Domaine Leflaive
lwasl, wisvl, ssos (Wines Located in New York)
"This is a Chevalier-Montrachet that really delivers. The 2000 Chevalier Montrachet has a sensational walnut and smoke-tinged nose that is brilliantly focused and vibrant. This just shimmers with tension and develops hints of cockleshell with time. The palate follows through in style: taut and precise and barely showing its age, deep with great intensity and subtle notes of vanilla pod and coconut toward the finish, though they never obstruct the mineral core of this fantastic Chevalier-Montrachet. Drink now without guilt, cellar for another decade likewise."(96pts)

cuvée Sir Winston Churchill
6x1 magnum ogb's (Wines Located in New York)
"The 1996 was a great way to start off the evening, delivering an outstanding experience from the word go. Its nose had picture perfect balance between its sweetness, fruit and structural components. Big Boy called it, Krug-like with its green apples. Golden aromas showered over its minerally, slaty, racy and wound personality. BB kept harping on its slaty qualities, also appreciating its mid-palate depth. It did have that, flashing its fruit in the mouth like an Ali jab. There was great toast to this complex bubbly, but BB felt it was missing the pitch and citricity of 6-star, though I countered that it was still a bit young for 6-star status, and that many wines need to blossom into that category. However, a couple of other bubbly would soon remind us that 6-star status is something that can come across even at a young age."(95+pts JK) | | |

6nl (Wines Located in New York)
"The 2001 Suolo, all-Sangiovese, could not be more different from the supple and sensual 2000, significantly more powerful and concentrated and with an oakier nose and palate which will need a bit of time to come around. In theory it is a better wine than the previous vintage, but I have a soft spot for the silky, caressing 2000 edition. Drink: 2006-2014."(91pts)

"...offers up huge aromas of Provencal herbs, roasted nuts, and sweet, jammy, exotic fruits. In the mouth its decadence and opulence must be tasted to be believed. This unctuous, wonderfully rich wine makes for splendid drinking at present, but it promises to be even better with bottle age. "A step up from the Grenache, the blockbuster-styled 2012 Syrah Stock checks in as a blend of 84% Syrah, 7% Grenache, 6% Petit Sirah, and the rest Viognier and Mourvedre, that was fermented with 32% whole clusters and aged in just over half new French oak. It offers stunning notes of blackcurrants, cassis, smoked meats, ground pepper and wild herbs to go with a full-bodied, unctuous, layered, yet always graceful and elegant feel on the palate. Nicely structured, with perfect overall balance, it still has the open-knit character of the vintage, yet has plenty of underlying structure, which at the moment is slightly hidden by the wine's lavish fruit. It will be better in 2-3 years, and have two decades of overall longevity."(98pts)

- 193 Château Lafite Rothschild - Vintage 1996
Pauillac
(Wines Located in Hong Kong)
"Tasted three times since bottling, the 1996 Lafite-Rothschild is unquestionably this renowned estate's greatest wine. As I indicated last year, only 38% of the crop was deemed grand enough to be put into the final blend, which is atypically high in Cabernet Sauvignon (83%). This massive wine may be the biggest, largest-scaled Lafite I have ever tasted. It will require many years to come around...the wine exhibits a thick-looking, ruby/purple color, and a knock-out nose of lead pencil, minerals, flowers, and black currant scents. Extremely powerful and full-bodied, with remarkable complexity for such a young wine, this huge Lafite is oozing with extract and richness, yet has managed to preserve its quintessentially elegant personality. This wine is even richer than it was prior to bottling. It should unquestionably last for 40-50 years."(100pts)

Au Paradis

(Wines Located in Hong Kong)

"Peter Michael's newest offering comes from the Showket Vineyard in Oakville, which sits high on the hillsides of the Vaca Mountains in eastern Napa Valley. The vineyard is next to Dalla Valle, so this is a high-rent Cabernet district. The 2012 Cabernet Sauvignon Au Paradis is composed of 76% Cabernet Sauvignon and 24% Cabernet Franc (1,785 cases produced). It exhibits lots of grilled meat, spice box, cedarwood, Crème de cassis and vanilla characteristics, a full-bodied earthiness, stunning purity, and refined, silky tannins. It is a gorgeous 2012 red to drink over the next 25+ years."(95+pts)

227 Peter Michael Cabernet Sauvignon - Vintage 2013

Au Paradis

(Wines Located in Hong Kong)

"The 2013 Cabernet Sauvignon Au Paradis comes from one of their newer acquisitions, formerly known as the Showket Vineyard in the red soil hillsides overlooking the Oakville crossroads. This is a blend of 76% Cabernet Sauvignon and 24% Cabernet Franc. Production is less than 1,530 cases. The 2013 displays loads of roasted meats, licorice, graphite, dusty, loamy soil notes, creamy blackcurrants and blackberries, stunning richness, and a Pauillac-like first-growth cedarwood and Crème de cassis notes. The Cabernet Franc from this area grows right next to the famous Maya wine of Dalle Valle. This wine spent all of its time in 100% new Daranjou cooperage, which is not even noticeable in the aromatics or flavors. This full-bodied, modern-day classic should age brilliantly for 30-35 years."(98pts)

- 284 Pahlmeyer Red - Vintage 2001

"More primary and backward, the 2001 Cabernet Sauvignon needs 4-6 more years of cellaring, but is capable of lasting three decades or more. Composed of 80% Cabernet Sauvignon, 14% Merlot and the rest Cabernet Franc, Petit Verdot and a dollop of Malbec, it exhibits a dense, thick, black/purple color as well as emerging aromas of cedar, black currants, ink, graphite, charcoal and forest floor. This full-bodied, packed and stacked Cabernet offers a sexy, open-knit opulence on the attack followed by noticeable tannins. However, the latter component is clearly balanced by the wine's stunning concentration, texture and overall depth. As stated above, forget this beauty for another 4-6 years and drink it over the following 25-30+."(93pts)

347	Rochioli Pinot Noir - Vintage 2012 West Block (Wines Located in Hong Kong) "The 2012 Pinot Noir West Block is the most structured, backward and brooding of these offerings. It possesses tremendous density as well as potential with a very high ceiling in front of it, but it was much more difficult to evaluate. The color is deep, and the wine has a significant sense of weight and richness in the mouth, but the finish is loaded with tannin and extract. Hints of underbrush, wet gravel and black fruits are noticeable, but this wine needs 2-3 years of cellaring. It should easily last more than a decade." (93-96pts) 4 bottles		per lot $320-480

392 Châteauneuf du Pape - Vintage 2010
Arioso, Rotem & Mounir Saouma 2x1 Jeroboam owc's (Wines Located in New York)
"The 2010 Châteauneuf du Pape Arioso tastes more like a Grand Cru Burgundy than a Châteauneuf du Pape, with its fresh, focused and taut profile. Giving up notions of tart cherries, rose petal, sappy underbrush, mint and hints of new leather, it flows onto the palate with medium to full-bodied richness, bright acidity and a focused, juicy and moderately concentrated feel. I like the mid-palate here, as well as the overall balance, yet the acid profile will be something to watch.
Nevertheless, it's impressive and I think it will age gracefully. Give it another 2-3 years in the cellar and enjoy bottles through 2025."(93pts)

402 Andremily Syrah - Vintage 2012
No. 1
(Wines Located in New York)
"The inaugural release, Jim's 2012 No. 1 is about as good a first release as you're likely to find anywhere in the wine world today. A blend of 93% Syrah, 5% Viognier and 2% Mourvedre (the Syrah and Viognier were cofermented) that spent 25 months in 58% new French oak, it offers extraordinary notes of sweet black fruits, licorice, scorched earth, spring flowers and beautifully integrated oak that only shows as hints of creminess and vanilla. Weightless, fresh, lively and nicely focused, yet also rockingly full-bodied and layered, with an awesome texture, this is a gorgeous Syrah that's hard to resist now, yet I suspect will continue to knock it out of the park for another decade."(97pts)

"Normally the most powerful in the line, the 2012 Pinot Noir Pisoni Vineyard is more supple and mid-weight than previous vintages, with plenty of sweet cherry and strawberry fruit, spice, underbrush and floral notes all flowing to a medium-bodied, elegantly textured profile on the palate. Possessing a core of sweet fruit, with a nicely focused feel and good length, it should be consumed over the coming 4-5 years."(91pts)

West Block (Wines Located in New York)
"The 2010 Pinot Noir West Block is a deep, layered wine. Blackberry jam, exotic spices, black cherries, menthol and spices wrap around the palate. The West Block impresses for its sensual personality and long, pure finish. This is a decidedly plush, fruit-driven expression of Pinot. There is less aromatic delineation than in most of the other wines. Ultimately, the West Block will be enjoyed most by readers who enjoy opulent, explosive Pinots. There is no shortage of personality here. Anticipated maturity: 2014-2020."(94pts)

"The 2011 Pinot Noir West Block is pure structure. A powerful, tannic wine, the 2011 is going to require quite a bit of patience. It has impressive length and persistence, but this is another wine that desperately needs time in bottle. Still, there is a lot to like about the wine's textural elegance and depth. The fruit is so rich, the 80% French oak isn't even notable. Anticipated maturity: 2015-2025."(93+pts)

South River Vineyard (Wines Located in New York)
"The 2010 Chardonnay South River is a broad-shouldered wine that is quite different from the other wines in this lineup. Lemon, pastry and sweet spices all come together beautifully here. The South River shows off plenty of size, but there is little impression of real weight. Bright notes wrap around the pointed finish. This is another dazzling wine from Tom Rochioli. The South River is 100% Hanzell clone. Anticipated maturity: 2012-2016."(94pts)

CIX Estate Vineyard (Wines Located in New York)
"The 2012 Pinot Noir Cix Estate was made from suitcase clones from Vosne-Romanée. It exhibits abundant notes of forest floor, blackberries, blueberries and spicy oak along with dry tannins in the finish. The wine is multi-dimensional and rich, but the tannins are not yet fully resolved which kept my score low. It should drink well for 8-12 years."(89-91pts)

- 444 Châteauneuf du Pape - Vintage 2012
Deus Ex Machina, Clos St. Jean
(Wines Located in New York)
"The 2012 Châteauneuf du Pape Deus Ex Machina is a blend of 60% Grenache aged in foudre (from close to 100-year-old vines) and 40% Mourvedre aged in demi-muids. Its deep ruby/purple color is followed by incredible notes of cassis, roasted meats, licorice, toasted spice and a liquid rock-like minerality. Full-bodied, massive and concentrated, yet also seamless, elegant and incredibly polished, it flows onto the palate with building tannin, no hard edges and perfect balance. I wouldn't be surprised to see this merit a perfect rating in the future, and it should hit prime-time drinking around age 10, and have 20-25 years of overall longevity. It's one of the few wines to hit this level of quality in the vintage."(98pts)

It is a great and complex dry Riesling that weighs in at just 12.5% alcohol. - 501 Dana Estates Cabernet Sauvignon - Vintage 2010
Onda
(Wines Located in New York)
"This is the first US release of Onda, Dana's second wine, which has previously only been available in Korea. Mocha, espresso, plums, cloves and licorice flesh out in the 2010 Onda. Rich, voluptuous and intense, the 2010 is a great choice for drinking over the next handful of years. The style is decidedly opulent and flashy, but all the elements are in the right place. A distinctly floral, spiced finish rounds things out beautifully. Ideally, readers should give the 2010 another few years in bottle to allow some of the baby fat to drop off. This is a gorgeous showing. Onda is made from the second selection of fruit and/or barrels from Helms, Hershey and Lotus, plus fruit from a fourth site, Crystal Springs Vineyard, which sits just below Lotus."(93pts VM)

State Lane Vineyard

"Always an exceptional cuvée, there are 900 cases of the 2014 Cabernet Sauvignon Grand Vin, which is 95% Cabernet Sauvignon and 5% Merlot. In 2015 there were 700 cases. This wine is even softer than the 2015, perhaps slightly less concentrated, but still at the top of the qualitative hierarchy in Napa Valley, with its terrific purity, nose of licorice, camphor, forest floor, blackcurrant and cedar wood. It is gorgeously fruited, full-bodied, but super-well-balanced. This is a beauty that can be drunk early, or cellared for another 25-30 years."(96pts)

				Taylor Fladgate Vintage Port - Vintage 2012
				Quinta de Vargellas
				(Wines Located in New York)

- "The 2012 Quinta de Vargellas Port, a typical Douro blend, was aged in large French oak vats for 24 months and bottled in 2014. It comes in at 103 grams per liter of residual sugar. This opens steely and gripping, with fine acidity, firmness on the finish and enough concentration in this lighter-styled vintage. The best of the trio submitted by Taylor Fladgate this issue, it does everything well and mostly exceeds expectations. It more or less combines a bit of the initial power displayed by the Fonseca and the expressiveness of the Croft, and adds silky texture, gloriously fresh fruit and fine flavor. It will need a little patience, but it will also be rather hard to keep your hands off of it. The good news is that it did seem to come around surprisingly fast, becoming a bit less impressive than on first impression. By Day 3, it was quite accessible and it drank fairly well. I still liked it a lot."(94pts)

Noticeable acidity gives uplift and vibrance to this huge wine. Lamothe-Guignard's 1989 has turned out to be a sleeper of the vintage and should be available at a reasonable price. "The 1982 vintage, while great for Bordeaux's red wines, is not special for the sweet wines. However, the 1982 Suduiraut cuvée Madame is a smashing success. Regisseur Pierre Pascaud thinks it is the best wine made at the property since the great 1967 and 1959. Only the grapes harvested before the rains fell were used, and the result is a very concentrated, deep, luscious, honeyed wine, with great length, the buttery, viscous richness that Suduiraut is famous for, and superb balance. If it had just a trifle more botrytis character it would be perfect. Anticipated maturity: Now-2010. Last tasted, 3/90."(90pts)

"The 2005 Gruner Veltliner Smaragd M by now typically comes from around two-thirds Loibnerberg with the rest Kellerberg and Liebenberg. Dried plum and cooked berry aromas set the style for a rich, voluminous mouthful of jammy and dried fruit concentrate, impressively dense and undeniably long, but lacking the verve and sap of the winery's best Gruner Veltliner and faintly betraying its alcohol. I doubt that will change once the wine tasted from cask goes into bottle."(89-90pts)

Is Clos de la Roche always better than Clos St. Denis? It was kaleidoscopic and almost psychedelic with its sweet fruits. "The most profound Screaming Eagle since the 2002 and 1997, the 2007 Cabernet Sauvignon (an 800-case blend of 77% Cabernet Sauvignon, 20% Merlot and 3% Cabernet Franc) offers up a prodigiously pure, complex nose of cassis, spring flowers, licorice and black currants, the latter component being so intense and lingering that it makes this cuvée stand apart from other Napa Valley wines. Full-bodied in the mouth, like a ballerina on her toes, this wine glides gracefully across the palate with a cascade of purity, equilibrium and compelling complexity. Le Vigne, L. Sandrone
1x6 bottle ovc (Wines Located in New York)
"The 2010 Barolo Le Vigne is composed from an assembly of fruit sourced from the townships of Barolo, Novello and Serralunga d'Alba. It reflects Barolo tradition in which, years ago, this noble wine was made from a wide assembly of fruit instead of single cru sites (as is the custom today). Bright cherry fruit, blackberry and creme de cassis segue to profound layers of licorice, spice, cola and anisette. It feels strong and tonic in the mouth with a pleasingly velveteen texture and a fresh dose of zesty acidity. Drink: 2017-2030."(96pts)

905 Musigny - Vintage 1959

Vieilles Vignes, Comte de Vogue

4.5cm bc, bsl, cuc, excellent color (Wines Located in New York)

"Smoked meats and a powerful melange of wild herbs jumped out of the second glass. There was a little marijuana in there, for sure. The palate was chocolaty, long and sturdy, thick yet with less weight up front and in the middle. There was a tasty streak of vitamins on the finish in this 1959 Vog Musigny V.V., which could easily last another twenty years. Dee later added 'coffee and dried beef' and motivated me to find some tree bark in the wine as well."(94+pts JK)

907 Corton Charlemagne - Vintage 2008

Coche-Dury

(Wines Located in New York)

"The utterly profound 2008 Corton-Charlemagne Grand Cru is one of Jean-François Coche's great achievements and though today its quality is obvious, it's interesting that Jean-François and his son Raphaël recall 2008 in its infancy as "rude, closed, austere and cold." The wine wafts from the glass with notes of green orchard fruit, white flowers, oatmeal, vanilla pod, iodine and a subtle framing of new oak. On the palate, it's full-bodied, layered and multidimensional, its bright line of structuring acidity running through an ample but tense core of satiny texture and extract. The finish is bright, chalky and interminable. For a wine that retains all the tension and cut of a cool vintage, this Corton-Charlemagne's amplitude and power are striking. "Classic in the best sense" is Coche's understated judgment; less temperate commentators might call it perfection."(100pts)

909 Chevalier Montrachet - Vintage 2002

Domaine Leflaive

lwasl, wisvl, ssos (Wines Located in New York)

"This is a Chevalier-Montrachet that really delivers. The 2000 Chevalier Montrachet has a sensational walnut and smoke-tinged nose that is brilliantly focused and vibrant. This just shimmers with tension and develops hints of cockleshell with time. The palate follows through in style: taut and precise and barely showing its age, deep with great intensity and subtle notes of vanilla pod and coconut toward the finish, though they never obstruct the mineral core of this fantastic Chevalier-Montrachet. Drink now without guilt, cellar for another decade likewise."(96pts)

Château de la Tour

1x6 bottle ocb (Wines Located in Hong Kong)

"Healthy dark red. Sappy perfume of cherry, raspberry, cranberry and red licorice complicated by smoky soil tones. Fresh and dense but tightly wound. Conveys an impression of thickness but this is not a particularly fleshy wine, at least in the early going. Boasts lovely delicacy to its red fruit and soil flavors but still extremely young. The pHs of these 2016s, by the way, are between 3.6 and 3.65."(91-93pts BH)

922 Clos Vougeot - Vintage 2016

Hommage a Jean Morin, Château de la Tour

(Wines Located in Hong Kong)

"Bright, dark red-ruby. Darker on the nose and palate than the Vieilles Vignes, with its black cherry and licorice aromas complemented by a suggestion of mineral firmness. Very dense and thick but quite backward, with its dark fruit flavors complemented by bitter chocolate and strong soil tones. This will evolve in bottle for a long time but is distinctly less seductive and expressive today than the Vieilles Vignes, finishing with the tannic mass of a 2015 and strong medicinal reserve. More Richebourg in style than Musigny."(94-96pts VM)

There is notably better concentration to the impressively rich, powerful and muscular big-bodied flavors are shaped by dense but relatively fine tannins on the wonderfully long, balanced and again youthfully austere finale."(95pts BH)

	package, with its black fruit and herb flavors complicated by a touch of saline minerality. Boasts glorious density of fruit--and near-perfect balance in spite of the very low yield. The very long, rising, perfumed finish offers a serious tannic spine for aging but no rough edges. This penetrating, urgent, classic Clos Vougeot, a standout for the vintage, boasts real pinosity. François Labet told me that, beginning with his 2015s, he did not use enzymes and did not add any sulfur until the middle of the élevage, well after the malolactic fermentations finished. He bottled this 2016 with just 20 parts per million free sulfur and 35 total. "(93pts VM)

927	Gevrey Chambertin - Vintage 2015 Clos Prieur, Harmand-Geoffroy 1x12 bottle ocb (Wines Located in Hong Kong) "As readers will recall, the domaine's Clos Prieur is a blend of the two sections of this vineyard, with thirty percent of the cuvée made from the premier cru sector of Clos Prieur Haut and the balance old vines in the villages portion of Clos Prieur Bas. The vines in the lower section are now eighty-five years of age. This is stellar as well in 2015, with a bit more of a reserved personality than the en Jouise, as it offers up a deep and classy bouquet of dark berries, black cherries, raw cocoa, incipient notes of grilled meat, dark soil tones, woodsmoke and cedar. On the palate the wine is pure, full-bodied and rock solid at the core, with excellent focus and grip, tangy acids and a very long, ripely tannic and still fairly primary finish. This will need a bit more time, but will excellent."(91+pts VM)

"At 11% alcohol and 150 grams of residual sugar, the Huet 2009 Vouvray cuvée Constance fourth in the past decade, incidentally offers a striking nose of honey, white raisin, and concentrated herbal and floral essences. Salted caramel, hazelnut cream, marzipan, white raisin, liquid floral perfume, and honey are all leavened with fresh lime, white peach, and grapefruit. Like a refined cocktail of essence-of-Chenin mingled with fresh fruit juices with dashes of salt and chalk, this finishes with ravishing and invigorating persistence and should be worth following for 3 or more decades."(96pts)

974 Château Belair-Monange - Vintage 2014
St. Emilion 2x6 bottle banded ovc's (Wines Located in Hong Kong)
"The 2014 Belair-Monange was a slightly perplexing wine when I tasted it from barrel, so I was intrigued to discover how it would perform now in bottle. It has what you might describe as a "straight-laced" bouquet: very direct and nicely delineated, albeit without the frills and nuances of some of the best Saint Emilion wines this vintage. There is an attractive wilted rose petal aroma that emerges with aeration, but I was seeking more intensity. The palate is better than the aromatics: silky smooth in texture, well-judged acidity, genuine depth and gentle grip in the mouth. There is tangible mineralité here, great focus with a sense of tension and "bite" towards the finish. I was probably being parsimonious with my score in barrel, although that is partly vindicated by the nose that needs to get its act together and match the potential of the palate. Let's see how this develops over the next few years."(92pts)

"I have always loved this bottling ever since I was first introduced to it in the 1986 vintage, and I have had the good fortune to drink it with some regularity over a range of vintages since those early days. The 1994 is a lovely wine, offering up a deep and fully mature nose of tea leaves, cherries, new leather, candied apricots, honey and caramel. On the palate the wine is deep, full-bodied and very racy for such a high level of botrytis, with a great core of fruit, fine focus and a very long, complex and heavily glazed finish. Fine juice, but perhaps not one of the greatest vintages I have tasted of this fine bottling."(93pts JG)

Weisenheimer Hasenzeile, Neckerauer 12wc, 2sos (Wines Located in New York)
"The 1994 Weisenheimer Hasenzeile Riesling Beerenauslese (only 60 cases of 375 ml bottles are available in America), is an exhilarating, spicy, super-ripe, smoky, bacon-scented wine with gobs of fruit. It possesses remarkable acidity, but the wine's extraordinary richness and sweetness are tempered by fresh, lively, zesty tartness. This immense, low alcohol
- Riesling should prove to be uncommonly long-lived - 20-30+ years - although I will be surprised if purchasers exhibit such discipline. It is already remarkable. Importer: a Terry Theise Selection, Milton S. Kronheim & Co., Jessup, MD; tel. (410) 724-3369"(94pts)*

"The 1990 Barolo Bussia appears amazingly youthful both in terms of its color and the freshness of its aromas. It was fermented in temperature-controlled cements vats and this winemaking choice has undoubtedly helped secure variety integrity. Although you do detect budding tertiary aromas, this is among the best-preserved wines I tasted from 1990. Dark cherry and blackberry are followed by candied apricot, licorice, red rose petal and dried tobacco left. I was especially impressed by the overall austerity and the silkiness of the mouthfeel. This bottle should be decanted 12 hours or more before consumption. Drink: 2014-2028."(95pts)

scc, hstl (Wines Located in New York)

"This wine is close to full maturity, but it is capable of holding for another two decades. It reveals the classic Lafite bouquet of red and black fruits, cedar, fruitcake, and tobacco-like aromas. In the mouth, this medium ruby/garnet-colored wine displays a delicacy of fruit and sweet attack, but subtle, well-defined flavors ranging from tobacco, cigar box, cedar, and fruitcake. This is a savory, soft Lafite-Rothschild that is pleasing to both the intellect and the palate. Anticipated maturity: Now-2018."(91pts)

1014 Schrader Cabernet Sauvignon - Vintage 2013

LPV

(Wines Located in New York)

"The 2013 Cabernet Sauvignon Beckstoffer Las Piedras Vineyard Lpv comes from clone 337. This is a rather earthy style for a Schrader wine, with less drama and flamboyance, but great fruit, a more meaty, dusty style with underbrush as well as blackcurrants, with spicy oak. It's dense, full-bodied and promises to age nicely for 20 more years."(94pts)

Bric del Fiasc, P. Scavino

1x1 double magnum owc (Wines Located in Hong Kong)

"From Castiglione Falletto (but close to La Morra), the 2013 Barolo Bric del Fiasc sees fruit sourced from a family-owned parcel located 270 meters above sea level with marl limestone soils on one side. The other side of the hilltop is characterized by sandy soils that you tend to see in this township. This is a darkly saturated and rich expression of Nebbiolo with bright aromas of dark cherry, dried blackberry, spice, leather and toasted hazelnut. The wine stands out for the singular elegance it possesses, especially in terms of mouthfeel. The finish

"Luc Morlet further demonstrates his genius with his Syrah called Bouquet Garni from Bennett Valley, which is bottled without fining or filtration. There are only around five barrels (125 cases) of this 100% Syrah that tastes like it includes some Viognier in the blend (because of the floral and lavender notes). The 2012 Syrah Bouquet Garni offers up fabulous notes of black truffles, lavender, roasted herbs, graphite, blackberries and meaty charcuterie. Other than a handful of Syrahs from Sine Qua Non, this French-tasting Syrah is the closest thing I have tasted to Guigal's famous Côte Rôtie La Landonne. 1045 Donelan Red - Vintage 2009
cuvée Moriah
(Wines Located in New York)
"Donelan's answer to Châteauneuf du Pape is the 2009 cuvée Moriah. Composed of 72% Grenache (with 16% stems), 20% Syrah (with 35% stems) and 8% Mourvedre, this wine reveals zesty acidity as well as an unmistakable kirsch liqueur style. It reminded me of a lighter vintage of Château Rayas, which is a lighter-styled Châteauneuf du Pape even in a powerful vintage. The light ruby-hued cuvée Moriah offers up intense notes of sweet black cherries intertwined with herbal nuances. As the wine sits in the glass, tell-tale notes of raspberries (which I often associate with Rayas) also emerge. If tasted blind, this different, intriguing effort would undoubtedly be thought to be a French southern Rhône rather than a Sonoma County product. It should age effortlessly for 6-8 years."(89-91pts)

*Charles Heintz Vineyard

"More citrus oil, white peach, apricot and tangerine notes are found in the 2008 Chardonnay Charles Heintz Vineyard, which was vinified identically to its siblings. Coming from 40-year old, dry-farmed vines, it is a viscous, rich, steely, slightly less expressive effort. While denser and less nuanced aromatically at present, those characteristics may emerge with additional bottle age."(92pts)

"The 2000 Fonseca continues to exude finesse and focus on the nose, with pure blackberry, juniper berries, licorice and a touch of sloes, perhaps as Adrian Bridge remarked, just beginning to close after ten years in bottle. The palate is underpinned by very fine tannins, a sensual, svelte texture with wonderful acidity. The harmony and symmetry is alluring, the finish precise and demonstrating the persistency to suggest a long future ahead. Drink 2020-2060."(96pts)

There is such race and nervousity, and then that finish just purrs with harmony and focus."(98pts)

- 1150 Charmes Chambertin - Vintage 2010
B. Dugat-Py
(Wines Located in New York)
"...is a big, big wine and easily one of the most opulent Charmes of the vintage. Layers of intense blue and black fruit wrap around the palate as the wine opens up in the glass. Despite the richness of the fruit, the silkiness and finesse of the tannins comes through beautifully. The Charmes fills out in all directions as it totally conquers the palate and the senses with its sensual personality."(95-97pts)

- 1153 Bonnes Mares - Vintage 2014
Dujac
(Wines Located in New York)
"The 2014 Bonnes-Mares Grand Cru was actually one of my favourite reds of 2014, smitten at first sight I guess. It has a very classy bouquet, very well defined and floral in nature. This is elegant and very refined, the exuberant predisposition of Bonnes-Mares discretely contained, buttoned-down for now. The palate is very well defined with lace-like tannin. It feels so supple in the mouth with a touch of cassis towards the deceptively structured finish. This is one of the best Bonnes-Mares that I have tasted from Dujac."(95-97pts)
 1 bottle per lot $500-700
- 1154 Clos de la Roche - Vintage 2010
Dujac
(Wines Located in New York)
"An intensely floral nose features notes of rose petals and lavender along with cool red berry fruit liberally laced with wet stone nuances. The taut and muscular broad-scaled and concentrated flavors are precise, intense and explosively long on the focused and stunningly persistent finish that is youthfully austere and breathtakingly intense. This faultlessly well-balanced but very firm effort will require extended cellaring and 15 to 20 years is probably what the structure will require to completely resolve."(96pts BH)
 1 bottle per lot $700-900
- 1155 Clos de la Roche - Vintage 2014
Dujac
(Wines Located in New York)
"This is markedly more restrained with its reluctant but distinctly floral aromas of brooding dark berry fruit, earth, sauvage and hints of dried herbal tea. There is excellent volume, concentration and imposing power to the big-bodied flavors that deliver plenty of minerality and outstanding persistence on the robust and austere but balanced finish."(94pts BH)
 2 bottles per lot $700-900
- 1156 Clos St. Denis - Vintage 2014
Dujac
(Wines Located in New York)
"A completely different aromatic profile is present here with its notably more elegant and expressive nose of various floral elements that include lavender and rose petal along with various spice and red berry fruit scents. There is a terrific sense of underlying tension to the precise, racy and focused middle weight flavors that are notably finer than those of the Clos de la Roche but at the cost of being notably less powerful."(94pts BH)

- 1157 Vosne Romanée - Vintage 2010
Aux Malconsorts, Dujac

- "An intensely floral nose of cool Asian style spice notes merges with dark berry fruit liqueur, kirsch, earth and stone nuances where the minerality is also reflected by the big, rich and sleekly muscular large-scaled flavors. There is excellent concentration to the mid-palate that oozes dry extract that imparts a textured mouth feel to the driving and wonderfully persistent finish."*(94pts BH)

- 1158 Clos Vougeot - Vintage 2014
H. Boillot
(Wines Located in New York)
"A ripe but restrained nose features notes of both red and dark berry fruit, earth, humus, smoke and exotCôtea scents along with a background hint of oak toast. There is impressive volume to the well-muscled and broad-shouldered flavors that possess plenty of underlying tension, all wrapped in a complex, rustic and lingering finish that is less austere than usual. This beauty will require at least a decade to be at its best."(93pts BH)

- 1166 Montrachet - Vintage 2011
Marquis de Laguiche, J. Drouhin

"Deeper in color than when I tasted it a couple of years ago, it has a vibrant, effervescent bouquet with fine mineralité, hints of white peach and fresh melon surfacing with time, even an unexpected mote of vanilla pod. The palate has wonderful balance, tangible entry and edge, with that hint of orange zest on the finish."(96pts)
2 bottles per lot $800-1100
- 1167 Côte Rôtie - Vintage 2011
La Landonne, E. Guigal
(Wines Located in New York)
"A step up over the other two single vineyard releases, the 2011 Côte Rôtie la Landonne is an incredible wine that knocks it out of the park in the vintage. Its inky purple/ruby color is followed by to-die-for notes of cassis, black olives, truffles, graphite and crushed rock. Full-bodied, massively concentrated, thick and unctuous, it has the vintage's flamboyant fruit profile, yet backs it up with a stacked mid-palate, serious amounts of tannin and a finish that just won't quite. It's relatively approachable now due to its glycerin and fat, yet needs a decade of cellaring and will knock your socks off over the following two decades or more."(99pts)

La Landonne, E. Guigal

Deeply concentrated yet impressively lively and precise on the palate, offering intense, finely etched black and blue fruit, cherry liqueur and floral pastille flavors complemented by hints of olive paste and star anise. Smoothly blends

- richness and finesse, offering wonderful clarity and no rough edges."*(96pts VM)

"The 2013 Côte Rôtie La Mouline shows none of the vintage's sometimes dry tannins. It offers crisp black fruit plums and blackberries underscored by hints of pencil shavings, espresso and grilled meat. Suave and long, it should drink well for a couple of decades."(94pts)

Reynard, T. Allemand
tl (Wines Located in New York)
"More austere and structured, the 2010 Cornas Reynard offers up a thrilling array of graphite, crushed rock, liquid violet and both black and blue fruits on the nose. Gaining hints of bacon fat and game with air, it hits the palate with a full-bodied, rich and concentrated profile that carries masses of sweet tannin, bright acidity and serious length. Give it 3-4 years of cellaring and enjoy it over the following two decades."(96pts)

"The 2002 Cuvée Sir Winston Churchill is developing superbly in bottle, and the wine is beginning to show wonderful complexity, wafting from the glass with scents of green apple, orange rind and pear that mingle with hints of warm biscuits, freshly baked bread and iodine.
- On the palate, the wine is full-bodied, broad and fleshy, with ripe acids, appreciable structuring dry extract and concentration and a long, vinous and expansive finish. Readers with the 2002 Cuvée Sir Winston Churchill in their cellars should be very happy indeed."*(96pts)

Champ Canet, Sauzet
1x6 bottle ocb (Wines Located in New York)
"Tasted blind at the annual Burgfest tasting, Sauzet's 2014 Puligny Montrachet 1Er Cru Champ Canet has a slight reduction on the nose, a very light ash-like scent behind the citrus fruit, grass clippings and perhaps a touch of mulch. The palate is well balanced with grapefruit and a touch of lime on the entry. There is good depth to this Puligny, although it does not deliver the tension and mineralité of the best wines. Conservative? Maybe, although it is still thoughtfully made."(91pts)

Rose

1x1 jeroboam owc (Wines Located in New York)

"Pale yet intense pink in color, the Billecart-Salmon NV Brut Rosé is pure, fresh and intense on the nose, with lovely raspberry aromas, refreshing citrus zest flavors and great definition. On the palate this is a pure, light and vinous rosé with great finesse and a long, well-structured and even juicy finish. This iconic rosé blends 40% Chardonnay with 30% Pinot Meunier from the Vallée de la Marne and the southern slopes of Epernay and 30% Pinot Noir (with a small part added as red wine) from the Montagne de Reims and the Grande Vallée de la Marne. Fabulous. Tasted from lot L 142B804 45564, which is based on the 2015 harvest and 40% reserve wines and was disgorged in February 2018. Tasted November 2018."(93pts)

Moelleux Reserve, Foreau Domaine du Clos Naudin

"Foreau's 2005 Vouvray Moelleux Reserve smells spectacularly and kaleidoscopically of quince and apricot paste, date, honey, nutmeg, sweet floral perfume, pear distillate, lemon, white raisin, and hints of bitter quinine and smoky Calvados. Extraordinarily rich on the palate, yet clear, juicy in primary fruit character, and with luscious citrus leavening its concentration of nutmeg- and cinnamon-tinged apricot and quince, this finishes with terrific length and penetration, still clear and pure as honey, quince, apricot, apple blossoms and lilies slowly dissipate. Here is a Vouvray for the ages. Its 154 grams of residual sugar are by no means overwhelming and should assist it in a long, slow evolution. Furthermore, they are the reason one can enjoy the elegance and delicacy of 11.5% alcohol after, following sec, demi-sec and moelleux that weighed in at a surprisingly uniform 13.5%. Even in tough years, Foreau never disappoints. But in 2004, after rigorous triage of fruit and young wine, he bottled only one still Vouvray, and very little of that."(96pts)

Roberta's Reserve, State Lane Vineyard
(Wines Located in New York)

"The Merlot-dominated cuvée (91% Merlot and 9% Cabernet Franc), the 2005 Proprietary Roberta's Reserve, remains and was even 10 years ago a tiny cuvée of only 240 cases, with the Merlot coming from a vein of heavy clay on their vineyard. An inky purple color offers up notes of white chocolate, mocha, espresso roast, blackcurrants and black cherries. Full-bodied and opulent, it is a beautifully, lush, succulent, generously endowed wine that can be drunk now as well as over the next 12-15 years."(98pts)

1291 Château Gazin - Vintage 2010

Pomerol

"...offers up notes of caramelized black cherry and black currant fruit interwoven with mocha, white chocolate, subtle toast and hints of coffee beans and tobacco leaf. The exceptional aromatics are easily followed up by a full-bodied, powerful, broodingly backward, rich, intense wine with multiple dimensions, layers of fruit, and a sensational finish of close to a minute. This is one of the all-time great efforts from Gazin."(96pts)

Opaque ruby/purple-colored (no amber), with a bouquet of blackcurrant fruit, pepper, and licorice, this enormously structured wine has outstanding depth and firm, abundant tannin. Anticipated maturity: 2000-2010. Last tasted 11/95."(90pts)

La cuvée du Papet, Clos du Mont Olivet

"The dark ruby color reveals slight lightening at the edge. Stunning aromatics offer up classic Châteauneuf du Pape aromas of balsam wood, garrigue, kirsch liqueur, blackberries, and pepper. An extraordinarily voluptuously-textured effort, with layers of concentration, no sense of heaviness, mouth-staining levels of richness, and more than 14.5% alcohol, this astonishing wine proves what old vine Grenache can achieve."(98pts)

It displays a darker color along with notes of tar, smoke, spices, toasted oak and dark fruit on a full-bodied frame with terrific expansiveness and length on the palate. A lingering note of licorice frames the finish of this beautiful, deeply expressive Brunello. Anticipated maturity: 2009-2021."(94pts)

"If the wine I tasted out of barrel is bottled without losing its extraordinary fruit and precision (i.e. little fining or filtration), it will be a blockbuster. Dark ruby-colored and exhibiting copious quantities of sweet dark fruits, violets, and traces of minerals, this wine is magnificently defined, elegant, and feminine. An intense, juicy, and fabulously pure core of candied cherries, plums, blueberries, and flowers can be found in this full-bodied, velvety, and admirably long wine. Projected maturity: 2003-2009+. "The percentage of new oak casks used at Haut-Bages-Liberal was increased and the selection process tightened, and the result in 1986 is their finest wine since the 1975, and certainly one of the best wines ever made at the property. Dark ruby/purple, with an expansive bouquet of plums, sweet toasty oak, and black currants, this dense, full-bodied, chewy wine has a suppleness that will allow it to be drunk in the early nineties. But it also has the balance, richness, and tannin content to age well for at least another 20 years."(90pts)

This is shallow soil interspersed with loads of pebbles and stones. Calera, Mt. Eden and Swan clones. It exhibits a dense ruby/purple-tinged color as well as a sweet bouquet of raspberries, black cherries, earth and spring flowers. Juicy and succulent with a medium to full-bodied mouthfeel and terrific acids buttressing and giving delineation to this complex Pinot, it will benefit from 2-3 years of bottle age, will hit its peak in 5-10 years, and last for 12-15. Hyde Vineyard
(Wines Located in New York)
"There is no shortage of personality in the 2010 Cabernet Sauvignon Hyde Vineyard. Licorice, sweet herbs and menthol all emerge from the glass. This is one of the darker, meatier wines in the lineup, but it is full of character. Sweet, floral notes add a measure of refinement on the finish, but this remains a decidedly wild Cabernet. Anticipated maturity: 2015-2025."(93pts)

"The estate's top bottling, the 2005 Campoleone, is a cuvée of equal parts Sangiovese and Merlot that spent 12 months in French oak. A full-bodied, racy red, the wine possesses compelling layers of dark cherries, licorice, mint, tobacco, sweet herbs and French oak in an elegant, beautifully balanced style. Today the wine comes across as quite primary, but it should develop nicely with time in the bottle. Anticipated maturity: 2010-2020."(92pts)

"Dark cherries, smoke, licorice and earthiness are some of the nuances that emerge from 2006 Campoleone, a blend of Sangiovese and Merlot that spent 12 months in French oak. This is a decidedly dark, brooding red from Lamborghini. As good as it is, I can't help feeling that the wine is trapped by excessive concentration and new oak. With a lighter touch this could be a truly important, benchmark wine for Umbria. Anticipated maturity: 2012-2021."(91pts)

"The 2009 Pinot Noir Rosella's shows great focus and depth in its ripe red fruit, rose petals, freshly cut flowers and spices. Tobacco, licorice and sweet floral notes wrap around the delicate, polished finish. The Rosella's reveals a touch more oak influence than the straight Santa Lucia Highlands bottling. The main clones are 113, 667 and Pisoni. Anticipated maturity: 2011-2016."(91pts)

"Simply put, the 2007 Taurasi Riserva Coste is one of the greatest young wines I have ever tasted. An exciting melange of black cherries, mocha, grilled herbs, spices and licorice saturates the palate from start to finish. Rich, deep and sensual, the 2007 is simply majestic. Layers of fruit build effortlessly to the huge, intense close. A kick of bacon fat, tar and smoke evokes memories of the 1966 La Mouline. This is a stunning wine by any measure. The 2007 was brought in on October 28, exceptionally late in a year in which so many parts of Italy experienced early harvests. The wine spent two years in neutral oak casks and was bottled unfinned and unfiltered."(97pts)

(Wines Located in New York)
"The lovely 2012 Duemani is a wine that will show its potential further down the road. This warm vintage expression is muscular and compact at this initial stage in its evolution. It needs more years of bottle aging to unwind and soften. You certainly get a whiff of that profound potential on the horizon. Impenetrable fruit, blackberry, prune and cherry liqueur is trailed by oak spice, barbecue smoke and campfire ash. The oak element is very strong and not fully integrated yet. This is a masterful creation from one of Italy's most talented winemakers."(94pts)
