finish."(95pts JK) was super exotic like a coconut cake mixed with dried was tough to defer the pleasure. This was a wine that "An outstanding Duhart, certainly one of the best produced at this estate since the 1996, 1986, and 1982, this blend of 80.5% Cabernet Sauvignon and 19.5% Merlot reveals a deep ruby/purple color as well as notes of lead pencil intermixed with wet stones, black currants, and a certain leafiness. "Displaying a dense purple color as well as low acidity, this blackberry and cassis-flavored 1999 possesses a fat, juicy mid-section, and outstanding purity, ripeness, and glycerin in the long finish, which oozes over the palate with no bumps. The tannin is well-concealed by the wealth of chewy fruit. A blend of 72% Cabernet Sauvignon, 15% Merlot, 10% Cabernet Franc, and 3% Petit Verdot, approximately 75% of the production made it into the final wine."(90pts)

1491 Château Margaux - Vintage 1999
Margaux
1x12 bottle owc
"...has been the standout First Growth since I first tasted the wine from barrel. Now reaching its plateau of maturity, it has an understated nose at first, armed with impressive mineralité with a gorgeous graphite seam. The definition and precision here is top class. The palate is medium-bodied and smooth in texture, very harmonious and assured, surprisingly with some new oak still to be fully assimilated into the wine. The signature Margaux traits of crushed black cherries and violets comes through towards the finish, suggestions of raspberry reserve and desiccated orange peel enhancing the long finish. Perhaps I might temper my initial enthusiasm for the 1999 Château Margaux...but only slightly."(95pts)

1492 Château Mouton Rothschild - Vintage 1999
Pauillac
1x12 bottle owc
"Exhibiting an admirable mid-palate, stuffing, and fatness, low acidity, and ripe, sweet tannin, this will be one of the more forward, seductive Moutons produced over the last two decades. As the wine sat in the glass, notes of new saddle leather, coconut, and smoke emerged. This should be an uncommonly precocious, delicious Mouton-Rothschild upon release, yet it will last for two decades."(93pts)

1493 Château Palmer - Vintage 1999

1496 Château Pichon Baron - Vintage 1996
Pauillac
 1x12 bottle owc
 "...has a deep garnet core with some bricking on the rim. The nose is fragrant and generous with more red fruit than black, cedar and tobacco, fine definition, perhaps a little rustic in keeping with the winemaking at the time, but certainly giving lots of pleasure. The palate is medium-bodied with supple tannin -- a cohesive Pauillac with plenty of depth and fine balance. The acidity lends this plenty of freshness and it does not shortchange you with plenty of tarry, cedary fruit. You come away with the impression that this Pichon Baron is going to continue to improve although I would not burn anyone at the stake for opening it now. If you cannot afford the First Growth then this (and Pichon Lalande) would be where I would come." (94pts)

1497 Pavillon Rouge du Château Margaux - Vintage 2000
Margaux
 1x12 bottle owc
 "Glorious aromas of freshly picked raspberries, with tiny hints of cream and minerals. Full-bodied, with superfine tannins and a long, long finish of berries and cherries. Super second wine from Margaux. Best Pavillon Rouge I have ever tasted. Best after 2010." (94pts WS)
 12 bottles per lot $1800-2400

1498 Château Lafite Rothschild - Vintage 2000
Pauillac
 1x12 bottle owc
 "...has an opaque ruby/purple color, followed by an extraordinary aromatic expression of liquid minerals/stones interwoven with the tell-tale graphite notes, mulberry, black currants, caramel, and tobacco. In the mouth, it is remarkably light on its feet, but somehow seems to pack intense flavors into layer upon layer of fruit and richness that cascade over the palate. A compelling wine, with extraordinary precision, great intensity, and a seamlessness..." (100pts)

1499 Côte Rôtie - Vintage 2010
La Landonne, E. Guigal
 1x6 bottle owc
 "...is a powerhouse Côte Rôtie that offers up deep, masculine notes of crushed rocks, smoked meats, game, espresso and assorted dark cassis and currant-like fruit. Full-bodied, tight, structured and backward, with fabulous mid-palate density and length, it needs to be forgotten in the cellar for a decade, but will have 40-50 years of overall longevity." 1501 Côte Rôtie - Vintage 2010
La Mouline, E. Guigal

1502 Côte Rôtie - Vintage 2010

Syrah, or wine for that matter, doesn't get any better." (100pts)

"This massive wine may be the biggest, largest-scaled Lafite I have ever tasted. It will require many years to come around...the wine exhibits a thick-looking, ruby/purple color, and a knock-out nose of lead pencil, minerals, flowers, and black currant scents. Extremely powerful and full-bodied, with remarkable complexity for such a young wine, this huge Lafite is oozing with extract and richness, yet has managed to preserve its quintessentially elegant personality. This wine is even richer than it was prior to bottling. It should unquestionably last for 40-50 years."(100pts)
