BONNES MARES VIELLES VIGNES

Bonnes Mares from Domaine Roumier comes from two different soil types: Terres Rouges and Terres Blanches. These two types are vinified separately and then blended at a later date. In the 1988 vintage, there were two different bottlings of the Bonnes Mares. The 'normal' blend and a Vieilles Vignes bottling which was 100% from the Terres Blanches parcel.

DOMAINE ARMAND ROUSSEAU

Charles Rousseau was not only one of the most engaging men you will ever find in Burgundy, he was also a fantastic wine-maker. His total respect for the raw material, plus a real gift for coaxing out superb scent and lovely flavour, have left us with decades of stunning Rousseau wines. Now, Eric Rousseau follows in these illustrious footsteps. When you taste in the Rousseau cellar, each and every characteristic of all the Premiers and Grands Crus sings out, even in cask. Without a doubt, some of my most lasting Burgundian memories centre on this Domaine. Serena Sutcliffe, MW

Domaine Armand Rousseau

Côte de Nuits, 1er Cru

This was matured in 70% new barrels. Immediately you see the backbone of the wine, with glorious flavours of morello cherries and a marvellous, ripe glycerol texture. All this and perfect structure too - one's cup, or glass, runneth over.

In 2014, that lovely Rousseau scent and style. On the palate, the silkiness has a caressing texture and the persistence is all that you would expect from both the year and the domain. Clos de Bèze is always harvested before Chambertin, as it is a mite warmer, and the signature is black fruits, with cassis to the fore here. This has a touch of coffee too - at an early stage, one sees the barrel more in Bèze than in Chambertin or Clos St. Jacques. Very attractive, with a 'melting' quality to it. Serena Sutcliffe, MW

PRODUCE OF FRANCE

DOMAINE DE LA ROMANEE-CONTI

The Domaine, as it is known, is iconic. Much more important, it also produces the most extraordinary wines in Burgundy - and it has been doing so for a long time. The generations responsible for the Domaine change, but the terroir remains. And these are very special vineyard parcels indeed, married to meticulous care and philosophy leading to low yields and healthy, ripe grapes, at whatever cost. From the 1990s, vineyard policy has been organic, with co-owner Aubert de Villaine monitoring everything with his usual attention to detail. Domaine de la Romanée-Conti wines evolve and develop dimensions in a way that resembles a mosaic - points of bouquet and flavour making up a harmonious whole that becomes more beautiful as it unfolds in the glass. Yes, these are hedonistic wines and yes, they are not like any other. The trick is in capturing what these remarkable plots of vines can give and letting them express themselves through minimum intervention and enlightened nurturing. Serena Sutcliffe, MW

THE ENTRANCE TO DOMAINE DE LA ROMANEE-CONTI

VOSNE ROMANÉE, CUVÉE DUVAULT-BLOCHET 1999

Domaine de la Romanée-Conti

Côte de Nuits, 1er CruBin-soiled labels

Made from young vines, but with all the skill and care of the DRC crew, this is a marvellous, pleasure-giving wine. In 2014, just so crunchy, bouncy and complex. Spicy and classy, this really has a title to its name and is of Grand Cru quality. Pure silk and with a cassis berries finish. There is a touch of La Tâche to this.

Serena Sutcliffe, MW

5158 4 bts (sc)

per lot: $4,000-6,000

VINEYARD: 4.67 ha (11.30 acres)

AVERAGE PRODUCTION: 1,340 cases

AVERAGE AGE OF VINES: 31 years

The Domaine owns one-seventh of this vineyard. The rock structure that underpins Échézeaux is immensely complicated, with lower Bathonian and upper Bajocian limestones in constant interplay. The vineyard is situated very high for a Grand Cru, but the soil has good pebbles and is deep enough to produce outstanding wines.

15.5 hl/hectare. The last Grand Cru at DRC to be harvested this year and the lowest yield. In 2016, a most attractive brambly/blackberry nose, with a touch of Échézeaux earth underneath. A mouthful of blackberries, with a smoky blueberries aftertaste. It will be very difficult to resist when quite young, but perhaps you should try as it has a delicious generosity to it which can go the distance. Serena Sutcliffe, MW

Yield: 22 hl/ha. Harvest: 29th and 30th September. This was the last vineyard to be harvested this year. In 2015, that violets and cassis nose that means Côte de Nuits. Warm blackberries too. A wonderful briary taste, with crushed fruit. So juicy and brambly on the finish, with smoke in the empty glass.

On my birthday in 2017. When you put your nose in the glass, you realise that you do not see this very often - a strawberry/earthy, heathery/forestry attack and exuberance. On the palate, wild herbs and totally 'inebriating' in its sweet intensity. Gamey and fresh, all succulent wild cherries. It does have another dimension, even in the context of beautiful 1985s. A pure Guerlain scent on the nose. Enormous sweetness and luscious liquorice. Decadent, gamey taste. Sweet, candied violets. Astounding. At a blind tasting, I first thought it was Grands Échézeaux and then changed to Richebourg as it was "much too good for Grands Échézeaux"! I also thought it was a 1978 as it was so gamey. AVERAGE AGE OF VINES: 33 years

The Domaine owns just over one-half of this vineyard which it purchased from the Marey-Monge family in 1988, having previously managed the vineyard for the family since 1966. The vineyard holdings were replanted over a number of years and the wines have greater concentration, less sharp tannins and more fat. They continue to set the highest standard for the appellation. ROMANÉE ST. VIVANT 2005

Côte de Nuits, Grand Cru

1 slightly scuffed label

A beautiful scented bouquet. I have never seen such breed on a RSV. Chocolate and blackberries on the palate. Tremendous, vibrant fruit with excellent minerally tannins. At 4 years old, from magnum, it has a very dark colour and a fabulous clean, rich, undergrowth nose. Vanilla, candied violets, tree bark and strawberries. Extreme health. A real tannic structure on the palate. Very powerful, dense and forceful. Massive in its fruit and tannin, with the acidity perfectly integrated. A giant of a vintage and an obvious long-term keeper. Has that "sweet" finish of marvellous, not "over-the-top", ripeness. Cassis at the end. Later, serene and complex and a divine, multi-dimensional aftertaste. Serena Sutcliffe, MW

At 32 years old, this has the most incredible gamey, scented bouquet of huge, heathery purity. All pervasive, enveloping all who were tasting. On the palate, an almost honied, cherryish, damp earth taste, with immense persistence and length - it lingered for minutes. Alarmingly beautiful in that unique DRC way. There were notes of charcoal and bright, red fruit but, in the end, it was just La Tâche at its most seductive and alluring. Serena Sutcliffe, MW

VINEYARD: 1.80 ha (4.32 acres)
AVERAGE PRODUCTION: 450 cases
AVERAGE AGE OF VINES: 52 years

In 1760, the Prince de Conti bought the lower part of La Romanée, and a myth was born. The de Villaine and Leroy families acquired Romanée-Conti in 1850 and they still own and run the Domaine jointly. It is interesting that in 1850 Romanée-Conti was estate bottled - then this ceased for a period and restarted in 1911. Thus, the essence of Romanée-Conti was captured but, in my view, never tamed! It is a wild, extraordinary wine, unpredictable and constantly mutating as it matures, but always true to its indubitably great self.

The care lavished on Romanée-Conti is shown to all the wines of the Domaine, but the breed and refinement in the taste of Romanée-Conti would point to an indefinable "something extra" in this 1.80 ha plot. Tradition is respected (Romanée-Conti is always vinified in wooden vat number 17 which dates from 1862), but not blindly revered for its own sake. Short pruning, organic fertilizer, low yields, high average age of vines, late picking, selection of grapes, long fermentation with natural yeasts, 70-100% vin de presse added to give quality tannins and good acidity, new Tronçais oak barrels from wood the Domaine dries itself, almost no racking (and then only by gravity), fining with 3-4 egg whites per cask only in some years according to the character of the vintage, no filtration - all this is taken for granted. But Romanée-Conti is more than the total of a mass of intricate manoeuvres - it is the pure silk and intoxicating aromas and flavours that appear, as if by magic, from mere marl and limestone. Serena Sutcliffe, MW

Average age of vines, 56 years. 22.65 hl/ha made. In 2018, the nose is firmer and 'tighter' than La Tâche, with the depth of the old vines. Then it opens out and calls you in with a mysterious smokiness. Heathery richness on the palate, so ripe and succulent, with primary raspberry flavours and such pure overall fruit. This is a wine that caresses - a beautiful, elegant gemstone in Burgundy's crown. As always, power camouflaged by beauty - a volcano waiting to erupt. This will number amongst the greats. AVERAGE PRODUCTION: 250 cases
AVERAGE AGE OF VINES: 61 years

First produced by the Domaine in 1964, but the first vintage to be released was 1965. Partially based on soil analysis by the agronomist Claude Bourguignon, the Domaine has reintroduced ploughing both Le Montrachet and Romanée-Conti with horses. The Domaine believes compacting the soil with heavy tractors can lead to less microbial activity and therefore damage to this unique terroir. This small holding in the famed vineyard produces an average of only 250 cases of this extraordinary powerful and complex wine which is keenly sought after by collectors and creates an atmosphere of excitement whenever it appears at auction. Lalou Bize-Leroy is a force to be reckoned with in Burgundy. Brought up in wine, she developed firm principles and equally firm convictions. For her, reducing yields is a religion and biodynamic viticultural methods the route to quality and longevity. No destemming and long vatting add to the almost essence-like intensity of the wines. Their deep, emphatic style is a reflection of the commitment and personality of Lalou Bize-Leroy. These wines hardly seem to age - they stay suspended in time. Serena Sutcliffe, MW

JOSEPH DROUHIN

LOTS 5249-5321

JOSEPH DROUHIN

Maison Joseph Drouhin, which is now again owned, as well as run by, Robert Drouhin in combination with his extremely capable and technically trained children, is a highly reputed Beaune négociant, offering wines whose trademark is elegance and finesse, in contrast to the current fashion for extraction and deep colour. Drouhin is also an important domaine proprietor - many people forget how much it owns in Chablis. Combining tradition with new developments, Drouhin is always willing to try fresh techniques if they are improvements. Red wines are fermented in open cuves with floating chapeau, using natural yeasts and long, temperature - controlled macerations. The white grapes are pressed slowly, with the last pressings not used, and fermentation takes place in 228-litre casks. The white and red Beaune Clos des Mouches are flagships, but all are to be highly recommended. The Chablis is influenced by oak and is delicious. The négoce business buys in grapes to turn into wine with the same care it gives of its own domaine. The business only sells AC Bourgogne and has never created a vin de marque. Serena Sutcliffe, MW

A weathered stone marker stands in a vineyard. The marker is rectangular with rounded corners and a rough, textured surface. In the center, there is a smooth, rectangular plaque with rounded corners, engraved with text. The background shows rows of green grapevines in a field, with a dirt path visible on the right. In the foreground, there are some green grasses and small yellow flowers.

DOMAINE HENRI BOILLOT

Henri Boillot combines modern techniques with traditional winemaking values to create his highly sought after wines which are available only under a strict allocation basis. Currently, he is making wines under his name from the Jean Boillot Domaine in Volnay and also under his négociant business Maison Henri Boillot in Meursault. Strict control of fermentation temperatures and a dedication to producing wines that are honest examples of their terroir make these wines fascinating. Serena Sutcliffe, MW

BOUCHARD PERE ET FILS

In spring 1995, the late Champagne wizard Joseph Henriot bought Bouchard Père, thereby ending family ownership, although Christophe Bouchard remained as 'directeur général' and has now become a consultant to this historic firm. This is, of course, an amazing domaine and a very important négociant house, and Joseph Henriot committed himself to restoring both to their former glory. Bouchard Père et Fils is the biggest single vineyard landowner in the Côte d'Or, with a range of wonderfully exciting "climats". Joseph Henriot's reputation for fostering quality, so evident during his time as head of Veuve Clicquot, has led to exciting developments, and expansion, acquiring the thirty hectare Ropiteau-Mignon domaine and in 1998 the important Chablis producer William Fèvre. From 2005, all of the winemaking and élevage has taken place at a large, new winery near Savigny lès Beaune and quality has continued upwards. Serena Sutcliffe, MW

DOMAINE DUJAC

Jacques Seysses bought this domaine in 1968 and built it up to be one of the most notable on the Côte de Nuits through a combination of hard work and intelligent winemaking. Harvesting is immensely careful here and there is no destalking, a rarity nowadays. The Grands and Premiers Crus are matured in fûts that have been used only once. The wines are fined with whites of egg and bottled after fifteen months, without filtration. There is great character here in each appellation and each "climat", with both purity and clarity in the wines, plus breed. The Seysses sons, Jeremy and Alec, are in charge now and are having a real impact. Serena Sutcliffe, MW

DOMAINE FOURRIER / JEAN-MARIE FOURRIER

I am totally in love with the wines of Jean-Marie Fourier. The fabulous clarity of flavour and elegance of his wines are real winners, with great expression of 'climat' character. One of the finest Burgundies of my life was the 1969 Clos St. Jacques from this domaine.

BURGUNDY RED

HENRI JAYER

The late, great Henri Jayet died during the 2006 harvest but his influence and principles live on with those in Burgundy who saw how he worked and learnt so much from him. Undoubtedly, he is also revered among wine lovers who have his wines in their cellars. For decades he managed the estates of others as well as his own vineyards. He studied oenology in Dijon and particularly appreciated the chance to taste wines other than from Burgundy, thus enhancing his overall knowledge of wine making. From the beginning, Henri Jayet had great respect for the soil and for the grapes, his raw material, preferring 'sélection massale' to clones, as then he could produce small berries with resistant skins. He loved old vines, if possible with an average of 50 years, and this enabled him to limit production without recourse to green harvesting. An enemy of any form of 'greenness', he always destalked and was an early supporter of sorting tables. He picked very ripe and used natural yeasts. Cold macerations before fermentation and new Tronçais oak barrels were a rule of thumb, always marrying modernity with tradition. We certainly owe much to Henri Jayet, particularly the 'discovery' of Cros Parantoux, which was lying fallow, requiring him to clear it of rocks with a wheelbarrow! To appreciate the great wines of Henri Jayet at their best, remember that they normally have a good deal of sediment, so rest them well after any movement. Serena Sutcliffe, MW

DOMAINE DU COMTE LIGER-BELAIR

The vineyards date back to the time of the Roman occupation - hence the name "La Romanée". Since 1815, this climat has been owned by the Comte Liger-Belair. The annual production of La Romanée is about 3,000 to 4,000 bottles and is the smallest appellation in France, with a surface area of 0.85 hectares. The wines need time to express themselves, and these hugely impressive bottles have great breed and finesse. Serena Sutcliffe, MW

MEO-CAMUZET

This is a domain with excellent vineyards and a stellar reputation. Henri Mayer was long a consultant after spending much of his career leasing vines from the estate. Jean-Nicolas Méo attaches great importance to low yields which accounts for the concentration of his wines. He also uses, as Mayer did, 100% new oak, except for Bourgogne Rouge (50%) and Passe-Tout- Grains (second year oak). There is no filtering and bottling is from each cask. I place this domain at the pinnacle of Burgundy's achievements, making wines that really express their "climats". You will never see better Clos de Vougeot than from Méo-Camuzet. DOMAINE GEORGES MUGNERET GIBOURG

Outstanding vineyard sites, careful practices in the vineyard and extraordinary talent in the cellar are the keys to producing these stellar wines. Created in 1933 by the marriage of Jeanne Gibourg and André Mugneret – Domaine Mugneret-Gibourg was the family domaine into which Dr. Georges Mugneret (1929-1988) was born. Dr. Georges was a successful Opthamologist in Dijon, but also shared the family passion for wine and began buying vineyards and creating his own domaine – Domaine Georges Mugneret. Only in the last few years have Marie-Christine and Marie Andrée, the daughters of Dr. Georges, been able to merge the two domaines and create what today is Domaine Georges Mugneret-Gibourg. Producing 32,000 bottles each year, the domaine consists of 9 wines: Bourgogne Rouge, Vosne Romanée Villages, Nuits St. Georges Villages, Nuits St Georges Chaignots, Nuits St Georges Vignes Rondes, Chambolle Musigny Feusselottes, Echézeaux, Ruchottes Chambertin, and Clos Vougeot. The talent of the Mugneret sisters has been recognized and their wines, all produced in particularly small quantities, have unfortunately become increasingly hard to find. Serena Sutcliffe, MW.

DOMAINE PONSOT

I recently drank at home a bottle of Ponsot's Clos de la Roche Vieilles Vignes 1992 (a vintage not in this sale!) and reflected what absolute joy these wines can bring, especially with bottle age and perhaps with decanting so that they can breathe and exude that magical scented bouquet of real finesse that is a hallmark at this domaine. Laurent Ponsot is an original, with firm views and, now, decades of experience. The vineyards here produce some of the best Pinot Noir clones now used and Laurent waits until full ripeness before picking. Long vatting, some high fermentation temperatures, frequent pigeages, a smattering of new wood and no filtration are the recipe, but it is the character of the climats that sings through, bringing spicy elegance and intriguing sweet, gamey qualities. COMTE GEORGES DE VOGUE

This aristocratic domaine has marvellous vineyards including nearly seventy per cent of Grand Cru Musigny. The '90s have confirmed the domaine's status as part of Burgundy's patrimony. Meticulous attention to detail and rigorous quality control are left in the capable hands of vineyard manager Eric Bourgogne while François Millet's winemaking is spot-on. It all starts with low yields and adaptability to the conditions of the year, although the proportion of new oak has not been higher than thirty or forty per cent since 1990. It ends with the excellent, classy wines we have been seeing over the last years. Serena Sutcliffe, MW

DOMAINE RAVENEAU

LOTS 5619-5669

DOMAINE RAVENEAU

The legendary François Raveneau died in 2000, but his son Jean-Marie had already been making these wines, the most complex in Chablis, since the mid 1980s, and he has since been joined by his elder brother Bernard. Classic Grands and Premier Crus, wood aged in oak feuilletes averaging seven or eight years old, and built for long life in bottle. The brothers practise a near-organic approach in the vineyards, use only hand-harvesting, and avoid cold stabilization. The wines that result are stupendous examples of the genre. Serena Sutcliffe, MW

J.-F. COCHE-DURY

It is difficult to extract much information from the brilliant Jean-François Coche, but few would disagree that he is Burgundy's white wine magician. At the head of his 11.5 hectare domain since 1973, he knows exactly what he is doing, preferring massal selection to clones, pruning short to green-harvesting, wild to selected yeasts and varying doses of new oak depending on the wine and the vintage. There is no filtration - but lots of thought and reflection. The result are wines of such clarity and style, far from obvious, fat Côte de Beaune examples. Instead, you see minerality and perfect balancing acidity which gives the wines great longevity, even at the most modest level. The power and the glory lie in wait for you. Serena Sutcliffe, MW.

DOMAINE LEFLAIVE

This is a great, if not the great, old family Domaine for white Burgundy. It demonstrates what a white wine can be, given the right soil, the right vines and the right combination of tradition and sense of enquiry. It is also the springboard for the whole region's move towards organic grape farming. The Domaine was managed by Anne-Claude Leflaive, until her untimely death in 2015, a worthy successor to the legendary Vincent Leflaive who died in 1993 (and I pay tribute to his skill, integrity, and unmatched joie de vivre). Anne-Claude began the conversion to biodynamics, complete by 1998, and worked with Pierre Morey, her winemaker until 2008, when Eric Rémy took over. The wines are bottled after about eighteen months following an élevage in oak pièces and small stainless steel vats. Let yourself be seduced by their honeyed smoothness - if you have not already succumbed to the heady bouquet. I have been both thrilled and uplifted by countless bottles, in all their aristocratic and multi-dimensional glory. These are wines that have highlights and energy. Serena Sutcliffe, MW

This skillful winemaker formerly made wines for father Marc Colin. Pierre-Yves took on négociant status in 2001 and in 2006 inherited some family vineyards including several in Saint-Aubin and Chassagne-Montrachet. Elevage is from 15 to 18 months in barrel and there is no bâtonnage. Quantities are miniscule, but the quality is undeniable at this new Domaine. Serena Sutcliffe, MW

DEVEVEY - BEAUNE

DOMAINE ROULOT

Jean-Marc's late father Guy Roulot was among the first growers in Meursault to vinify the different lieux-dits separately. For me, these are wines of finesse and breed. Pressing is rapid and vinification is in oak barrels with a proportion of new wood: between one third and one quarter for the Meursaults. Bottling is, on average, after ten to eleven months. The results have silky texture and length on palate, giving real joy to the taster. Serena Sutcliffe, MW

The 2010s here were bottled later than the 2009s, which suits the vintage. This is lovely honied wine, a marvellous start to Roulot's superb range. Serena Sutcliffe, MW		A generous yield this year gave great acidity and flavour, lovely tension and the ability to age beautifully in bottle. Serena Sutcliffe, MW

RENE AND VINCENT DAUVISSAT

René Dauvissat and his son are gifted winemakers. These Chablis are really exemplary, combining fruit and "nerviness" found in this appellation, the kind of flavour which makes you go "mmmm". This is done by: organic cultivation where possible in the vineyards (or lutte raisonnée - using pesticides only when necessary); all-manual harvesting; a short débourbage, or clarifying of the must; slow fermentation at low temperature (achieved by cooling) in vat, where the wine stays until after malolactic fermentation. However, ten per cent of the must is fermented in oak barrels. The wine is aged in oak casks from April to November, then bottled from December to March after refrigeration and light filtration. The wines keep beautifully; they go to Parisian and provincial restaurants, private customers, and all around the world. Since 1950, the property has quadrupled in size, with modern innovations alongside the traditional methods. These are wines of great beauty, perfectly balanced, with just the right amount of oak. Luscious Preuses and Les Clos, elegant Fôret, and Vaillons. The epitome of all that Chablis should be about. I wish the Dauvissats could expand even further, and then there would be more wine for us devotees! Serena Sutcliffe, MW

DAUVISSAT-CAMUS

Vincent Dauvissat, with his two children now working with him, is a master winemaker who succeeds in making fabulous Chablis without quite revealing how he does it! Tasting with him down in the small cellars (tall people beware....), all the charms and complexities of the different vineyards are made manifest. Stainless steel and wood are used, but with a very limited number of new barrels. The wines are built to last. The Dauvissat Camus wines, from vineyards owned by other family members but made by the same hand, can spend a few more months in oak. La Forest is the signature vineyard here, displaying complexity, energy and depth, plus honied caramel and greengages with bottle age. Vaillons is so welcoming and balanced, while Preuses is all candied lemon zests and very satisfying. Les Clos sits at the summit, classy and with fullness and intensity, depth and dimension. Chez Dauvissat, terroir meets tradition and the finest crus of Chablis reign supreme. Serena Sutcliffe, MW

DOMAINE DES COMTES LAFON

A superb domaine making the kind of Burgundy I like. There is an emphasis on organic and now biodynamic viticultural methods and a researcher's attitude to winemaking policy. Late harvesting is favoured as well as low yields. The reds age for two years in thirty per cent new oak, the whites for twenty-one months - in one of the coolest cellars in Burgundy. There is no filtration here, and both the red and white wines usually need years to be at their best, when they are profoundly thrilling. Dominique Lafon has continued the winemaking tradition of his father, René, and there is no greater reputation in Burgundy to uphold. Serena Sutcliffe, MW

DOMAINE RAMONET

This is one of the most magic names in the whole of Burgundy. With 17 hectares, 4 Grands Crus and 11 Premiers Crus (8 white, 3 red), plus red and white village wines, this Domaine combines quantity (in Burgundian terms!) with stupendous quality. Noël and Jean-Claude Ramonet manage their estate with acumen and skill - Noël may appear impish, but his attitude to his wines is dead serious. The richness, multi-layered flavours and longevity of the wines are legendary, at every level. Tasting at the Domaine confirms the utter sureness of touch. This is a Grand Cru-dominated collection, with wines of huge complexity that live long on the palate and in the memory. Serena Sutcliffe, MW

RHONE RED

JEAN-LOUIS CHAVE

The Hermitage of Gérard and Jean-Louis Chave hits the heights in every vintage. Its hallmarks are a silky softness, huge complex flavour and aromatic fascination, the result of brilliant blending from the Chave sites on the famous hill. These are not wines of brute force, but works of art that combine fruit with gaminess in a sumptuous way. They are also fabulous gastronomically, as befits a family of Real Food lovers. Glorious Syrah concentration and richness on the nose. Fruity, brambly and wild. Heavenly, rich, plummy, blackberry depth. All-enveloping and exotic. More intense and concentrated than the divinely fruity 1990. This is so redolent of lush fruit and vegetation, so fat, gamey and full of glycerol. GUIGAL

A formidable name with which to conjure in the Northern Rhône. Marcel and Philippe Guigal are a brilliant combination and the heavenly trio of great Côte Rôtie wines, La Turque, La Landonne and La Mouline, bear witness to their talent. These wines capture that elusive combination of power, depth of flavour and harmony, amazingly created from very long aging in 100 percent new oak. But wines of such substance and individuality can take it. La Mouline emerges from the Côte Blonde of Côte Rôtie, La Turque and La Landonne from the Côte Brune, but La Landonne contains no white Viognier grapes amongst the Syrah. There is little in the wine world to equal a comparison between these three magisterial wines. Serena Sutcliffe, MW

Guigal

Scuffed label, vintage neck label, and generic capsule

In 1984 Marcel Guigal purchased J. Vidal-Fleury which included the Côte Rôtie vineyards of Le Clos and La Chatillonne in the Côte Blonde and La Turquie and La Pommière in the Côte Brune. Of these vineyards, only La Turquie has been vinified and marketed separately. However, as a tribute to his late father, Etienne Guigal, the 1990 vintage from the La Pommière vineyard was vinified apart in a large wooden foudre with a carving of Etienne on the outside that will be familiar to visitors to Ampuis. Bottled only in magnum (a first for Guigal), just 60 cases of this wine were imported into the US.

PAUL JABOULET AINE

I have had the privilege of attending an amazing vertical tasting of Jaboulet's Hermitage La Chapelle, hosted by the family itself and with all the wines from their cellar. "Un demi-siècle d'Hermitage La Chapelle" - certainly one of the most memorable tastings of my life. We tasted from 1998 to 1949, with all the stops along the way. We were, and I still am, awed by the complexity and the profundity of these wines, where the true expression of terroir is allowed to dominate, untrammelled by excessive new oak, over-extraction or any other cosmetic camouflage. This is nature at its most freewheeling and what joyous drinking this makes. The aromatic fascination of La Chapelle is never-ending - it is truly a wine where the intellectual meets the sensual. This is a lovely collection, including the glorious 1978 (in quantity). Serena Sutcliffe, MW

Louis Jaboulet said that only the 1947 was harvested as early as this 2003. Extremely spicy, full of black fruits and wild herbs.

Can be broached relatively young - this is the joy of 2003 pretty well everywhere. Vivid and vivacious and totally true to itself.

CHATEAU DE BEAUCASTEL ROUGE

This is the estate of the redoubtable Perrin family which has been at the pinnacle of wine producing in the appellation for decades. Unusually, all 13 permitted grape varieties are grown at the 100 hectare property - here they particularly like Mourvèdre and Counoise. The vineyard has been organically managed since 1964 and the wines are aged in oak foudres. The stupendous Hommage à Jacques Perrin is only made in great vintages - you will never taste a more noble Mourvèdre-dominated wine. Maturing Beaucastel wines in your cellar, ready for consumption at the optimum moment, is a very worthwhile occupation. Serena Sutcliffe, MW.

RAYAS

The most iconic of all the Châteauneuf estates. The highly individual Jacques Reynaud was responsible for making this wine, only using the Grenache grape from very old, low yielding vines. However, this works as the property is on cooler sand and clay soils, whereas the typical Châteauneuf terrain consists of large flat stones which would excessively heat up the Grenache. Undoubtedly this is the most complex, rich, ripe and exotic of all the Châteauneufs, gloriously atypical and a rule unto itself. Serena Sutcliffe, MW

BORDEAUX RED

CHATEAU HAUT BRION

My overriding impression of this stunning First Growth is that it is the silkiest, most perfumed, most fine-grained of all the legendary top châteaux of Bordeaux. Haut Brion has an inner 'spirituality' to it, a haunting quality that lingers long on the senses. Its unique position on the edge of the city of Bordeaux gives it a micro-climate that fosters ripeness and generosity - there is a velvety warmth to the wine. The extra 'plus' to the property is the family ownership and its long-standing link with three generations of another family, the Delmas, on the managing side, which has provided a totally beneficial continuity to the estate. Haut Brion often blooms early among the First Growths but, unlike human beings, it continues to grow more beautiful in middle age and retains the bone structure and elegance of a very distinguished old age! CHATEAU LA MISSION HAUT-BRION

La Mission Haut Brion, together with Haut Brion itself, are the two 'twins' of top Bordeaux, fascinating in their differences and yet with the shared parentage of ownership and a similar appellation. Sometimes the divergence is dramatic, with deep, structured, majestic La Mission, denser than the sumptuous softness of Haut Brion, but they share the class, complexity and peaty/cigary Pessac-Léognan characteristics that draw in addicts such as ourselves. La Mission is fabulously consistent and with a wonderfully pronounced profile, married with the power to mature to perfection. It should, of course, be a First Growth and it is considered as such, always impressing in vertical tastings with its strong-flavoured impact, challenging its 'rival' at every turn. We, the consumers, want them both, to compare and contrast in consummate style. Serena Sutcliffe, MW

CHÂTEAU LA MISSION HAUT-BRION 2001*Talence (Pessac-Léognan), Grand Cru ClasséPacked in 12-bottle owc*

63% Merlot, 35% Cabernet Sauvignon, 2% Cabernet Franc. A lovely complexity of red and black fruit on the nose, classic and yet spicily enticing. A beautiful clean, fine-grained taste of pure, tempting elegance together with violetty fruit. Liquid breed! A triumph and maybe a "sleeper", in the sense that it came after the 2000. A lovely "sweetness" at the end, with great charm and juiciness. In 2013, such crispness and attack. Very cigary. Serena Sutcliffe, MW

CHATEAU LATOUR

The power and glory of Latour are undisputed. The consistency of Latour, due to its fabulous gravel soil, great situation near the Gironde and a succession of inspired winemakers, is unrivalled. It is a wine that can start slowly and then takes off like a rocket. It is always profound with many layers of taste, a real reflection of the heart of Pauillac. Château Margaux is the most imposing building of all the First Growths, its neo-classical elegance reflected in the sheer aristocratic bearing of the wines. The superb scent of Margaux fascinates - so alluring, so complex and so giving. The Mentzelopoulos régime wines are unerringly consistent in quality, often topping the charts against the toughest opposition. There is weight and depth, added to the breed and class that come from this fabulous terroir. Modern vintages are giants, brilliant creations of the late, great Paul Pontallier, exuding richness and rewarding the drinker with undying memories. Serena Sutcliffe, MW

Label Artist: John Huston

In 2018, this retains, and even expands upon, all its greatness. In magnum, it is majestically scented and lusciously mouth-filling. The cigar-box richness combines opulence with class, nobility of terroir with superb vintage conditions. One has the impression that it gets better and better in the glass, which augurs well for a future that I think is totally assured. The problem is staying away from it now..... PETRUS

The very word Petrus creates a "frisson" unlike any other wine name - and the liquid in the glass induces a dream-like silence as its enormous, almost roasted flavour envelops the palate. The sheer exoticism of this revered vineyard, where clay combines with Merlot to make something wildly heady, needs to be experienced by everyone once in their life (preferably many more times!). Petrus does not taste like other Bordeaux - it is not "classic" but stupendously original, full of oriental spice box flavours which unfold endlessly. A one-off wine that inhabits a world of its own and, of course, a rarity due to its small (11.5 hectares) size. Serena Sutcliffe, MW

PETRUS 2005

CHATEAU LAFLEUR

One of the small gems in the heart of the Pomerol plateau, this square-shaped vineyard of 4.58 hectares is divided into 24, meticulously-tended parcels. A combination of Merlot and Cabernet Franc gives it both opulence and elegance, gaining in complexity with bottle age. Owned in entirety since 2001 by Jacques and Sylvie Guinaudeau, their son Baptiste and his wife Julie are now at the helm. They oversaw great modernisation in 2018, with a new grape reception area and barrel ageing cellars, together with more vinification tanks. Serena Sutcliffe, MW

CHATEAU CHEVAL BLANC

Under Jacques Hébrard and, since 1991, Pierre Lurton, Cheval Blanc continues to dazzle. The brilliant technical team at the property coaxes the maximum from this plateau just over the road from Pomerol, where gravel ridges bestow class to the wine and the high percentage of Cabernet Franc gives such scent. And the voluptuous character? That is the magic ingredient, which can be perceived throughout. Cheval Blanc is stunning drunk when it is relatively young, but it also ages in exotic multi-dimensional fashion. Serena Sutcliffe, MW

CHÂTEAU CHEVAL BLANC 2000

St. Emilion, 1er Grand Cru Classé (A)

Stained labels

Vintage from 14 September to 28 September. A generous 42 hl/hectare made. They recorded 14.9% in the Merlot from clay this year. 50% Cabernet Franc, 50% Merlot. In 2011, a warm, spicy leather nose. Great red fruit liveliness. Just a stunning charmer. In magnum, so fruity and youthful, with superb energy. Great, luscious plums and such beautiful definition. In 2015, so exuberant and almost a Pomerol! Very plummy, fresh, rosy and silky-textured. Serena Sutcliffe, MW

u. 3bn, 1vts, slightly scuffed labels

Vintage from 21 September to 5 October. 32 hl/hectare made. 56% Merlot, 44% Cabernet Franc. In 2019, the aromatic impact on the nose is very present, although calmer now! Great finesse of texture, Pierre Lurton's 'pashmina tannins', with freshness of fruit and a visit to the spice bazaar. I wonder now if the 2000 has more force, but these two vintages will forever 'fight it out', in the most noble way of course. Serena Sutcliffe, MW

CHÂTEAU CHEVAL BLANC 1990

St. Emilion, 1er Grand Cru Classé (A)

u. 6bn

Vintage from 11 September to 25 September - only the 1945 and the 1989 were picked earlier during this century. Strict thinning out in this prolific vintage produced 38 hl/hectare. 55% Merlot, 45% Cabernet Franc. 13.5% alcohol. The overripe Merlot this year was balanced by Cabernet Franc freshness. The dream comparison with 1989. In 2011 from double magnum, a nose of figs. Toast and caramel. An amazing array of scents. Fabulous, sweet, spicy cinnamon on the palate. Pure silk. Tremendously seductive with sweet leather at the end. In 2013, just incredible - one of the greatest Cheval Blancs.

A real "undergrowth" nose. A total wine of its terroir. Lots of rich glycerol and vanilla on the palate. In 2009, a very spicy nose. Great freshness. A real cassis note on the palate. A real "crunch and bite" to it, with a lovely blackcurrant finish.

Glorious scent that is absolutely haunting. Remarkable, great meaty character. So luscious, so super, with a touch of iron and black cherries. A stunner. I had always thought this archetypal St. Emilion and this was confirmed when I had it again at 20 years old. The colour is still very dark while the nose is fragrant and elegant. Coffee beans on the palate, with lovely sweetness and that aromatic 'changeability' in the glass as the air gets at it. Immensely seductive and enchanting, full of breed and finishing with a taste of a glorious Neuhaus chocolate!

BOLLINGER

Bollinger is a stunning example of a family Champagne house that, since 1829, has been making extraordinarily beautiful wines that have a unique, dare-I-say, addictive personality. Whether Special Cuvée, so beloved by the British, vintage La Grande Année, or the inimitable Bollinger R.D., the Champagnes are stamped with the wonderful house style. They always stand out in a crowd. Pinot Noir-dominated, with 600,000 magnums of reserve wine to make distinguished non-vintage blends, one can sense the pursuit of quality here. La Grande Année appears in exceptional years, vinified in very old oak barrels, while R.D. has even longer on the lees to impart even greater complexity. Bolly ages supremely and it is, 'par excellence', the Champagne for oysters, when the scent of the sea combines with the pure, mineral, even maritime notes of this fascinating Champagne. Serena Sutcliffe, MW

BOLLINGER, R.D. 2002

Digorged on December 14, 2015

60% Pinot Noir, 40% Chardonnay, which is high for this wine. In 2017 and from magnum, a bouquet of singed grapefruit skins which I love! Divine citric flavours mix with the taste of rock oysters and a lovely finish of orange toast. Grandiose - maybe it is the R.D. of my dreams. We had it with 18 and 36 month aged Comté cheese, but I could drink it with everything, or nothing. Chance would be a fine thing, as they say. In 2018, a lovely, salty/tangy nose and an explosion of fruit on the palate, with lots of orange zest, attack and beautifully balanced acidity. Definitely the R.D. of my dreams! Serena Sutcliffe, MW

BOLLINGER, R.D. 1990

Disgorged on March 5, 2002

This assailed all the senses when I was last treated to it in 2008 by kind friends in Hong Kong - never has a glass been more welcome, straight off the flight from London complete with wailing, nocturnal children. The Bolly bestrode it all, majestic in its winery splendour, round and yet intriguingly 'marine' in its minerality. This is rich, all-enveloping stuff and pure Aÿ style. Serena Sutcliffe, MW

DOM PERIGNON

Dom Pérignon is the archetypal prestige cuvée Champagne, basking in the name of the creator of its own category, the inspired Benedictine monk. Its ethereal beauty deepens into magnificent complexity with bottle age, taxing any taster's vocabulary. Serena Sutcliffe, MW

DOM PÉRIGNON 1996

Intense, piercing, rich winey nose. It almost smells Burgundian! Great honied flavour with winey length. Orange zest finish. CHAMPAGNE

KRUG

Few great wine collectors, even if they concentrate on red wines, bypass Krug Champagne. Its power and sheer vinosity appeal to a connoisseur of the greatest Bordeaux and Burgundy, and collectors have a tendency to preface their tastings and dinners with a glass of this majestic Reims "institution". Some go so far as to organise vertical tastings of Krug in its own right, recognising the unique properties of this Champagne in terms of development and maturity. Krug is the Rolls Royce of Champagnes. Serena Sutcliffe, MW

I always thought that it might bear a resemblance to the legendary 1928 when it was at a similar age. LOUIS ROEDERER

Tsar Alexander II in 1876 was the inspiration for the covetable transparent bottle, but the Champagne is the result of Roederer's art and skill. All the grapes come from Roederer's own vineyards and the heady honey, vanilla, toffee and dried fruit delights of this sublime Champagne are a reflection of their superb sites. At other times, one can pick up hazelnuts, nougatine, truffles and peaches. Cristal always combines intense vinosity with glorious, lingering laciness. What is there not to like? Serena Sutcliffe, MW

LOUIS ROEDERER, CRISTAL BRUT 1988

54% Pinot Noir, 46% Chardonnay (a high percentage as this was a Chardonnay year) and 11% oak fermented. Some would call 1988 the last of the 'classic' years as from 1989 the climate entered a warm cycle. Cristal always displays a haunting bouquet and a texture of pure lace - in the 1988 there is also underlying vinosity and structure which make it awe-inspiring. In 2014, white truffles and dried apricots on the nose, plus orange skins that were almost smoky. Look out for the candied citrus too which comes from the Chardonnay. A real taste of marmalade with freshness and hazelnuts at the end. Liquid honeysuckle. Serena Sutcliffe, MW

GIACOMO CONTERNO

Giacomo Conterno's father, Giovanni, founded the estate in 1908, a time when most Barolo was sold in cask and intended for near-term drinking. After returning from World War I, Giacomo, along with Giovanni, set off to make wine only in the best vintages and in a style that would age for decades. Up until 1974, when the estate purchased the famed Cascina Francia vineyard, the estate produced Monfortino, Barolo Riserva and Barolo, which were all made from purchased grapes. Giacomo Conterno's son, Giovanni, took over the estate in the 1960s and has since passed it to his son, Roberto, the fourth generation. Monfortino, arguably the greatest Barolo made, comes from a selection of the finest grapes from the Cascina Francia vineyard, also the source of the eponymous Barolo. Monfortino Riserva is a monument and a reflection of its very long maceration and ageing in 'botte', while Cascina Francia comes from the family-owned vineyard in Serralunga and can be approached earlier - looking at both wines as they age is the nicest form of education. GAJA

What can one say about Angelo Gaja that has not already been said, both by his admirers worldwide, but also by his Piedmontese neighbours, which is the greatest compliment. For this is the man who single-handedly brought Piedmontese wine-making into the modern era and forced it to realise its true potential. We have all learned a great deal from him - and we have certainly drunk some extraordinary wines that he has made. He knew that Nebbiolo grown in the finest sites in the zones of Barolo and Barbaresco could shed its rustic character and become noble and he set about reducing yields and introducing small French oak barrels as a means to this end. But the brilliance of Gaja is much more than this. His passion and commitment are reflected in the huge personality and concentration of the wines which have mind-blowing, myriad flavours and terrific volume and length on the palate. They are stunning with white truffles, as I was lucky enough to see at an "on-site" visit! The sheer individuality of these brilliant wines is dramatically evident when they are 'compared and contrasted' around a table with like-minded enthusiasts. Serena Sutcliffe, MW

BRUNO GIACOSA

There is no more modest winemaker in the whole of Italy than Bruno Giacosa. From his Piedmontese fastness in Neive, he crafts classic wines from both his own very fine estate and from grapes he buys from growers he has known for decades. The results are the pure expression of the wines' DOCG and DOC status, with no masking of their natural power and flavours. These are wines that simply cry out for the splendid food of the region. BARTOLO MASCARELLO

Though the great elder statesman of Barolo Bartolo Mascarello passed away in 2005, his daughter Maria Teresa continues his legacy of producing wines of exceptional quality using a classical approach passed on from generation to generation. The grapes used are a blend from Canubbi, San Lorenzo, Rue and Rocche with exhaustive grape selection, long maceration and aging in large old barrels. This simple approach leads to wines of enormous local character and consistent excellence.

LUCIANO SANDRONE

Luciano Sandrone is a master of Nebbiolo, honing it to new heights of distinction and elegance. Beginning on a small scale in 1978, he now has 22 hectares of stunning vineyards. The yields are low and he does not favour long extractions nor heavy oakling, so the glorious fruit of the Nebbiolo is able to sing. The greatest expression of his art, and of this regal grape variety, comes in the form of the single-vineyard Cannubi Boschis, a gem of a site, while Le Vigne bears witness to the historic skill of blending, producing complexity and structure. It is a privilege to compare these two formidable wines, rather as one might juxtapose two Bordeaux First Growths. The nuances of style and character are miraculous - and the occasions where one can do this are to be treasured, given the rarity of the wines. Serena Sutcliffe, MW

SOLDERA

This unique property in Tuscany, founded in 1972 by Gianfranco Soldera, comprises 23 hectares (57 acres) of which only 6.5 hectares (16 acres) are farmed with vines - all according to Gianfranco Soldera's organic principles. The rest of the property is devoted to, among other things, Graziella Soldera's extraordinary rose garden and the cultivation of ancient olive trees.

The estate produces two main wines: Brunello di Montalcino and Brunello di Montalcino Riserva. In certain years, a VDT Intistieti(1985) or Pegasos(2005) are produced and these wines see 1 year less ageing than the Brunellos. The Brunellos are fermented in Slovenian oak vats with no temperature control and without the addition of artificial yeasts. They are bottled after 5 years' ageing in Slovenian oak casks and see no filtration. Production of these wines is extremely limited.

WINE MAKER'S REMARKS: This 1939 vintage is distinguished by its very heavy color, heavy body and great depth, specifically in the after taste. These qualities reflect a very warm growing season in 1939, and a rather limited tonnage production.

In 2014, I had my greatest bottle of this extraordinary wine, bought when very young and never moved from our own cellar. Excellent level and cork. On this showing, oh, to be 40 again! Deep, dense colour. A bouquet of mint, eucalyptus and transcendental intensity. Cassis, blackberry, liquorice and tar on the palate, like a liqueur sent from the Gods. Far thicker density than any Bordeaux. The taste goes on eternally, with fabulous sweetness and glycerol. Becomes more tarry and less opulent, but more mystic, as it goes down, inexorably, in the glass. Serena Sutcliffe, MW
