A STUPENDOUS CELLAR OF RAREST EUROPEAN AND NEW WORLD WINES

Property of a Long-Time Collector and Friend

I'm privileged to have known the owner of this cellar since the early days of my auction career (yes, since the early 1980s!). Those were gregarious times, and his zeal for great wine led him to build one of the best and most extensive cellars in North America. In fact, this is just a small slice. This amazing collection proffers such a rich bounty that it's a challenge to highlight: seven decades of Bordeaux from top châteaux, rarest Burgundy from all of the most highly-sought estates, a broad selection of single vineyard Côte-Rôtie and other Rhônes, Champagne, esteemed Italian classics and top-flight Californian wines.

There's something for everyone here, so be certain to allot ample time to peruse these vinous treasures. All wines have been carefully sourced and meticulously stored.

A FULL CASE OF LA TACHE 1995 IN OWC AND WITH STUNNING PROVENANCE

The owner acquired this case from the historic HDH single-owner auction of The Fox Cellar in September 2008. The Fox Cellar encompassed an extensive cache of finest French wines which were acquired upon initial release. Thereafter they were secured in a deep underground cellar with thick stone walls and a constantly humid 55-57F. The case has remained in HDH storage since.

A CELLAR OF LEGENDARY WINES WITH IMPORTANT PROVENANCE

Our consignor loves to drink great old wines, so he has focused on buying from the great old cellars to ensure that he has the best possible examples to consume. The Champagne on offer includes some legendary bottles that are rarely seen, in incredible condition. The Leroy wines from the Bubba Harris Jr. Collections were some of the most pristine examples we have ever seen. Some of the OWC lots of those wines are available again here, having been removed from our consignor's customized, below-grade home cellar, kept at a constant 52-53°F and 74-75% humidity.

This is possibly the best chance you will ever have to acquire these wines in these conditions.
